MEMORANDUM

To: File

From: Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator (P)

Re: Department of Children and Family Services Investigation

Date: September 14, 2006

PRA attempted to reach Tom Hampson of the Department of Children and Family Services [DCFS] via phone on September 12, 2006 regarding a reported DCFS investigation that included interviewing Dorothy Janik, a secretary at St. Mary of Perpetual Help. PRA left a voice mail message for Mr. Hampson and requested a return phone call at his convenience.

PRA received a return phone call from Mr. Hampson on September 13, 2006. Mr. Hampson was informed that PRA was calling to inquire about his investigation that brought him to St. Mary of Perpetual Help the week prior to speak with Ms. Janik. PRA explained that clarification was needed to determine if DCFS was investigating a matter involving the sexual abuse of a minor at St. Mary of Perpetual Help. Upon informing Mr. Hampson of the reason for the phone call, PRA noted the significant period of silence that followed. Mr. Hampson finally informed PRA that his reason for being at St. Mary of Perpetual Help the week prior "...relates to an older case that you don't probably have..." He added that Ms. Janik's name "...was provided to us [DCFS]..."

As the discussion continued, Mr. Hampson was informed that PRA again wanted to clarify if whatever DCFS was investigating at St. Mary of Perpetual Help was something that needed to be known/documented in the Office of Professional Responsibility. When asked what he was investigating, Mr. Hampson informed PRA that it was "...nothing he could talk about..." As PRA asked more specific questions, Mr. Hampson provided the information that the priest that this matter involves is one that "...you [the Archdiocese of Chicago] already know about..." Also when asked, Mr. Hampson stated that the priest was already out of ministry and was alive.

Mr. Hampson remarked, "...I don't know if you know anything about Dorothy Janik..." to which PRA responded that she did not. As per Mr. Hampson, Ms. Janik [REDACTED] has worked at numerous parishes in the area. Mr. Hampson stated that the matter that he spoke with Ms. Janik about does not concern St. Mary of Perpetual Help. He mentioned "...Fr. Craig and some of the others..." as priests who were involved in this current investigation that led him to Ms. Janik. Mr. Hampson noted that the investigation does not involve the current pastor of St. Mary of Perpetual Help, Rev. Donald Craig. Referring back to his previous mention of Fr. Craig, Mr. Hampson remarked that Fr. Donald Craig is not related to the "Fr. Craig" who is included in his current investigation.

When asked, Mr. Hampson stated that this current investigation is not based upon a recent call to the DCFS Hotline. Mr. Hampson clarified that the investigation is "...based on material already received from you [the review of files in the Office of Professional Responsibility]..." He stated that he is "...following leads..." and that Ms. Janik's name came up after speaking with other individuals during his investigation. Mr. Hampson stated that he informed Ms. Janik that this investigation did not have anything to do with her or with Fr. [Donald] Craig. He stated that this investigation is concerning "...a very old incident...where [Dorothy] Janik used to work..." and again clarified that the incident occurred "...years ago..." Mr. Hampson reiterated that he is "...following up on leads..." based upon "...other cases you [the Archdiocese of Chicago] gave us already..."

PRA again stated that she wanted to ensure that Mr. Hampson's investigation that brought him to Ms. Janik and St. Mary of Perpetual Help did not involve the alleged abuse of a current minor by a cleric and/or lay employee of the Archdiocese of Chicago. Mr. Hampson again stated that his investigation is concerning an old case and that if it was a current case, that DCFS "...would let you [PRA/the Archdiocese of Chicago] know..." He then remarked, "We're treating these cases differently...they're older..."

With Mr. Hampson's comment referring to information provided to DCFS by the Archdiocese of Chicago, PRA assumes that Mr. Hampson was referring to the former Rev. Robert Craig and the substantiated allegations of sexual misconduct against him. According to Archdiocesan Archives, Fr. Robert Craig's history of assignments is as follows:

- May 8, 1974 through August 1977 - St. Aloysius
- August 10, 1977 through June 8, 1982 - All Saints-St. Anthony
- June 8, 1982 through June 9, 1987 - St. Ann [on Leavitt Street]
- June 9, 1987 through October 1, 1993 - St. Mark [in Chicago]
- 1990 through 1993 - Medical Leave of Absence
- October 1, 1993 - Resigned active ministry

Prior to ending the phone call, PRA informed Mr. Hampson that the female who accompanied him to the interview of Ms. Janik left a billfold behind. Mr. Hampson expressed his surprise and asked if PRA had the billfold. PRA stated that she believed that Ms. Janik still had the billfold and asked who the woman was who accompanied him so that it could be returned to her. Mr. Hampson stated that a woman named Judith Dunning accompanied him to see Ms. Janik and that she was currently out of town. When asked by PRA if Ms. Dunning "...was another DCFS worker..." Mr. Hampson agreed. Mr. Hampson stated that he would inform Ms. Dunning upon her return about her billfold and would instruct her to contact Ms. Janik.

PRA thanked Mr. Hampson for the return phone call. Mr. Hampson may be reached at [REDACTED].

Leah,

Laura sent me info from your file on this allegation. It is basically notes of a phone conversation with McBrady dated 11/9/99 and 11/16/99 re: an anonymous letter to the Cardinal re: Craig. I have tried to track down the letter and noone seems to have a copy. Would you please do a memo to all concerned (including the Cardinal) and ask for a copy. Without it, do we even have an allegation?

Thanks,

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note of September 30, 2004 in response to your letter of September 23, 2004, regarding the matter of Robert Craig, a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago who resigned from priestly ministry many years ago, and the allegations of sexual misconduct that were made against him by [REDACTED]. This matter was discussed by the Professional Responsibility Review Board at their meeting of September 18, 2004.

I accept the Review Board's determination that there is reasonable cause to suspect that Robert Craig engaged in acts of sexual misconduct with a minor prior to his resignation from priestly ministry.

Since this is a matter which must be referred to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith for further instruction as to how to proceed, I will refer the matter to that Congregation and ask for their assistance.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, of Victim N's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on May 25, 2004, formalizing his allegation of sexual abuse against Fr. Robert Craig. According to Victim N's statement, he met Fr. Craig when he was in the sixth grade at St. Ann's. Towards the end of seventh grade, Fr. Craig invited a group of boys including Victim N to go swimming. Fr. Craig wrestled with the boys, groped them and watched them shower. On some occasions, Fr. Craig invited Victim N to the rectory at St. Mark's parish to study. During overnight stays at St. Mark's rectory, he fondled, groped and digitally penetrated Victim N. Victim N was abused by Fr. Craig approximately 30 to 40 times between seventh grade and tenth grade.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, of Victim O's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on May 5, 2004, formalizing his allegation of sexual abuse against Fr. Robert Craig. According to Victim O's statement, he met Fr. Craig when he was in seventh grade for religious classes. Fr. Craig took Victim O to the zoo, swimming, and bought him gifts. Fr. Craig showered with Victim O and fondled his genitals in the shower. On overnight trips to the rectory at St. Ann's and later at St. Mark's, Fr. Craig fondled Victim O in his room at the rectory. Victim O reported that he was sexually abused on numerous occasions between seventh grade and ninth grade.

Dear Ed,

This is just to inform you that Bob Craig's assignment at St. Mark's has been officially concluded. He will remain on administrative leave. Since he has been away from St. Mark's for a considerable amount of time, it seems best not to make any mention publically of the official conclusion of his assignment. If you think otherwise, please let me know.

Bob continues to reside at the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House and mail can be sent to him in care of the Vicar for Priests.

RE: Robert Craig

1. The Cardinal met with Bob Craig on this day. Also present were Bishop Goedert, Pat O'Malley and Andy McDonagh. Bob said he would listen carefully to what the Cardinal said. The Cardinal told him there would be no more public ministry. He is too great a risk. And the Cardinal said he needs to protect Bob and the people of the Archdiocese.

2. What could he possibly do as a priest; Bob asked. He could be placed under very tight supervision and he could celebrate Mass in a private way for the community. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. The Cardinal also explained very carefully for Bob what does it mean to resign from the priesthood, what does it mean to be laicized. Bob said he needed to reflect on it more. We offered him two possibilities:

A. To resign from the priesthood or

B. Not to resign and to move into a supervised setting such as [REDACTED].

2. We said that we would work with him to effect whatever needs to be done at this point. The meeting was difficult and rather lengthy -- for about an hour and a half.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

I, Robert Craig, as evidence of my good faith and sincere desire to be cooperative with the Archdiocesan authorities, freely accept the following conditions and will abide by them until such time as the same Archdiocesan authorities determine otherwise:

1. Under pain of suspension, I will refrain from being in the company of any and all minor children, under the age of 18, without another adult being present; and if such eventuality does occur, I will take leave of that child immediately.

2. I will leave my assignment at St. Mark Church on Thursday, Oct. 4; and while still there, I will be under the direct supervision of the pastor, Rev. Edward Maloney.

3. I will cooperate fully [REDACTED]

4. For the time being, I will live [REDACTED], during which period I will refrain from all public priestly ministry, without the explicit knowledge and permission of the Vicar for Priests or the Cardinal. And under no circumstance will I have any contact with minors, unless another adult is present.

5. I also recognize that I must be under supervision [REDACTED], and I agree to accept as my direct supervisor whomever the Vicar for Priests shall designate; and I will remain in contact with this person in accord with the directives given me.

