

Scroll down to next page to view exhibit.

ANDREW, WRIEDT, KEENAN & KELLOGG

ATTORNEYS AT LAW
5 VILLAGE SQUARE
P. O. BOX 428

WESTPORT, CONNECTICUT 06881

WALTER M. ANDREW, JR.
HANS C. F. WRIEDT
THOMAS M. KEENAN*
WM. BRADLEY KELLOGG
MEMBER OF VA. AND FLA. BARS

(203) 226-4275

April 19, 1985

Reverend Monsignor Andrew T. Cusack
The Catholic Center
238 Jewett Avenue
Bridgeport, Connecticut 06606

Re: Judith Knecht and Walter Coleman
174 Beach Avenue, Milford, Connecticut

Dear Monsignor Cusack:

I represent Judith Knecht of 174 Beach Avenue, Milford, Connecticut, in connection with a foreclosure action of her home which was instituted by First Federal Bank of Connecticut.

As you can see from the enclosed documents, I also represent Mrs. Knecht in connection with a pending litigation against Walter Coleman. This litigation was commenced as a last resort when Father Coleman refused to communicate concerning the foreclosure action instituted by First Federal Bank.

Frederick F. Ehram, Jr., Father Coleman's attorney, today advised me that his client is not in a financial position to offer any assistance in preserving Mrs. Knecht's home. It may be that the Diocese could be of help in this matter.

I would be most grateful if you could call me upon receipt of my letter so that we could arrange for an appointment to sit down together and discuss the problem.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Keenan

TMK:elp
Enclosures
cc: Mrs. Judith Knecht