Dear Father Carr:

Pursuant to our conversation of this morning I write in the name of Most Reverend Edward M. Egan, Bishop of Bridgeport, to inform you that in response to the allegations contained in the civil suit served on us today, you have been granted an indefinite leave of absence effective March 30, 1995. At the same time your assignment as Parochial Vicar of Saint Andrew Parish ceases, and your priestly faculties are withdrawn.

Trusting that you understand the reasons for these actions, I join Bishop Egan in praying that the Lord will bless you with the graces you need at this time in your life.

Fraternally yours in Christ Jesus,

Rev. Msgr. Laurence R. Bronkiewicz, S.T.D.
Episcopal Vicar for Clergy and Religious
