Subject: RE: Report: [REDACTED] (Perpetrator(s) Unknown)

I just spoke with Atty. Hutchins. He said we can disregard. He evidently attempted to substantiate some facts and was not able to. I did learn that the uncle, [REDACTED], supposedly was a custodian at the time. Noted and filed.

Dear Paul:

This report was made by Ms. [REDACTED] through Peter Hutchins, Esq. in September 2003 when he filed a legal claim on her behalf with the Diocese. We do not have a written record reporting this to you, so I am doing so now.

Ms. [REDACTED] alleges that sometime in the time frame of 1950-1952 two priests sexually abused her at the [REDACTED]. She alleges that her uncle, [REDACTED] (who we do not know whether he is still alive), would bring her to [REDACTED] at night and would watch while the priests (at least one of which wore a hood) would sexually abuse her. She said that she did not know who the priests were but thought that they were priests because they were wearing Roman collars.

Paul, I would suggest that you contact Peter Hutchins directly if you want more information. Given the age of the complaint and the uncertainty surrounding the identity of the accused(s), unless I hear from you otherwise, I will assume that you will simply file this report for future reference.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
