Jim Houghton, RAO advised that the victim is [REDACTED] (1970) and the offense occurred during 1982-1983. Preliminary review of complaint by RAO is that statute of limitations has not expired and McCray is still chargeable for these offenses. Houghton wanted to know if we wanted case and I told him no. I advised him to have Hampton detectives do the investigation and the prosecution will remain with RAO.

 We have reviewed the two submissions. There is no questions that the Lamothe issue will be filed. On the other hand a review of the statute of limitations on the MacRae report seems to have an expiration in 2008. Definitely refer to the Hampton NH Police Department. The Chief is William Wrenn 66 Ashworth Ave., Hampton, NH 03842 tel 603-929-4444. I will make the appropriate entries here and await the disposition.

Dear Paul,

Attached are two new reports that the Diocese received through Peter Hutchins' office. I understand that Peter is on vacation until January 12, and I do not know whether he notified his clients that the Diocese would be making a report to civil authorities.

The allegations pertain to a deceased priest (Fr. Francis Lamothe) and an incarcerated priest (Fr. Gordon MacRae).

Please let me know if you have questions, comments or would want us to contact local law enforcement authorities.
