Ovide,

Thanks for the new report. Would you please advise what the status of this priest is, and where he is. I'm going to call Exeter PD and get a contact person for you to report this to. It may or may not have prosecutorial merit, but we need to find that out. If this priest, as you know, has been out of state, it may have some merit. I will e-mail you with the contact person in Exeter and let me know when the report to Exeter has been made.

Thanks, Tony F.

Subject: Re: request on Fr. Memolo

Tony,

In response to the questions Detective Winterer and you have posed regarding Father Memolo, this is the best information the Diocese has in its files:

1. When did Memolo leave St. Michael's and what placements has he had since then.

The following is a listing of Father Memolo's parish assignments. He left St Michael's on June 18, 1979. The remaining parish assignments are listed below.

Parish Assignments:

| | |
|---|--------------------------------------|
| Saint Michael Parish, Exeter: | December 18, 1976 to June 18, 1979 |
| Saint Mary Parish, Dover | June 18, 1979 to June 15, 1983 |
| Our Lady of Mercy Parish, Merrimack | June 15, 1983 to October 8, 1986 |
| Saint Joseph Parish, Laconia | October 8, 1986 to January 28, 1987 |
| Holy Angels Parish, Plaistow | January 28, 1987 to June 1987 |
| Saint Mary Chapel, Texas A & M University, College Station, Texas | June 1987 to February 6, 1989 |
| Saint Christopher Parish, Nashua | February 6, 1989 to January 27, 1993 |
| Holy Family Parish, Gorham | January 27, 1993 to August 3, 1993 |
| Sick Leave | August 3, 1993 to July 18, 1994 |

2. Are there any other accusations in Memolo's file.

There are no accusations against Fr Memolo in his file involving sexual misconduct with a minor.

3. Why and when did Memolo request a leave of absence.

Father Memolo requested to be placed on sick leave due to health reasons. Bishop Leo O'Neil granted his request on August 3, 1993.

On July 11, 1994 Father Memolo requested an additional one-year leave of absence. It was granted by Bishop O'Neil on July 18, 1994. Father Memolo has been on an extended leave of absence since then and has had no "faculties" or permission to serve as a Priest in the Diocese of Manchester.

I am forwarding a copy of this email to Detective Frank Winterer. Please let me know if you or he need additional information.

Subject: New Report: Claimant=[REDACTED], Accused=Fr. Michael Ledux

Tony,

Please find attached a new report which just came to our attention at the end of the week. Specifically, as you will see, this is a claim which was forwarded to us through a Massachusetts civil lawyer who represents the claimant.

Although he was working at St Thomas Aquinas parish in Derry where the conduct allegedly took place, the accused priest is not a diocesan priest. He is a Franciscan priest and is presently out of State. Father Arsenault has been in contact with his Provincial. I assume you will want us to notify Derry police but I will await further instructions from you.

In addition, we would be interested in notifying the Parish community about this (particularly given how relatively recently this occurred), but we will refrain from doing so if it is likely to impede an investigation by law enforcement. We will await your position on Parish notification.

Finally, please note that the complainant apparently does not want to be contacted directly. You'll see a reference to this in the notes at the end of the Report form.

I look forward to hearing from you about how best to proceed.

Identity of Accused: Fr. Michael Ledoux

1. Location (City/Town) of Alleged Abuse: Derry, NH
Place of Alleged Abuse: St. Thomas Aquinas

Complainant has been informed that information will be sent to law enforcement

Specific Concerns: The victim should not be contacted directly. His counsel requests that all law enforcement inquiries be directed through him. Carmen Durso, Esq., 617/728-9123. The Diocese of Manchester learned of this complaint through Mr. Durso on 01/23/03. The Provincial Superior of the Franciscan Friars (Rev. Robert Campagna, OFM) was contacted by the Delegate, Fr. Arsenault, on 01/24/03. Fr. Arsenault learned that the Province has known about the accusation since August or September 2002. Fr. Arsenault expressed his upset that the Franciscans had not notified the Diocese of Manchester directly and will address this in writing to the Provincial. The attorney for the Franciscans is Jim Geoli, and he can be reached in Chicago, IL at 312-840-7080 or 312-399-3006 (cell).

Fr. Ledoux was assigned to St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Derry, NH in 0486 and left NH in 09/89. Although the parish community has not been notified of this accusation, Fr. Arsenault wishes to work with the current pastor, Fr. Joseph Lorenzo, OFM, to do so as soon as possible, but with permission from the Office of the Attorney General to do so.

Good morning. I received your report on Fr. Maguire even though he is in prison and has not filed an appeal we will do some background to see what the status is at this time.

Secondly we have just heard from [REDACTED] who had filed a complaint against Fr. Paul Stevens Jan 31, 03. It does not appear that Tony did any followup on this one. Can you advise of the circumstances of Stevens leaving ministry, what his current status is with the Diocese and if there are any other complaints that the Diocese is aware of at this time. Thank you.

Paul-

Can you pull the file on this complaint again? Also, are there any other complaints against Fr. Paul Stevens? Do we know what he is up to these days? Do we know what the Diocese did with him?

Thanks,

Will
