Dear Paul,

In response to your question below and your voice mail this morning, it appears from our Diocesan records that Father Osgood left the State of New Hampshire in 1968. I do not know whether he returned to the State at any time thereafter.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need additional information.

 Thank you for your response. I guess the only remaining question would be, if known, at what point Fr. Osgood left the state of NH? We believe the time period has expired but if he left shortly after the incident then there is a question. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Dear Paul,

Thank you for updating me on the status of Fr Lirette.

With respect to Fr Osgood and [REDACTED] this is what I have learned:

[REDACTED] did call the Diocese originally on March 21, 2002 to report the abuse by Fr. Osgood which had occurred in the late 1950's or early 1960's. At that time he told Joe Naff of NH Catholic Charities that he only wanted to report his experiences to the Diocese and not to law enforcement.

000197

Joe sent a follow-up letter to [REDACTED] on May 7, 2002 and a second letter on September 16, 2002 in which he encouraged [REDACTED] to report the incidents to the NH Attorney General's office or to the Hillsborough County Attorney. Joe did not hear back from him until he received a call from [REDACTED] on the afternoon of 12/17/03 at 3:00pm.

Apparently [REDACTED] had recently received an invitation from Joe to attend a retreat day on January 17, 2004. Apparently this letter prompted [REDACTED]'s call in to Joe.

[REDACTED] said his mother died this past summer and he had been back in NH which triggered memories of his abuse by Fr. Osgood. In his conversation with Joe Naff, Mr. Osgood asked if the whereabouts of Fr. Osgood was known. Joe told him that he didn't know either his whereabouts or Father Osgood's current status; he only knew that Fr Osgood had reportedly abandoned ministry many years ago.

Joe Naff also told [REDACTED] that he would inquire at the Diocese and would let him know if there was any new or further information that he could share with him about Fr. Osgood's status. Joe also asked [REDACTED] if he thought some counseling would be helpful to him because of the memories that he has been experiencing and he said that he as been in counseling.

[REDACTED] also asked about the Diocese's involvement with the Attorney General's office and Joe informed him of the AG's investigation last year, the agreement reached in December 2002 and the reporting requirements of the Diocese to the AG's office effective December 2002.

[REDACTED] seemed satisfied with the conversation and did not request anything further from Joe.

After receiving your email, I learned separately from Diane Quinlan that just last week she spoke with Mark Abramson, and asked him if he knew Donald Osgood's whereabouts. He sent the following address for him:

Donald Osgood
[REDACTED] W
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

The Diocese had been trying to track him down for a long time (we thought he was in CA). He abandoned ministry many years ago, and we did not know where he was. Mark Abramson told Diane that Osgood said that he is dying of cancer. He doesn't know if it is true or not. (Either Mark or someone from his office spoke with him months ago—we don't know if his status has changed since.) The Diocese then sent a letter last week notifying the bishop in GA that we understand that Mr. Osgood lives in his diocese.

This is the most current information I was able to obtain from Diocesan officials. Please let me know if you would like any other information. I assume you will provide [REDACTED] an update.

RE: Fr. Lirette. I called Fr. O'Donnel, directed to a Fr. Calette in DC and received call back from Atty. McDougall from DC who represents the Oblates. He advised there were several Fr. Lirette and he is checking to see which one may have come from Manchester. All evidently deceased with exception of 86 year old in nursing home in Lowell, MA.

Secondly a question. We have received an inquirey from a [REDACTED] from [REDACTED]. He advised that he had reported to Joe Naff in early 2002 about incidents that took place 1960 to 1962 at the Cathedral by Fr. Osgood. He recently received a letter about some service that is taking place in Jan 2004 and it brought back the memories. He was supposedly told that Fr. Osgood could not be located and nothing has taken place. My question is are you aware of this one? I have checked our files and I do not show this as a previous report. Please advise. Have a Great Holiday.

Subject: New report: ██████████ St. Jean Complaint

Dear Paul,

Although I do not believe the Diocese was required to submit this report to the Office of the Attorney General under the Agreement, I am doing so as a matter of courtesy and to keep you apprized of these types of complaints when we believe it may be helpful to do so.

Attached is a report from an individual who lives in Nashua about alleged abuse he suffered in Massachusetts involving a Massachusetts religious priest in 1960 or 1961. The priest is now deceased. We do not have any additional information about the complainant or the accusation other than what is in the attached report. The complainant indicated that he would contact our victim assistance coordinator, but he has not done so. He did not leave a telephone number. We are trying to locate him so that we can follow up.

We do not believe that this is reportable to the Attorney General's office because it does not involve Diocese of Manchester "Church personnel" and did not take place in New Hampshire. The Diocese has made a verbal report to the Archdiocese of Boston and intends to submit the attached document to the Archdiocese, so that the Archdiocese can submit a report to the MA Attorney General's office. We therefore thought that we should submit the report to the NH Attorney General's office.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
