Subject: RE: [REDACTED]/Gagne 1963 Complaint

Paul,

According to the Diocesan Directory, the Northeast area superior for the Oblates is:

Rev. William O'Donnell, OMI
60 Wyman Street
Lowell, MA 01852-2481
978-458-9912

I hope this helps. Please let me know if there is any other information you need and I'll see what I can obtain for you.

Ovide

Thanks for the response. Yes I recognize that the Oblates are not part of NH. If there is a contact person my first thought is to determine where Fr. Lirette is located if he is still alive and if he has been back to NH for any length of time. The question is similar to some other cases when an out of state priest violated someone and then left the state the statute of limitations didn't run. Is this something you can determine who I or you should contact?
Thanks for you help.

Paul,

Yes, we understand there are two old incidents.

We do not have any details about Fr. Lirette. As you may know, the Oblates are a religious order independent and separate from the Diocese. The Oblates would be the source of any information.

Please let me know if there is something we can do if you want to follow up with them.

Do I read this correct that there are two complaints? One with Fr. Gagne (deceased) at unknown location. Second Fr. Lirette from the Order of Oblates that took place in Manchester? Do we know anything further regarding the location of Lirette and the address of his mother?
