March 25, 1987

Dear Otto,

I'd been concelebrating and helping out at St. Rita's since March 14, and came to stay this past Saturday the 21st.

Unfortunately as of yesterday the 24th word came from the chancery that I cannot stay. I did not quite understand the reason; it was something about health insurance.

The pastor John Reardon is graciously allowing me to stay until Monday by which time I intend to visit Fr. Benedict (Groschel) at Trinity House in Larchmont to see if he can intercede for me.

I lived with Fr. Reardon for the month I covered Jacoby Hospital upon returning from St. Lou. I don't know what he intends to give me by way of stipends so I shall add that to next month's letter. Meanwhile I have earned $200 to this date.

In Christ,

Romano