Conference Call

PRA arrived at the Vicar for Priests Office shortly after the 2:30 pm scheduled meeting time. Rev. Vincent Costello initiated the conference call with the former Rev. Robert Craig and his attorney Patrick Reardon just after 2:30 pm. Fr. Costello reached Mr. Craig and Mr. Reardon at Mr. Reardon's office.

Fr. Costello and PRA began by asking Mr. Craig and Mr. Reardon if they had any questions or concerns prior to continuing the phone call. Mr. Reardon stated that he and Mr. Craig did not have any questions and suggested that PRA begin with reading the allegation.

PRA proceeded to read Mr. [REDACTED] allegation against Mr. Craig in its entirety.

After PRA read the entire allegation, Mr. Reardon stated that a response to Mr. [REDACTED] allegation would not be provided due to the "...pending litigation [of a different matter involving Mr. Craig] involving the same attorney [Jeff Anderson]."

AOC 001665

Mr. Reardon then requested that PRA forward a copy of Mr. [REDACTED] allegation to him. When asked by PRA, Mr. Craig indicated that he did not need to have a copy of the allegation and that having a copy sent to Mr. Reardon would be sufficient.

Fr. Costello and PRA thanked Mr. Craig and Mr. Reardon for their time. It was agreed that if Mr. Craig and/or Mr. Reardon had any additional questions to either contact Fr. Costello or PRA.

Dear Mr. Craig,

I want to thank you and Mr. Reardon for taking the time to speak with Rev. James T. Kaczorowski and myself the other evening.

Enclosed you will find a copy of the draft report written based upon our phone conversation that took place on June 10, 2004, concerning Mr. [REDACTED] allegation of sexual misconduct against you. Please make any changes necessary to ensure the accuracy of the report and return it in the enclosed envelope. If you feel that the report is accurate as written, please sign and date the report on the appropriate lines and return it to me in the same manner.

Mr. Craig, I ask that you return the report to me by July 8, 2004 so that I may continue to move this matter forward. Once I have a final copy of the report as indicated by the appropriate signatures, I will return a copy to you for your records.

Please know that you may contact me at [312] 751-5205 with any questions or concerns. Also know that your Vicar for Priests, Fr. Kaczorowski continues to be available to you and may be reached at [312] 642-1837.

Re: RESPONSE TO ALLEGATION OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT OF A MINOR AGAINST REV. ROBERT CRAIG [RESIGNED] MADE BY

Date: June 21, 2004

Date of Meeting: June 10, 2004

Time of Meeting: 9:00pm

Present at Meeting

Mr. Robert Craig
Mr. Patrick Reardon, attorney for Mr. Craig
Ms. Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator
Rev. James T. Kaczorowski, Vicar for Priests

Conference Call

Mr. Patrick Reardon contacted PRA via phone from his home just prior to the scheduled 9:00pm meeting time. Mr. Reardon then contacted Rev. James T. Kaczorowski via phone so that all could be linked together for the conference call. Mr. Robert Craig was present at Mr. Reardon's home and as a result, was also a part of the conference call.

After introductions were made, PRA asked Mr. Craig if he had any questions or concerns regarding the process of having an allegation of sexual misconduct of a minor made against him. Mr. Reardon indicated that he and Mr. Craig had spoken prior to the phone call and as a result, did not have any questions. It was agreed that PRA would forward a copy of Mr. [REDACTED] allegation to Mr. Reardon.

PRA then began by reading Mr. [REDACTED] allegation against Mr. Craig, the second of two allegations of sexual misconduct read to the accused during the June 10th meeting. PRA read the allegation in its entirety without any interruptions from either Mr. Craig or Mr. Reardon.

Mr. Reardon provided a response to both the initial and Mr. [REDACTED] allegation [on behalf of Mr. Craig] once the second of the two allegations was read to the accused. As per Mr. Reardon, he informed Fr. Kaczorowski earlier due to the fact that Mr. Craig is not a priest seeking assignment in the Archdiocese of Chicago and is not "looking for a review of [Mr. Craig's] fitness for ministry," they would not offer a response to the allegation. Mr. Reardon also shared his feeling that "the statute [of limitations] has run" on Mr. [REDACTED] allegation of sexual misconduct against Mr. Craig.

Fr. Kaczorowski then suggested that Mr. Craig offer some sort of specific response to the allegation and mentioned the Review Board's future review of this matter. As Mr. Craig's attorney, Mr. Reardon verbally declined Fr. Kaczorowski's suggestion/advice that the accused respond to Mr. [REDACTED] allegation. Mr. Reardon then stated that if he feels that any additional response is warranted upon his receipt of a copy of Mr. [REDACTED] allegation, he [and Mr. Craig] would provide a written response.

Mr. Robert Craig reviewed this report and his signature is a statement of agreement of the accuracy of what he/his attorney Mr. Patrick Reardon shared in the June 10, 2004 conference call. The conference call lasted for approximately 40 minutes.

Re: [REDACTED] Father Robert Craig

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Per our discussion, I am following up on your letter of January 28, 2004 regarding the above matter. I have passed your correspondence on to Ms. Leah McCluskey, the Professional Responsibility Administrator of the Archdiocese of Chicago. It is my understanding that she has been in contact with you about this matter. As you know, either you or your client can contact Mr. Ralph Bonaccorsi (312-751-8293), Assistance Minister of the Archdiocese, for therapy from a licensed therapist selected by your client at the Archdiocese's expense while this matter is being processed.

We would also note that on February 10, 1993, Mr. [REDACTED] met with Rev. Cletus Kiley, who was then the President of Niles College Seminary, to discuss the fact that Father Craig had tried to fondle Mr. [REDACTED] two times and had boys swimming nude at the Mundelein College pool. At that time, Father Kiley told Mr. [REDACTED] that Mr. [REDACTED] had the right to report this to the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services and to the Illinois State's Attorney's Office. Father Kiley also suggested to him that it might be important for him to do this right away. We do not know whether Mr. [REDACTED] followed up on Father Kiley's suggestion. Father Kiley also arranged an interview for Mr. [REDACTED] for admission into the Mercy Home for Boys & Girls independent living program.

Re: Robert Craig

Some time back in late 1993, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] In speaking to Ralph Bonaccorsi this morning, 2/24, Ralph mentioned that a [REDACTED] had come forward to the archdiocese looking for some help. [REDACTED] is the young man whose family first came forward on Robert Craig. Bonaccorsi will keep me informed as to what is happening in this matter. I will alert Craig that [REDACTED] has come forward.

On 2/24/95 I spoke to Robert Craig over the phone. He will be able to get health insurance through his employers but he does not think it will be available until March 1. He is covered to that point. I told him to call me back in case there is a problem and they are not able to do it immediately.

I told him of the call from [REDACTED] to Ralph Bonaccorsi. I told him that I would keep him informed as to the outcome of the meeting between Bonaccorsi and [REDACTED]

Dear Bob:

In light of your recent letter and also following your conversation with the Vicars for Priests, I hereby accept your request to resign from the active ministry, effective October 1, 1993.

Please be in contact with Father O'Malley regarding any particular question you may have. Also, in order that your resignation as a priest may be fully recognized canonically, may I suggest that you petition the Holy See to seek dispensation from the obligations of priesthood through laicization. Please contact Father David Hynous, O.P., for his assistance in this regard. I am sure you will find him most helpful. He can be reached at (312) 751-8211.

Bob, I know this decision was made after a great deal of soul searching and prayer and was not an easy one for you to make. Know of my prayers for you during this time of transition. Thank you for the work you did through these nearly twenty years of service to the Archdiocese. May you draw satisfaction from the ministry you rendered to God's people.

With cordial good wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Re: Robert Craig

Robert Craig is a client of ours who is being paid through your office. He recently sent me a memo of his transportation expenses for September. Although he traveled 1,092 miles back and forth to work, to school, [REDACTED] he is to receive only $198 additional transportation money. He is already receiving money toward the payment on his car. In addition, he had to spend $40 for an application for a limited license to work in nuclear medicine.

Therefore I would ask that you please send him a check for $198 plus $40 which would come to $238. Craig's present address is:

Craig will be resigning shortly and will no longer be on your payroll after 9/30/93.

Memo to Cardinal Bernardin
From: Rev. P. O'Malley
Re: Rev. Robert Craig
8/14/93

Fr. Robert Craig, presently in residence at the Retreat House, and I have been talking about his future. As you are aware, Bob is one of our neediest people. At the same time, he has been among the most cooperative, the most remorseful, and the most active in examining his own life and what lies ahead for him.

On his own, Bob has been re-tooling by taking courses in radiology and in horticulture. He needs one year to complete his work for the radiology certificate. He has been very faithful [REDACTED]

Given the fact that, at this time, he does not look forward to living under tight supervision for the rest of his life, he sees two options for himself:

- a) Check out the Cistercian monastery at Snowmass near Aspen to see if the life would appeal to him, and to see if they would be open to his coming there. At this very time, Bob is in Colorado at the monastery.
- b) Resign from priesthood, seek an exit package, move on in his life.

My own sense, unless something changes drastically, is that he is close to resigning. Therefore we have prepared an exit package within the monetary range approved by you and the Advisory Board for two other priests with whom we are working on a severance package. If you approve of its initial direction, I will present it to Bob.

