Fr. Gauthreaux Going To Rome Council

Rev. Earl Gauthreaux, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Gauthreaux, Sr., of Plaquemine, and Judge in the Matrimonial Court of the Catholic Archdiocese of New Orleans, left Wednesday afternoon for New

Father Gauthreaux

York from where he will fly to Rome, Italy, for the up-coming session of the Ecumenical Council. Father Gauthreaux, a graduate of St. John High, St. Joseph's Seminary, Covington, Notre Dame Seminary, New Orleans, and Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., will join Archbishop John P. Cody in Rome. He will serve during the session as a special assistant to the Archbishop, and will remain in Rome for the duration of the Council.

Greater Plaquemine Post, September 10, 1964