Summary
During the year 1990, the Diocese of Pittsburgh received a report from a 30-year-old male that he had engaged in sexual activity with acknowledged the sexual activity.
On December 23, 1993, a 28-year-old male met with Father Guay, Father Zubik and Rita Flaherty. He reported that he was sexually assaulted by when he was 17 years of age. He stated that shortly after his father's death, he went to see at the rectory. During the visit, offered him a "joint" to smoke. He and then started to drink alcoholic beverages while smoking marijuana. The male reported that started to drink alcoholic beverages while smoking marijuana. The male reported that again until 1986, when he was a junior in college. He described their relationship as being one of a social nature with "sexual overtones." In 1988, after being away from the Pittsburgh area, the male made contact with On this occasion, again grabbed for his genital area. The male resisted and no conduct occurred.
Diocesan officials thereafter conducted an interview with who denied having made any attempt at sexual contact with the male when he was 17. He did acknowledge, however, that he saw the male at his rectory socially when he was a young adult. It stated that on those occasions, there was movement toward sexual activity but it never progressed very far. Eventually, felt that the male was just "toying with him" so the friendship ended.
The male was provided with therapy/counseling through the Diocese.