The program is summed up on the final page of this agreement. The agreement itself is no different than the other ones we have prepared. Please look at the numbers we are proposing and then let us know your thinking. Do not sign this yet.

Were he to remain in our care, Bob would continue to receive [REDACTED] supervision, basic care, etc. for the rest of his life. While the initial outlay is high for this package, it is no more than what we would be putting out for expenses during the next 3-4 years.

Re: Robert Craig

I met with Bob Craig on 6/4/93 at the Retreat House. I explained to Bob that the move from Mercy Hospital of Vianney House will be taking place shortly and that the Cardinal wants him to move into the new [REDACTED] setting. He does not have to do it at exactly the same time as the others and so we worked out the following schedule:

1 - Bob would finish up his courses at Lake County College towards the end of June. He would live at the Retreat House and be subject to the monitoring of its directors.

2 - He would then take a trip to Snowmass Trappist monastery in Colorado. Along the way he would stop off to see the facility that Fr. Bertin Miller has for the Wounded Brothers project. This might be a possible residential setting for Bob in the future. Bob would work out an itinerary for me and he and I would go over it to set up ways of being in contact.

3 - When Bob comes back he knows that he will have to move somewhere. There are three possibilities:

- A. Resignation from priesthood with working out of a formal exit package;
- B. Residence at [REDACTED] with all the supervision that that would entail;
- C. Taking up residence at the Wounded Brothers project in St. Louis, with the possibility of somewhere down the line going even to the monastery at Snowmass.

4 - I spoke to Bob about the meaning of Canon 1044 and that the canonists were looking into it to see if he fell under it. According to Bob there is very little he does these days by way of actual ministry. An occasional private Mass and that is all. His schedule is very, very busy. He is doing quite well at his studies but is feeling the pressure.

RE: [REDACTED]

After your call in which you indicated to me that it may be necessary to report the situation of [REDACTED] a former student at the seminary, to the Department of Children and Family Services or to the State's Attorney's Office, I indicated to you that I had consulted an attorney about this over the phone and that a preliminary opinion indicated that I was not obliged to do so. I have, as you know, complied with the Archdiocesan policy which does require me to report any instance of sexual misconduct by a priest to the appropriate diocesan authorities.

Today, I also met with [REDACTED] and took the following measures:

1. I reviewed with [REDACTED] the situation he shared with me earlier.
2. I advised [REDACTED] that he had rights and that he had the right to report this to the Department of Children & Family Services and to the State's Attorney's Office.

I suggested to [REDACTED] that it may be important for him to do this within the next year or two if not presently.
3. I advised [REDACTED] that Dr. Ralph Bonaccorsi is the Victims Assistance person for the Archdiocese of Chicago, and should [REDACTED] need to discuss his situation or seek further assistance in dealing with it, he should feel free to call Dr. Bonaccorsi. I told [REDACTED] that I would inform Dr. Bonaccorsi of the fact that I had communicated this to [REDACTED] and that at some time, he may expect a call.
4. I informed [REDACTED] that because of his situation and of others I am awaiting a legal opinion that will clarify whether, as the head of a school, I must report this incident to the Department of Children & Family Services and the State's Attorney. I told [REDACTED] that should the legal opinion indicate that I must report this, that I would do so to comply with the law. I also told [REDACTED] since his situation did deal with the misconduct of a priest, I had to report this to the Archdiocese. He indicated to me that he understood this.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] did express concern to me that he would not want a lot of publicity about his name or this incident. This is certainly understandable for an eighteen year old.

RE: [REDACTED] (CONFIDENTIAL)

I am writing this memorandum to you in regard to the situation of [REDACTED] a recent student at Niles College. I shared the substance of this memo with you on Friday, January 22, 1993.

[REDACTED] is an 18 year old, freshman, and a recent student at [REDACTED] College. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He mentioned Fr. Bob Craig was his parish priest, and then asked me if I knew where he was now.

[REDACTED] academic record indicated that he was the Freshman of the Year [REDACTED]

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

AOC 001687

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He and his best friend, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] got to know Fr. Bob Craig at St. Ann's. [REDACTED] suggests that Fr. Craig encouraged him to go to [REDACTED].

Periodically, [REDACTED] would remain after the [REDACTED] Group to visit. He pretty much trusted me with bits of his history at each visit. It is important to note that: [REDACTED] St. Ann's was my first parish assignment, that Fr. Craig is my classmate. [REDACTED] is aware of all of this.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] went on to describe to me what had occurred to him. He told me he was about 13 years old at the time. He told me of a priest who let him and other friends stay over at the Rectory.

[REDACTED]

On another occasion, [REDACTED] described being asleep in the Rectory guest room. He awoke with the priest sleeping next to him. The priest had his hand on his leg. [REDACTED] said he moved over.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. He indicated that the priest told him and other boys on occasions when they stayed at the Rectory, that they should just wear briefs and that it was better for their genitals if they slept nude. The priest took [REDACTED] and other boys to swim at Mundelein Seminary's pool. The priest always insisted for health reasons that they swim nude.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He told me that the group of friends, including [REDACTED] were all talking about priests being horny one time. He went on to say that the group were saying that "Father Bob was horny", but all were quick to agree that he was still a nice guy. [REDACTED] reported [REDACTED] as saying something like "Yeah, but be careful if you stay overnight with him." [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] agreed that Father Bob was a nice guy, who might have a real problem.

It is my sense that [REDACTED] revelations are truthful, and perhaps only the tip of the iceberg. I have no way of knowing. I am repeating this situation to you for your disposition according to Archdiocesan Policy. I also care for this young man. He deserves attention and care, and so, at your suggestion, I am also forwarding this to Dr. Ralph Bonacorski, who oversees assistance for victims of clerical misconduct.

[REDACTED]

Please advise me if there are other steps I am required to take in this situation.

[REDACTED]

I must add that my fear for [REDACTED] is that he could end up in a dead-end, or worse, he could end up dead. [REDACTED] The Church has been a mixed experience for him, to say the least.

Thank you for your attention.

As for the salary, I did authorize on August 17 an increase. Last year you were receiving $1,229.75. This year you should be receiving $1,291.66 per month to reflect the increase. I know you did not receive that increase for July and so I also instructed them to include the additional $61.91 for July and August in your September check.

1. On Nov. 21, I brought up before the Advisory Board a scenario that Brian Costello, Andy, Ralph and myself had come up with on Nov. 19, 1991. Bob does not want to go to [REDACTED]. It is too far away from his entire support system. So, we would have to find him some care institution around the mid-West somewhere.
2. I brought up the possibility of Craig staying at the Retreat House in Mundelein once Bill Cloutier is removed. We would never again put a pedophile into the Retreat House. We would have other arrangements. My suggestion is that Bob be left out at the Retreat House if it is all right with Dan and Jim. Then the Sisters would also be brought into the loop with regard to supervision. We would inform the seminary authorities that he is there. We might even think of informing the principal over at Mt. Carmel High School, just to alert him to the fact that he should not be allowed over there.
3. Bob will continue to do the work he is presently doing, almost like procurator work at the Retreat House. They only have a part-time maintenance man as it is and he has been making good use of his time helping in that regard. Under the stricter supervision, Bob would have to check in and out with Dan or Jim or if neither of them were available, with the local superior. He would have to continue his work at the [REDACTED]. He would be reviewed regularly by the Vicar for Priests who would also be in touch with his supervisors and this arrangement would last for one year, at which time it would be reviewed. There would be no limit to the extent of time that Bob would spend at Mundelein. Pat O'Malley will talk to Dan Coughlin and Jim Doyle about this.

Rev. Robert Craig
[REDACTED]

Dear Bob,

At a meeting with Jim Serritella and Carrie Huff, subsequent to our last conversation on Oct. 8, I discussed the conflict of interests that has arisen in regard to the list of names and addresses I had asked you to provide. While recognizing that Mr. Tuite's advice is designed to protect you from the possibility of further incrimination, the Archdiocese also has responsibilities that it cannot ignore. Primary among these, of course, is the necessity to provide professional counseling to those victims who need it and wish to avail themselves of this service at no expense to themselves.

As mentioned above, Bob, I am painfully aware of the conflict of interests that this situation creates. I would appreciate your discussing this with Mr. Tuite and would ask that he be in touch with Mr. Serritella, so that we might resolve this impasse as soon as possible.

With prayers for you and your mother, Bob, I remain

Fraternally yours,

Rev. Raymond Goedert

RE: Robert Craig

1. Robert Craig, ordained in 1974, has been the Associate Pastor at St. Mark's. The mother of [REDACTED] visited with me on Sept. 24 and accused Bob of inappropriate conduct with her son, dating back to when he was a minor. I interviewed Bob the following day. I subsequently referred him to Jim Serritella, as well as to the [REDACTED]

2. I asked Bob to leave St. Mark's as of Oct. 4. He will be living at his mother's in [REDACTED] for the time being. [REDACTED] His address will be: [REDACTED] [REDACTED] His telephone number at his mother's will be [REDACTED] I would appreciate it if you would ask Connie to change his address immediately, so that all mail goes directly to him at his mother's.

3. I am attaching a copy of the "memorandum of agreement" which Bob signed on Oct. 2. As you can see, I have asked him to refrain from all public ministry. I did give him permission, however, to concelebrate St. Gerard's anniversary Mass this weekend, as he had already been invited and his mother is unaware of his personal difficulty.

