Re: Diocese 4th. Quarter Report

Dear Attorney Quirk:

I have reviewed your fourth quarter report of reported incident by the Diocese of Manchester.

I agree with your report of [REDACTED] but in that the [REDACTED] report was not made to the Office of the Attorney General until January 2007, my records reflect this as a first quarter 2007 submission. Also the fact that the initial report had no substantive information and was developed further in 2007, we will carry this as a first quarter of 2007 report.

RE: 2006 First Quarter Audit

Dear Paul:

I am in receipt of the fully executed reconciliation report for the period of April 1, 2006 through June 30, 2006. This confirms that all reports of sexual abuse of a minor by Church personnel received by the Diocese of Manchester and forwarded to your office have been reconciled for that period.

With respect to the reconciliation report for the period of January 1, 2006 through March 31, 2006, reports concerning [REDACTED] (report date of 3/8/06) and employees at Bishop Brady High School (report date of 3/31/06) were not included on this form. The reconciliation report is generated to ensure that all reports of sexual abuse of a minor by Church personnel that are received by the Diocese of Manchester have been forwarded by the Diocese to the Attorney General's Office in accordance with the December 2002 agreement. As we discussed, the reports concerning Mr. [REDACTED] and the employees of Bishop Brady High School did not relate to sexual abuse of a minor. Thus, those reports were not included on the reconciliation report.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Very truly yours,

Brian M. Quirk

Received call from Brian Quirk. He will followup with a letter. He advised the audit letter was to only reconcile sexual abuse of minors. Diocese does submit other reports to KPMG re: civil matters etc. [REDACTED] was writing letters to the girl. He was terminated. The 3 at Bishop Brady verbal sexual harassment was a civil suit that went to court and the case was dismissed.
