Subject: New "Old" Report: [REDACTED] Fr Gale of Archdiocese of Boston

Dear Tony,

A few weeks ago, Diane Quinlan met a priest from the Archdiocese of Boston, Father O'Leary, at a conference who told her that a report had been filed with the Mass AG and the NH AG (or Hillsborough County Attorney) in 2002 (and to local law enforcement earlier in the 1990's) regarding alleged abuse by a Father Robert Gale at his camp in NH involving a [REDACTED]. Apparently [REDACTED] was a youth volunteer at Camp Fatima's "Exceptional Citizens Week" program and was allegedly abused at Fr Gale's private home.

After learning about this information, Diane reviewed Diocesan records and determined that the Diocese has no file on this matter and she assumes the Diocese was not previously informed about this matter. Fr Gale is not permitted to minister in New Hampshire.

Please find attached a report about this matter with contact information for Fr O'Leary. Please let me know if I can provide you additional information. We do not know in which New Hampshire community the abuse allegedly took place or any details for that matter. I would suggest your calling Father O'Leary, if you would like to obtain specific information about the alleged abuse.

Dear Paul,

Attached are two new reports that the Diocese received through Peter Hutchins' office. I understand that Peter is on vacation until January 12, and I do not know whether he notified his clients that the Diocese would be making a report to civil authorities.

The allegations pertain to a deceased priest (Fr. Francis Lamothe) and an incarcerated priest (Fr. Gordon MacRae).

Please let me know if you have questions, comments or would want us to contact local law enforcement authorities.

On the other hand a review of the statute of limitations on the MacRae report seems to have an expiration in 2008. Definately refer to the Hampton NH Police Department. Paul,

According to the Diocesan Directory, the Northeast area superior for the Oblates is:

Rev. William O'Donnell, OMI
60 Wyman Street
Lowell, MA 01852-2481
978-458-9912

I hope this helps. Please let me know if there is any other information you need and I'll see what I can obtain for you.

Ovide

Thanks for the response. Yes I recognize that the Oblates are not part of NH. If there is a contact person my first thought is to determine where Fr. Lirette is located if he is still alive and if he has been back to NH for any length of time. The question is similar to some other cases when an out of state priest violated someone and then left the state the statute of limitations didn't run. Is this something you can determine who I or you should contact?
Thanks for you help.

Paul,

Yes, we understand there are two old incidents.

We do not have any details about Fr. Lirette. As you may know, the Oblates are a religious order independent and separate from the Diocese. The Oblates would be the source of any information.

Please let me know if there is something we can do if you want to follow up with them.

Do I read this correct that there are two complaints? One with Fr. Gagne (deceased) at unknown location. Second Fr. Lirette from the Order of Oblates that took place in Manchester? Do we know anything further regarding the location of Lirette and the address of his mother?