4. While living in [REDACTED] Bob's immediate on-site supervisor will be Fr. Dan Sullivan, the pastor of St. Gerard's. He knows the Craig family well. I gave him the basic details of Bob's case and he agreed to keep in touch with Bob during this period. [REDACTED] we will be in a better position to determine Bob's future in ministry.

5. I would appreciate it if you would give me a call so that I can bring you up-to-date on what is happening in this case.

RE: Robert Craig

1. I spoke to Dan Sullivan today. I explained everything to him. [REDACTED]

2. I explained to Dan that I had given permission for Bob to concelebrate the Jubilee Mass, as I did not want to create any wonderment on the part of his mother. However, apart from that one event, I told Dan that I had asked Bob to refrain from all public ministry.

3. I explained the nature of Bob's problem, indicating that it is more than just one incident. I told him that there was a pattern in Bob's activity and that some of the things that he has done would constitute criminal behavior. For that reason, it is necessary to have someone serve as an on-site supervisor, checking on Bob periodically, etc. Dan agreed to do this. I told him to give me a call next week, after the Jubilee celebration, if he had any other questions to ask about this.

4. The news about Bob came as a shock to Dan, as he has a very high regard for both Bob and [REDACTED]. Dan said that he served as [REDACTED] deacon supervisor and got to know him quite well. Dan's telephone number is [REDACTED].

1. [REDACTED] came to see me this morning [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
2. Victim 1 is 20 years old. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
3. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] That is when he told [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] that he had been "raped" by Fr. Bob. [REDACTED] was in shock, since Fr. Bob had been a close friend of the family for many years.
4. Victim 1 graduated from Quigley South [REDACTED]. The alleged "rape" happened when [REDACTED]. He would have been about 15 years old at the time.
5. [REDACTED] said that she has known Fr. Bob for about 10 years. He was formerly assigned to St. Ann parish, [REDACTED]. Fr. Bob was very close to the family and would come over once or twice a week to pick up Victim 1 and [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
6. [REDACTED] said that Fr. Bob continued to come to their home after he left St.
Ann's 2 or 3 years ago. The last time he was at their home was about 10 months ago. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
7. Victim 1 told [REDACTED] that the sexual encounters happened over a period of 6 months or so. He would stay overnight at the rectory. When I asked [REDACTED] about this, [REDACTED] said that it was not uncommon for some of the Quigley boys to stay at the rectory overnight. Fr. Bob would help them with their homework and [REDACTED] thought it was wonderful that her son was so close to a priest.
[REDACTED]

8. Victim 1 told [REDACTED] that he thinks other boys were dealt with in the same way by Fr. Bob. [REDACTED] mentioned 2 of them, [REDACTED] both younger than Victim 1, and they still live at [REDACTED].

9. I asked [REDACTED] exactly what Victim 1 told [REDACTED] as far as the nature of the abuse is concerned. [REDACTED] said that he did not go into detail. He simply said that Fr. Bob "raped" him, and not just once, but over a period of 6 months. Victim 1 told [REDACTED] that he was sleeping the first time that it happened. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] didn't ask [REDACTED] any further questions about it and that is when [REDACTED] brought the matter up to [REDACTED] spiritual director who suggested that [REDACTED] come to see me.

10. I gave Victim 1 two appointments. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I asked [REDACTED] to do everything in [REDACTED] power to persuade [REDACTED] to come to see me.

RE: Robert Craig '74

1. Ed Maloney called from St. Mark's [REDACTED]. He called at 3:40 P.M.
2. Ed said that a woman came to see him at the rectory at the request of Fr. James Socias, an Opus Dei priest at mid-town. She had gone to see Fr. James and he suggested that she talk to the pastor. She actually lives at [REDACTED] in St. Ann's parish on the near south side. Her telephone number is [REDACTED].
3. The woman's name is Mrs. [REDACTED]. She was concerned about her son, [REDACTED] is about 20 years old. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] He then told her that Fr. Craig, who used to be the assistant at St. Ann's, had been abusing him for six months or so. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
4. Ed said that Bob has kids on the second floor all the time. He spends an awful lot of time with kids. Right now Bob's mother is sick. For some reason, the burden of caring for the mother is Bob's and Larry seems not to get involved at all.
5. After talking to Ed, I called Fr. Socias at Mid-town (421-8129). He is a Spanish priest from Barcelona and has been in the Philippines for 9 years, having come to this country just a year and a half or so ago. He spends a good deal of his time hearing confessions at Mid-town, Notre Dame Church and Five Holy Martyrs. This woman sees him almost every week for the last year or so. She doesn't want to cause any trouble, but she did tell him about her son, age 20 or 21 who mentioned to her about Fr. Craig.
6. When I asked Fr. Socias just exactly what she said Craig did to her son, he said he didn't really go into it deeply with her. He did not want to give it too much importance. He simply told her to tell the pastor about it and then to make sure that her children don't hang around the rectory. Evidently a lot of them continued to see Fr. Craig even after he was transferred to St. Mark.
7. In view of the fact that the woman doesn't speak English that well, I asked Fr. James if he would interview her again, together with the son, and try to get the complete story. After he hears from them, I asked him to give me a call. If possible, I would like to set up an appointment for the son before I confront Bob Craig on it.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, of Victim CT's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on October 12, 2007, formalizing his allegation of abuse against Rev. Robert Craig. The alleged abuse consisted of one incident of fondling, which occurred in 1979 or 1980 when Victim CT was approximately 11 or 12 years old. The alleged abuse occurred at the All Saints – St. Anthony rectory.

Dear [REDACTED]

Please be advised that the independent Review Board met on May 31, 2008 and conducted a Review for Cause of your allegation of sexual misconduct against the former Rev. Robert Craig pursuant to Article §1104.10 of the Review Process for Continuation of Ministry. Mr. Craig is a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

At a Review for Cause the Review Board determines, based on the information that has been gathered and made available to it, whether there is reasonable cause to suspect that the accused priest engaged in the sexual misconduct of a minor.

In the Review for Cause of this matter on May 31st, the Board determined that there is reason to suspect that you were sexually abused by the former Fr. Craig. Cardinal George has accepted the Board's determination.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at any time. I may be reached at [312] 867-8793. Also, please know that the staff of the Office of Assistance Ministry continues to be available to you and may be reached at [312] 751-8267.

MEMORANDUM

To: File – PFR - 06

From: Leah McCluskey, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review

Re: Craig, Rev. Robert [Laicized]

Date: December 20, 2007

On October 12, 2007, Mr. Matt Hunnicutt and I met with  and paralegal Jessica Arbour so that he could formalize his allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor against the former Rev. Robert Craig.

During the October 12th meeting,  noted that Fr. Craig would be at McGuane Park while he and his friends were playing there.  also stated that Fr. Craig coached his fifth and sixth grade basketball teams and that some of the practices took place at McGuane Park.

Attached is information that I found on the Internet about McGuane Park as well as its location in proximity to All Saints – St. Anthony Parish. According to the current Archdiocesan Directory, the address for All Saints – St. Anthony is 518 W. 28th Place and the address for McGuane Park as per the Chicago Park District Website is 2901 S. Poplar Ave.

Chicago Park DistrictMcGuane Park*History

First opened to the public in 1905, McGuane Park was originally known as Mark White Square. The site was one of ten revolutionary parks created to provide relief to Chicago's tenement districts. The other nine were Armour, Russell, Davis, and Cornell Squares, and Ogden, Sherman, Palmer, Bessemer, and Hamilton Parks. Offering a variety of valuable recreational, educational, and social services to their surrounding communities, these ten properties soon influenced the development of other parks throughout the nation.

McGuane Park's original name honored Mark White (1837- 1891), revered superintendent of the South Park Commission for twenty years. In 1960, the Chicago Park District renamed the park as a tribute to John F. McGuane (1892-1960), who lived across the street from the park all of his life. A veteran of World War I, McGuane was active in many civic organizations and served as a member of the Chicago Park District Board of Commissioners for four years. In 1972, the park's original fieldhouse was demolished and replaced with a new building and swimming pool.

Dear Ms. McCluskey:

Hillard Heintze has completed the investigation requested in the March 20, 2008 case referral in the matter of Rev. Robert Craig. Attached you will find our investigative report which has been prepared as a confidential work document by Hillard Heintze for the sole use of the Archdiocese of Chicago, Professional Review Board. With this transmittal, one (1) original hardbound copy and one (1) electronic version are being submitted to you as Director, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review.

Pursuant to the direction of the Archdiocesan Review Board, Hillard Heintze conducted an investigation in an attempt to gain insight and information into Robert Craig's tenure at All Saints-St. Anthony. Hillard Heintze interviewed thirteen individuals including one current priest and two former priests, along with five lay teachers. Additionally, two deacons were also interviewed, as well as three long-time parishioners who were active in the parish.

Twelve of the thirteen persons interviewed did not offer any information to substantiate the allegations against Craig. The single exception was [REDACTED], a deacon and the current [REDACTED] of All Saints-St. Anthony who stated he always had the suspicion that Craig may be involved in inappropriate behavior with juveniles. In addition to this exception, the investigation has noted several other key points, which have been documented as Key Findings.

