Dear Brian

Thank you for your kind words in our recent telephone conversation. Your palpable concern for priests in trouble is most comforting. I only wish my project could have worked.

Recently I received this bill from Mr. O'Neill. Evidently the $2,500 sent to me by the Archbishop has run out. Somehow previous notifications never reached me.

Lest I lose the good services of Mr. O'Neill is it possible to secure another loan?

Wishing you much success in your new ministry
