Sister: I referred your question to the Atty. assigned. He advised that your concerns and those of [REDACTED] will be noted. In the event there is ever a request for information under our state law referred to as 91A that we will be extra careful to redact her name etc.

I also emailed Atty. Quirk (Diocese liaison) and he advised that Joe Naff had extended pastoral care to you in the event [REDACTED] wants to seek that route.

Mr. Brodeur:

I spoke to [REDACTED] and she is concerned that her name is on the document in your possession. Is it possible to change it to Ms Jane Doe?

I have given her your name and email address.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

[REDACTED]

I can be reached by email after today---I am away until Feb. 9th.

Paul,

Sister [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] recently contacted Diane Quinlan to provide her with the information set forth in the attached Report Summary. [REDACTED] told Sister [REDACTED] years ago that she was abused by a janitor at St. John Baptist school in Suncook, NH in approximately 1974-75. The school was closed in June of 1974, and the janitor's last name may have been [REDACTED].

Sister [REDACTED] told Diane that [REDACTED] did not want anyone to know about the incident. Diane informed Sister [REDACTED] that she understood but stated that she (Diane) would be reporting this information to the NH Attorney General's Office. Sister [REDACTED] telephone number is [REDACTED], so that you can contact her directly.

Sincerely,

Brian

Brian I called Sr. [REDACTED]. She advised that [REDACTED] is not aware that she has reported this to us. She has been trying to reach her but has not connected. In reviewing the info we have appears the SOL has expired in [REDACTED] would have been 18 prior to 1984. Sr. [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] is still "hurting". If [REDACTED] is willing to discuss presume it will be with Diocese for whatever assistance they can render.