Should you need any additional information on our investigation, please do not hesitate to contact me at [REDACTED]

Sincerely,
HILLARD HEINTZE, LLC

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

On March 20, 2008, Hillard Heintze received a request from the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review for investigative assistance in the matter of Rev. Robert Craig, a retired priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago. Specifically, we were requested to conduct interviews of persons who may have information relevant to the allegations presented by [REDACTED]. Investigator Everett interviewed thirteen different individuals regarding this investigation. These interviews included one current priest, two former priests, along with five lay teachers, one being [REDACTED] who is now a Sister with the Benedictine Order of Adoration. Two deacons at All Saints-St. Anthony Parish were also interviewed, as well as three long-time parishioners who were very active in the parish during the time frame in question.

Twelve of the 13 individuals interviewed stated they had no reason to believe that Craig was ever acted improperly around or toward children. The lone exception was [REDACTED], who stated he always had a "funny feeling" about Craig. [REDACTED] further stated that he suspected that Craig liked young boys. Several of the people stated that Craig was a good priest and was well thought of by parishioners.

Several of the individuals interviewed recalled Craig playing the guitar. Three of the persons interviewed recalled that Craig was in charge of the altar boys. Two people actually saw Craig dress like a clown and another heard that he did so. Four of the persons interviewed said Craig drove a Volkswagen van and another described it as a "beat up, funny looking" van.

The investigation has noted several key points, which have been documented as Key Findings.

CASE REFERRAL TO HILLARD HEINTZE

On March 20, 2008, The Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review referred the Rev. Robert Craig matter to Hillard Heintze for further investigation.

On March 21, 2008, Harvey Radney, Hillard Heintze Senior Vice President for Investigative Services, initiated a comprehensive case review of the Craig investigative file provided by the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review.

On March 25, 2008, Radney assigned Investigator Dan Everett the primary responsibility of conducting the follow-up investigation.

DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION

Case Review

From March 21, 2008 to March 24, 2008, Arnette Heintze, Harvey Radney and Investigative Associate Jim Molloy initiated a comprehensive review of the investigative case and associated files in the matter of Rev. Robert Craig, which were provided by the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review.

Interviews

From April 1 to April 29, 2008, Hillard Heintze Investigator Dan Everett conducted the following 13 interviews. While the interviews are summarized below, the complete memorandums of interviews are contained as attachments to this file.

April 1, 2008 – Interview of Fr. Anthony Adducci

Fr. Adducci stated that Robert Craig arrived at All Saints-St. Anthony after his departure from the parish. Fr. Adducci stated he did not know Craig very well.

April 3, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED] (former priest)

[REDACTED] stated he left All Saints-St. Anthony in 1977. [REDACTED] stated that Robert Craig had taken his place in the parish. Other than saying Spanish masses with Craig, [REDACTED] stated he had little contact with him. [REDACTED] knew several parishioners, but stated he never heard negative comments of Craig.

April 8, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated she taught at All Saints-St. Anthony from [REDACTED] until approximately [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] she was only familiar with one priest while she taught school at All Saints-St. Anthony and that priest was Fr. Garbin who was the pastor at the time. [REDACTED] taught the [REDACTED] grade and later taught a class of both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] grade students. [REDACTED] could not recall any priest by the name of Craig.

April 8, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated she had never known Craig to act inappropriately around any children

April 9, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated she was a long-time parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony Parish. [REDACTED] was very involved with the [REDACTED] and worked closely with Craig. She and her family became good friends with Craig and saw him on a regular basis. He visited their home several times. [REDACTED] stated that her two children attended All Saints-St. Anthony and never had anything bad to say about Craig. [REDACTED] felt Craig was a great priest. She never heard any stories or talk of Craig mistreating children in any manner.

April 9, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated he is a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony and also a Deacon at the church. [REDACTED] was very good friends with Craig and they saw each other several days a week. [REDACTED] knew nothing of Craig's legal problems until after he had left the parish. At one point, [REDACTED] visited Craig at St. Mary's in Mundelein, IL, and was informed by Craig that he was being "holed up there" and was there to protect himself – allegedly referring to accusations made against him of acting inappropriately around children. [REDACTED] stated at no time during Craig's time at the parish did he ever hear any stories indicating that Craig had mistreated any children.

April 10, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated she was a teacher at All Saints-St. Anthony in the late [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stated she was a very young teacher when she was at All Saints-St. Anthony. She did not get very involved in any activities in the parish or at the school. [REDACTED] knew Craig, but had no dealings with him. [REDACTED] never heard of Craig acting inappropriately around minor children.

April 11, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated she taught [REDACTED] grade at All Saints-St. Anthony from September [REDACTED] to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] worked with the [REDACTED] and on the Friday masses alongside Craig. [REDACTED] stated Craig was extremely involved with the school, always visiting the classes and interacting with the children. [REDACTED] wanted it to be known that this was strictly in a positive manner. Craig took the initiative to direct several school plays. According to [REDACTED], the children at All Saints-St. Anthony appeared to like him very much. [REDACTED] recalled that Craig drove a blue Volkswagen bus. [REDACTED] never heard of Craig mistreating any children.

April 17, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated she had been a life time parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] was very involved with the parish; however, she always worked very closely with [REDACTED] when he was a priest in the parish. [REDACTED] knew Craig, but never knew him very well. [REDACTED] never heard of any wrongdoing by Craig.

April 18, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated he has been a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] stated he had been very involved in the parish. [REDACTED] stated he had worked closer with Fr. Garbin than Craig. [REDACTED] stated he recalled Craig being a very good priest and a great guy. [REDACTED] stated he never heard of any stories indicating that Craig had mistreated children in the parish.

April 23, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated he was a long-time parishioner and Deacon at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] is currently the [REDACTED] at the parish. [REDACTED] spent a great deal of time at the parish rectory and around several of the priests who served at the parish. [REDACTED] stated he had always felt that Craig might be acting inappropriately around children, especially teenage children. [REDACTED] indicated that on more than one occasion, he had seen Craig driving his Volkswagen van with several teen boys in the van. [REDACTED] recalled Craig never getting along with Fr. Garbin, the pastor at the parish. [REDACTED] was also aware that Craig had been under “house arrest” at St. Mary’s in Mundelein, IL. [REDACTED] provided no specific evidence linking Craig to the mistreatment children, but had a “funny feeling” that Craig had an attraction for young boys.

April 23, 2008 – Interview of [REDACTED] (former priest)

[REDACTED] was interviewed via email and stated he had been at All Saints-St. Anthony from 1975-1980. [REDACTED] was studying at [REDACTED] and spent little time at the parish. [REDACTED] stated he never heard anything about Craig acting in an inappropriate manner around minor children. [REDACTED] had no knowledge of Craig ever mistreating children in any manner.

April 29, 2008 – Interview of Sister [REDACTED]

Sister [REDACTED] (formerly [REDACTED]) stated she had taught at All Saints-St. Anthony from [REDACTED] until [REDACTED]. Sister [REDACTED] knew Craig rather well and saw him on a regular basis since she often filled in as the [REDACTED] at the rectory. Sister [REDACTED] stated that Craig was well liked at the parish and was very good with the younger generation because Craig was young himself at the time. Sister [REDACTED] never heard any stories or accusations that Craig mistreated children in any manner.

BACKGROUND CHECK

No background check was conducted on any individuals for this investigation.

KEY FINDINGS

FINDING #1: ██████ stated that Father Craig played the guitar. This was confirmed by several of the persons interviewed in this matter.

FINDING #2: ██████ stated that Craig coached basketball and was his coach in the fifth and sixth grades. Only ██████ said she remembered Craig attempting to get children involved in sports. No other person interviewed mentioned Craig being involved with sports at the school.

FINDING#3: ██████ stated Craig was in charge of the altar boys. This was confirmed by ██████, ██████ and Sister ██████ (formerly ██████).

FINDING #4: ██████ stated Craig either rode a bike or drove a Volkswagen mini-bus. ██████ and Sister ██████ both said they remembered Craig had a bicycle. Several other persons also confirmed that Craig had a Volkswagen or other model van.

FINDING #5: ██████ stated Craig dressed up as a clown with make-up. This was confirmed by ██████ and ██████ who saw Craig dress this way, and by ██████ who said he heard Craig dressed like a clown at times.

FINDING #6: ██████ said he saw Craig driving around in his beat up, funny looking van with several young boys on more than one occasion. ██████ said he had always felt Craig might be acting inappropriately around children, especially teenagers. ██████ was the only person interviewed who expressed any concern with Craig's behavior toward children

#1: Memorandum of Interview: Father Anthony Adducci

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted Fr. Anthony Adducci via telephone on March 26, 2008 to arrange an interview regarding this confidential investigation. Fr. Adducci and the Investigator Everett meet on April 1, 2008 at Resurrection Health Care / St. Joseph's Hospital, which is located at 2900 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, IL 60657.

Fr. Adducci is currently assigned as the Chaplain at Resurrection Health Care / St. Joseph's Hospital. Fr. Adducci stated he had served as a Deacon at All Saints-St. Anthony parish in 1975 and 1976. Fr. Adducci was ordained in May of 1976 at which time he was assigned to St. Ferdinand's parish on the northwest side of Chicago. Fr. Adducci stated Craig did not arrive at All Saints-St. Anthony until after he had already left. Fr. Adducci knew of Craig, but never worked at any of the same parishes or on any other assignments with him. The other priests present at All Saints-St. Anthony during Fr. Adducci's time there was Fr. Garbin who was the pastor, Fr. [REDACTED] and Fr. [REDACTED]. Fr. Garbin is now deceased, and it is believed Fr. [REDACTED] is currently in Australia. Fr. Adducci stated that he had very little information on Craig and did not really know him.

Fr. Adducci stated that he still keeps in touch with some of the parishioners from All Saints-St. Anthony parish, but had not heard any stories of any inappropriate behavior by Craig or any other priest assigned to that parish. Fr. Adducci recalled the [REDACTED] at the rectory was named [REDACTED]. It is believed that she is now deceased. The [REDACTED] was a woman named [REDACTED]. Fr. Adducci had no information on her [REDACTED]. Fr. Adducci could not recall the names of any teachers or the principal that taught at the school.

Fr. Adducci did recall a [REDACTED] teacher by the name of [REDACTED] who was very involved with the parish and all the functions at both the school and the church. Fr. Adducci could not recall her last name, but stated he would attempt to obtain her last name and contact the investigator. When questioned, Fr. Adducci stated that the priests at All Saints-St. Anthony owned their own vehicles. Fr. Adducci stated if Craig drove a Volkswagen bus, he would have brought it with him when he was assigned to the parish. Fr. Adducci stated that he had never in the past, and presently has not heard any stories or has any knowledge of any inappropriate behavior toward minor children that took place at the parish.

#2: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted [REDACTED] (former priest) via telephone on March 26, 2008 to arrange an interview regarding this confidential investigation. [REDACTED] and the Investigator agreed to meet on April 3, 2008 at [REDACTED]'s place of employment located at [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] stated he resides at [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was ordained a priest in [REDACTED]. He was assigned to [REDACTED] All Saints-St. Anthony from 1972 through 1977 [REDACTED] left the ministry in [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] stated he first met Robert Craig when he was leaving All Saints-St. Anthony's in 1977. Robert Craig took [REDACTED]'s position in the parish. [REDACTED] stated that he never got to know Robert Craig very well. He stated they talked on the phone several times, and had alternated presiding over Spanish masses at St. David's parish in Bridgeport. [REDACTED] had talked with Robert Craig, but did not know him well enough to describe his personality or personal conduct. [REDACTED] never had any social contact with Robert Craig, but they often ran into one another. [REDACTED] did not recall any of Craig's other assignments as a priest. [REDACTED] stated as he stayed in touch with parishioners at All Saints-St. Anthony's he remembered hearing nothing but good things about the then Fr. Robert Craig. [REDACTED] did not recall any of Craig's hobbies or past-time activities, but did indicate he remembered hearing that Craig liked to dress in clown costumes. [REDACTED] did not know what Craig enjoyed doing in his spare time, nor did he recall what type of vehicle Robert Craig had driven when he was at All Saints-St. Anthony.

[REDACTED] seemed to remember Robert Craig being in charge of the Altar Boys during his tenure at the parish. [REDACTED] again reminded the investigator that he was not assigned to All Saints-St. Anthony, and the above information was strictly hearsay. [REDACTED] stated during his stay at All Saints-St. Anthony it was just him, Monsignor Garbin, and a Deacon named [REDACTED] who is now living in Australia. Fr. Garbin is deceased. [REDACTED] stated he never heard any allegations of Robert Craig abusing minors until after Craig had left the ministry.

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was the church [REDACTED] and was very involved in the Catechism classes at All Saints-St. Anthony in the 1970s. [REDACTED] stated he knew of one other layperson that was very involved at the parish, but stated he would have to clear it with this person before he could reveal her name to the investigator. Investigator Everett will attempt to contact [REDACTED] and schedule an interview with her.

#3: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett learned from his interview with [REDACTED] on April 8, 2008, that [REDACTED] taught at All Saints-St. Anthony in the late 1970s. Investigator Everett contacted [REDACTED] via telephone on April 8, 2008 and informed her that he was conducting a confidential investigation.

[REDACTED] stated she had taught at All Saints-St. Anthony from [REDACTED] until approximately [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated she was only familiar with one priest while she taught school at All Saints-St. Anthony. That priest was Fr. Garbin who was the pastor at the time. Fr. Garbin is now deceased. [REDACTED] taught the [REDACTED] grade, and later taught a class of both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] grade students. [REDACTED] could not recall any priest by the name of Robert Craig. [REDACTED] does not recall any priest at the parish ever dressing up as a clown, nor does she remember any priest driving a Volkswagen van. [REDACTED] stated she was not able to supply him with any additional information on this investigation.

#4: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted [REDACTED], a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony parish, telephonically on April 4, 2008. Investigator Everett and [REDACTED] met at her place of employment at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated she has been a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] had been very involved in the parish ministry, at which time Robert Craig was the head of the parish ministry and headed the liturgy team. [REDACTED] was the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] worked very closely with Craig and considered herself a very good friend of his. [REDACTED] saw Craig at least three to four times a week. [REDACTED] first met Craig when he arrived at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] maintained contact with Craig until he left his assignment in the Pilsen neighborhood, which was directly after his assignment at All Saints-St. Anthony.

[REDACTED] stated Craig had been very involved in children's groups and was always trying to get children involved in sports and other activities. Craig always performed the Children's Liturgy at the Sunday service. [REDACTED] did recall Craig playing the guitar and also remembered Craig dressing in a clown costume on a few occasions, although she could not recall what the exact occasions were.

[REDACTED] recalled Craig driving a Volkswagen Van, and always took the children on little trips in the van. [REDACTED] recalled one trip where several parents and teachers along with Craig took a group of children on a retreat. She indicated that Craig was never left alone with any children. [REDACTED] recalled Craig smoking cigarettes and drinking beer on occasion. As far as [REDACTED] can recall, Craig was in charge of the altar boys his entire time at All Saints-St. Anthony.

[REDACTED] does not recall Craig spending an extraordinary amount of time with minor children in the parish, but did indicate that he had been affectionate with children, and would often publicly hug them, showing a sign of affection. [REDACTED] wanted it to be known that Craig was very much loved in the parish at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] had no knowledge of any inappropriate behavior toward minor children by Craig during his tenure at the parish. [REDACTED] requested that it be noted that the children in the parish absolutely loved Craig, due to the fact he always spent time with them, and took them places which many of their parents could not do.

When asked if any other people in the parish [REDACTED] might know had any contact with Robert Craig, [REDACTED] had mentioned [REDACTED] who was a Deacon at All Saints-St. Anthony parish and [REDACTED] who was a parishioner during the time that Robert Craig was present. [REDACTED] stated she had no additional information to add.

#5: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

During the April 8, 2008 interview of [REDACTED], Investigator Everett learned that [REDACTED] was very active in the parish at All Saints-St. Anthony in the late 1970s. Investigator Everett contacted [REDACTED] via telephone on April 9, 2008 and informed her he was conducting this confidential investigation. [REDACTED] requested the investigator conduct this interview via telephone rather than in person.

[REDACTED] stated she has been a parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony for many years. [REDACTED] and her family were very good friends with Robert Craig during Craig's assignment at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] worked closely with Craig while she performed these parish duties. [REDACTED] stated she had seen Robert Craig on a regular basis each and every week. [REDACTED] has a son and a daughter that had attended All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] recalled Craig dressing as a clown for some of the children's activities, but only remembered this as a very positive thing since he was working with the children. [REDACTED] also recalled Craig driving a Volkswagen bus and believed it to be blue in color. [REDACTED] stated she had never heard of any wrongdoing on the part of Craig while he was assigned to the parish. When asked, [REDACTED] indicated that her children never had a bad thing to say about Craig.

[REDACTED] recalled Craig as an excellent priest who was a very caring person. Craig always gave good homilies and liked to get people involved in church activities. [REDACTED] stated she had heard of Craig having legal problems long after he had left the parish. [REDACTED] then stated she had nothing more to offer regarding Craig.

#6: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

During the April 8, 2008 interview with [REDACTED], Investigator Everett learned that [REDACTED] had been very active in the parish at All Saints-St. Anthony in the late 1970s. Investigator Everett contacted [REDACTED] via telephone on April 8, 2008 and informed him he was conducting this confidential investigation.

[REDACTED] stated he has been a parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony since [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and Craig were very good friends during Craig's assignment at All Saints-St. Anthony. Craig had been to [REDACTED]'s home on several occasions. [REDACTED] recalled Craig being involved with several activities in the parish that involved children. [REDACTED] has only seen Craig twice since he left the parish.

[REDACTED] had heard stories of Robert Craig mistreating children after he left the parish, but never heard of any allegations at All Saints-St. Anthony. While Robert Craig was assigned to All Saints-St. Anthony, [REDACTED] never heard of any inappropriate behavior by him. [REDACTED] stated if anything like that had occurred in the parish by any priest, he would have heard about it, since he was a Deacon and spent a great deal of time at the church. [REDACTED] recalled Craig riding a bicycle around the parish, but did not recall him wearing a clown costume for any occasion. [REDACTED] did recall Craig having driven an old Chevrolet vehicle.

[REDACTED] recalled visiting Craig long after he had left All Saints-St. Anthony church. The visit occurred at a location which he thought was St. Mary's, possibly St. Mary of the Lake, and Craig told him he was being "holed up there", and was there to protect himself. Craig informed [REDACTED] that the Archdiocese had told him they were not going to pay for his defense, but did not elaborate. [REDACTED] took this to mean that Craig was in some type of legal trouble. [REDACTED] stated that Craig never did explain his reason for being as he put it "holed up." [REDACTED] stated he has not heard from or heard of Craig in several years.

#7: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett learned from Sr. Margaret Farley, CND of the Office of Catholic Schools that [REDACTED] was a teacher at All Saints-St. Anthony in the late [REDACTED]. On April 10, 2008, Investigator Everett spoke to [REDACTED] via telephone. Investigator Everett advised [REDACTED] that he was conducting this confidential investigation. [REDACTED] sounded very nervous, and hesitant to speak with the Investigator Everett, and requested that we conduct the interview via telephone rather than in person.

[REDACTED] stated she was a very young teacher at All Saints-St. Anthony in the late [REDACTED] and early [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] taught the [REDACTED] grade. [REDACTED] recalled Craig, but she had very little contact with him. [REDACTED] stated that as a very young teacher, her routine was usually to leave the school immediately after the school day ended. [REDACTED] was not involved in any school or church activities. [REDACTED] stated that Craig played a guitar and often played the guitar at the children's mass once a week. She did not recall any other functions or duties that Craig had at the parish. [REDACTED] did not recall Robert Craig ever dressing in a clown costume, nor did she recall what type of vehicle he drove. [REDACTED] stated that she did not recall Craig ever spending an extraordinary amount of time with children. She went on to say that the children she taught were very young ([REDACTED] years of age), and most of them were very protected by their parents. [REDACTED] never heard of any inappropriate behavior by Craig or any other priest at the parish.

[REDACTED] stated that the only other priest she could recall being assigned to All Saints-St. Anthony during this time frame was Fr. Garbin. [REDACTED] also recalled a teacher by the name of [REDACTED] who had taught at All Saints-St. Anthony whom she believed had more contact with Robert Craig.

#8: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett learned from Sr. Margaret Farley, CND of the Office of Catholic Schools, that [REDACTED] was a teacher at All Saints-St. Anthony school in the late [REDACTED] and early [REDACTED]. Investigator Everett contacted [REDACTED] on April 9, 2008 and informed her he was conducting this confidential investigation. [REDACTED] stated she would meet him on April 11, 2008 at her place of employment, [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] she began teaching at All Saints-St. Anthony in September [REDACTED], and continued teaching there until [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] taught the [REDACTED] grade and the students were [REDACTED] years old. [REDACTED] first met Craig when she began teaching at the school. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] worked with the [REDACTED] and on the Friday masses alongside Craig. [REDACTED] wanted it to be known that this was strictly in a positive manner. Craig took the initiative to direct several school plays, in which many of the children participated. According to [REDACTED], many of the children at All Saints-St. Anthony not only looked up to Craig, but appeared to like him very much. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] she does recall him driving a Volkswagen bus, which was blue in color. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] She recalled Craig enjoying planting flowers in the springtime. Craig presided over the family mass one Sunday every month and was very close to several families in the parish.

[REDACTED] recalled hearing of a person in the parish sewing a clown suit that one of the priests had worn, but she never saw Craig wearing a clown suit. [REDACTED] stated she remembered Craig reaching out to children in the parish whose parents worked, and who were not doing well in school. On many occasions, Craig had them come to the rectory after school so he could tutor them with their studies. [REDACTED] stated she never heard of inappropriate behavior with students, especially her students who were [REDACTED] years old. [REDACTED] did not recall any other priest in the parish other than Fr. Garbin who was the Pastor at the time. [REDACTED] did recall a woman teacher by the name of [REDACTED] who was single [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] also recalled [REDACTED] as the Principal of the school during her entire time at the school.

[REDACTED] expressed her disappointment in hearing of these allegations and stated she never would have thought he would mistreat children.

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig/ [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted [REDACTED], a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony Parish via telephone on April 14, 2008 and arranged a personal interview. On April 17, 2008, Investigator Everett interviewed [REDACTED] at her place of employment, [REDACTED] is the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated she has been a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] had been on the both the parish board and the school board at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] stated she was more familiar with Fr. [REDACTED] and Fr. Garbin since Fr. [REDACTED] married her and her husband in [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] recalled Craig only vaguely. [REDACTED] stated she has three children, all of whom attended All Saints-St. Anthony School. None of the children had any exposure to Craig since they [REDACTED] attended school after Craig left.

[REDACTED] stated she never heard any stories of Craig acting inappropriately around minor children. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] did not recall Craig ever dressing in a clown costume for any occasion, nor did she recall any mention of any priest owning a clown costume. [REDACTED] could not recall the type of vehicle owned by Robert Craig. When asked about Robert Craig's role with teens in the parish, [REDACTED] stated she recalled him being involved in the guitar mass, but nothing else. [REDACTED] stated that her children were very young during this time, and she did not pay much attention to activities in the parish for young people.

[REDACTED] stated she might have names of other parishioners who had much closer contact with Craig, and would contact the investigator if she found this information.

#10: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig/ [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett contacted [REDACTED], a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony Parish, via telephone on April 14, 2008 and arranged for an in person interview to take place on April 18, 2008 at [REDACTED] at 11:00 am. [REDACTED] is the owner/president of [REDACTED]. Investigator Everett informed [REDACTED] he was conducting this confidential investigation.

[REDACTED] stated he has been a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] first met Craig, when Craig arrived at All Saints-St. Anthony Parish. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated he had worked closer with Fr. Garbin than Craig. [REDACTED] recalled Craig being a very good priest and a great guy. [REDACTED] also recalled Craig complaining to him about Fr. Garbin, insinuating that he thought they had some difference of opinions.

[REDACTED] stated he never heard any rumors of inappropriate behavior by Craig during his stay at All Saints-St. Anthony. He was aware that Craig had left the priesthood sometime in the late 1990s and had read in the newspaper that he might have been implicated in some type of sexual accusations. [REDACTED] has [REDACTED] children, all of whom attended All Saints-St. Anthony School, but they were very young and pre-school age when Craig was assigned to All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] does not recall Craig ever dressing in a clown costume for any occasion. [REDACTED] does not recall what type of vehicle Craig drove.

When asked to name other priests that were assigned to All Saints-St. Anthony, [REDACTED] stated that Fr. Garbin was the Pastor and he thought Craig replaced [REDACTED] stated that Fr. [REDACTED] was assigned to the parish. Fr. [REDACTED] was a priest from Australia who came to All Saints-St. Anthony and shortly thereafter [REDACTED] left the priesthood. Sometime later, Fr. [REDACTED] rejoined the priesthood and returned to Australia.

[REDACTED] stated there was a visiting priest by the name of Fr. Mulsoff whom he had reason to believe acted in a very inappropriate manner with minors in the parish. [REDACTED] could not recall exact details. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was still employed at the All Saints-St. Anthony rectory, and may be a source for additional information. [REDACTED] stated he periodically sees Craig, since he returns to attend wakes of former parishioners. [REDACTED] last saw Craig approximately three years ago.

#11: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett learned from [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] was a lifelong parishioner at All Saints-St. Anthony Parish and was potentially a source for additional insight into this investigation. Investigator Everett arranged for an interview on April 23, 2008 at All Saints-St. Anthony, 518 West 28th Place, Chicago, IL. [REDACTED] is the [REDACTED] for All Saints-St. Anthony Parish. This is a position he has held since [REDACTED] as a volunteer.

[REDACTED] stated he had been ordained a Deacon in [REDACTED] and has been very involved in the parish since then. In [REDACTED], Cardinal Bernardin appointed [REDACTED] an Associate Administrator, at which time [REDACTED] worked in the rectory one night every week after his full time job during the day. [REDACTED] stated he worked closely with Fr. Garbin and never had a lot to do with Craig although he saw him periodically. [REDACTED] could not recall exactly when Craig arrived at the parish. [REDACTED] recalled Craig as a rebel priest who never got along with Fr. Garbin. Craig once told [REDACTED] that in the seminary he had hair down below his shoulders and was warned he would not be ordained if he did not cut it. According to [REDACTED], Craig had long hair while he was assigned to All Saints-St. Anthony. This irritated Fr. Garbin very much, which caused Craig and Fr. Garbin to argue quite a bit. According to [REDACTED], Craig always did things his own way and always acted like a maverick.

[REDACTED] recalled Craig driving a beat up, funny looking van. [REDACTED] stated that every time he saw Craig in this van, he had at least four or five young boys in the van with him. [REDACTED] stated this occurred many times. [REDACTED] always had a funny feeling about Craig and suspected him of liking young boys. [REDACTED] never mentioned this to anyone. [REDACTED] recalled several times when he was working in the rectory and Craig would come in to pick something up, [REDACTED] would look out the window and see several young boys in the van. [REDACTED] stated that after Craig left the parish he had read about Craig being named as a possible child abuser and was not surprised at all.

[REDACTED] recalled he and other deacons had gone to the seminary in Mundelein, IL for a retreat, where he saw Craig who was living at the seminary. [REDACTED] felt that Craig was under house arrest and was being kept at the seminary because he had committed some inappropriate acts with minors. [REDACTED] could not recall when this occurred. [REDACTED] went on to say that in the Archdiocese directory, any priest that had an address of P.O. Box 455, Mundelein, IL under his name was being held at Mundelein seminary because he had been accused of molestation and was under house arrest. Craig allegedly had this address under his name at one time in the Archdiocese directory. Again [REDACTED] could not recall the date.

When questioned about Craig's reputation at All Saints-St. Anthony, [REDACTED] stated many people had the same impression of Craig that he had. [REDACTED] stated Craig spent a lot of time with young boys in the parish. He did not recall Craig playing the guitar or ever dressing in a clown costume, but did recall him smoking cigarettes. [REDACTED] stated he had never witnessed Craig bringing any young boys into the rectory.

[REDACTED] was questioned about other people in the parish that might be able to assist in this investigation. [REDACTED] provided names of people that had already been interviewed. [REDACTED] also mentioned a woman by the name of [REDACTED] who was very close to Fr. Garbin, and spent a lot of time at the rectory. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] is now a Sister, but he did not know where. [REDACTED] stated she was also affiliated with the [REDACTED] located at [REDACTED].

#12: Memorandum of Interview: [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Rev. [REDACTED] was assigned to All Saints-St. Anthony during the time of these allegations. It was learned that [REDACTED] lives in Australia and was able to obtain a current email address for [REDACTED]. Investigator Everett emailed [REDACTED] and informed him he was conducting this confidential investigation.

[REDACTED] replied to the investigator's email, and stated he would agree to be interviewed, but stipulated that it be done only by email. Investigator Everett emailed [REDACTED] a list of questions. [REDACTED]'s responses are summarized as follows:

[REDACTED] resides at [REDACTED]. His date of birth is [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is retired and has been given dispensation as a priest. [REDACTED] was assigned to All Saints-St. Anthony from 1975-1980. At that time, he was studying at [REDACTED] but lived at All Saints-St. Anthony. [REDACTED] often celebrated mass. [REDACTED] stated he did not recall when Craig arrived but thought it was about a year after him. [REDACTED] stated that Craig acted as an assistant pastor, celebrated mass and performed other priestly duties. [REDACTED] had a vague memory of Craig being involved with the youth ministry, but did not know what that constituted. [REDACTED] seemed to remember Craig playing guitar and being a smoker. [REDACTED] did not have any recollection of Craig riding a bicycle or ever dressing in a clown costume. [REDACTED] could not recall any other past time activities of Craig. [REDACTED] did not recall the type of vehicle Craig owned. [REDACTED] stated he did not know what Craig's involvement was with the altar boys or whether he spent an extraordinary amount of time with children.

[REDACTED] was asked to describe the atmosphere between the priests and parishioners. [REDACTED] stated the parish pastor was Fr. Angelo Garbin, while the other clergy were [REDACTED] and Bob Craig. Fr. Garbin typified the parish priest of his time. He had little time for collaborative discussion about how things should best be run and the weekly morning meetings were simply a list of things allocated to one or another of the available clergy. He was not one who could easily embrace collaborative management. Craig found him very difficult to work with. As for the relationship between priest and parishioners, [REDACTED] didn't think he had much awareness of that. [REDACTED] was asked to name other priests, nuns or lay people that were involved with the parish at that time. [REDACTED] stated he could not recall any names, but did remember a deacon named [REDACTED], but could not recall his last name, even though he knew him rather well. [REDACTED] indicated he never witnessed any inappropriate behavior toward minor children by Craig or any other priest. [REDACTED] never heard any complaints about Craig or other priests regarding minors. [REDACTED] never witnessed or heard of any abuse of minors at All Saints-St. Anthony. The investigator asked [REDACTED] if Craig had been especially close to any families in the parish. [REDACTED] replied that if he was, he was not aware of it. [REDACTED] could not name any people that might be available to help with this investigation.

#13: Memorandum of Interview: Sister [REDACTED]

Re: Case File PFR 06 – Craig [REDACTED]

From: Investigator Dan Everett

Investigator Everett learned that [REDACTED] was a long time parishioner and teacher at All Saints-St. Anthony School. Investigator Everett contacted Rev. [REDACTED] at the [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] who stated that [REDACTED] is now a Benedictine Sister of Adoration going by the title of Sister [REDACTED]. On April 29, 2008, Investigator Everett contacted Sister [REDACTED] via telephone.

Sister [REDACTED] stated she taught [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] grades at All Saints-St. Anthony from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED] and was also a parishioner. It was during this time Sister [REDACTED] first met Robert Craig. Sister [REDACTED] did not recall the exact date she left the school and parish.

Sister [REDACTED] saw Craig at least five days a week, every week. Sister [REDACTED] stated she spent a great deal of time filling in as the [REDACTED] at the rectory. Therefore she saw all the priests on a daily basis. Sister [REDACTED] recalled Craig performing the children's mass and also remembered him as the CCD coordinator. According to Sister [REDACTED], Craig ran the teen club and was in charge of training the altar boys. Sister [REDACTED] also recalled Craig doing a guitar mass a couple times a month for the teenage children in the parish.

Sister [REDACTED] stated that Craig was a well-liked priest, outgoing, personable and popular with the young folks. Sister [REDACTED] recalled Craig riding a bicycle around and smoking cigarettes. She did not recall [REDACTED] ever wearing a clown costume for any occasion. Sister [REDACTED] remembered Craig driving some type of van, but did not recall any details of the vehicle. Sister [REDACTED] stated that Craig was a very young priest when he came to All Saints-St. Anthony and appeared to get along very well with the younger folks in the parish. Sister [REDACTED] never felt that anything inappropriate was occurring with Craig and any of the young parishioners. She did not recall Craig ever spending an extraordinary amount of time with children in the parish. When questioned about other people in the parish that knew Craig, Sister [REDACTED] indicated names of subjects who had already been interviewed.

My dear brother Joseph, <sup>sent a St. Mark Parish personal response</sup> ^{5/30/98} CRAIG

I came away to the retreat house for a ³⁰⁰ few days to rest awhile in the Lord - and try to get the priorities straight again.

I was reading your letter on the Church (finally!) and thinking of you on the news lately and all the things going on, so I decided to write to share some of my feelings. I know you have many with whom to consult and share your feelings with - but I think - sometimes, you must wonder what the "average guy" thinks - one who's not so important.

I may as well get the bad news out first. I was at Quigley South's final graduation. I know you don't agree, but I think you made a mistake. I've been involved with a lot of high schools in my own little way of vocation work, but I always felt the Quigley faculty was a little more in touch and interested in their students. I also felt confident in recommending the school to Hispanics. They had such a nice mixture of ethnic groups - and did a lot for the future of the Church and its leadership - even if not many chose the ministerial priesthood.

What's done is done! I will miss it! Unlike other priests, it has nothing to do with my trust in you. It bothers me when I hear people say "He listens to this one or that one" - I don't pretend to understand the politics of the Church - although I'm not naive enough to believe they don't exist.

I feel very thankful that the retreat house is here. I know this property is valuable. I come here and walk and hear the birds and see the animals and breathe deeply of God's life-giving Spirit. I'd be a lot blousier than I am if I didn't have this place. It's such a contrast from Division & Western. Everyone here from Bob Ferrigan (we'll miss him) to the sisters to the staff - is so gracious and accomodating. Please try to keep this place (or find me a cabin in the woods, if we must sell.)

I hope you don't mind me writing like this. I've never done this before - It just seemed like you could use an honest, friendly note. All this headache with Churches closing - or joining together.

Second, and even more importantly,
I admire you as a man of action.
You do things that are not easy to do.
You come across as sincere and honest, worthy of trust. You also are a man of prayer. You don't know how refreshing that is to see and ~~feel~~ feel in a leader (and also, sad to say - in my opinion - ~~usual~~ unusual)
You still come across so warm and genuine - so human, so humble.

And so, my brother, with trust, with respect, with the desire that God keep you strong in your convictions, I ask you not to be too discouraged ever. With all the offices and people and priests - you have to deal with - you're doing just fine -

and, from one of your brothers out there, know that I feel comfortable in putting my life in your hands.

P.S. you needn't feel obliged to reply - But, from time to time I might drop a little note - if you don't mind.

with love in Christ,

Bob Craig
St. Mark.

I never want to be a pastor, especially with all these headaches. And you get all the complaints. People need a larger view of Church, like you present in your letter. The Church isn't a building - no matter how pretty it is. God doesn't mind where we worship Him - ~~and~~ only how - and that we do worship. If we could all think bigger, we wouldn't have so many problems. We all like to think that we think bigger (especially we priests) until the problems strike closer to home (not my church!)

So many poor pastors have so many more worries with the cutbacks (and more time-consuming paperwork).

The bottom line and my main reason for writing this letter is, whether I agree or not, (and that could make life pretty boring - if we agreed all the time) you have my support and my prayers - for a couple of reasons.

First, you're the boss. I take that obedience promise pretty seriously. I still believe in God and His shepherds. My role is a lot smaller.

Robert Craig is a hard worker; must have someone working with him; will need a pastor who can tolerate non-clerical dress; very smart. He wants to be in the City and in a situation where he can continue his work at Audy Home. He would tend to move free and independent. Tom's advice: be concerned.
