

F-1 - Roseau, MN

From: jeya paul [jeyapaulooty@yahoo.com]
 Sent: Friday, September 16, 2005 1:32 AM
 To: F-1 - Roseau, MN
 Subject: Re:

Loving F-1,

I am not coming back to greenbush. Bishop Balke does n't want me. He believes the false accusations of me. I give you a detailed mail after 2 weeks. I want to tell the truth. I was completely misunderstood. Spiritual guidance to a sexually abused by a grand father of a girl, made this false accusation. Lord Jesus knows that I am holy or not. I write to you everything latter. Thank you for all you did for me. I am really suffering a lot because of the false accusation. with love and prayers fr: jeyapaul

"F-1 - Roseau, MN" <F-1 > wrote:

Dear Fr. Jeyapaul,

I was so happy to hear from you. It is always a joyful event when a life is celebrated as your Mom's was. You have been in my prayers ryday. Thank you for your kind words. Yes, I have been very blessed by God and I am so very grateful for all He has done for me. I pray that I can continue to praise Him for His goodness by using His gifts to do His Holy Will.

I was not so happy to hear that when Bishop Balke was here to celebrate the Masses on Sunday, he announced to the congregation in Blessed Sacrament, only, that you had overstepped your bounds with a teenager and, although it was not sexual, was still very serious. M-1 and I attended Mass in Hallock as we were in that town the entire week-end. So, I did not hear what the Bishop said first hand, but got it from many people who had heard him. Many are upse! t and bewildered, wondering why the Bishop would make it public knowledge when very few knew anything about it beforehand. It just opened a huge mass of questions and assumptions and wild imaginings. If you would like to confide in me regarding this, please know that it will be held in very strict confidence.

So sorry that you must face this on top of the grieving for your mom. You will continue to be in my prayers. Love, F-1

Yahoo! for Good
here to donate to the Hurricane Katrina relief effort.

F-1 - Roseau, MN

From: jeya paul [jeyapaulooty@yahoo.com]
 Sent: Saturday, September 17, 2005 11:33 PM
 To: F-1 - Roseau, MN
 Subject: Re:

My dear F-1,

I want to inform you everything what happened.

When i went stubenville youth conference i met a girl who is from goodrich .Her name is Girl 1

She confessed to me lot of things.

She was sexually abused by her grandfather.She also suffered a lot from her past sexual sins.

She wanted my spiritual guidance,healing prayer,and counselling.

I told her since you are 16 years old i have to get permission from your parent.

I asked permission too.

I did my guidance .But her mother heart and heart did not like my counselling because her father only abused the girl Girl 1

Since i was so kind and made her to have devotion to mother mary.

She decided to become religious sister.

She phoned to me many times and talking to me lot of things about vocation and the problems in religious life.

But in the meantime her mum did not like to call me and talk.

She told the girl not to have any connection.

Only once the girl came to greenbush and confessed to me and i said healing prayer by laying hands.

her mother misunderstood me and she said i am grooming her for sex.

But i never think of that,

I told bishop also please have enquire the girl if she says any accusation against me i am ready to face the punishment.

But no enquiry he believed her mum statement and he emailed to me not to return to greenbush.

He believed the false accusations.

Lord Jesus knows about my holyness and innocence.

I only helped the girl to relieve from the past sins and the stress of sexual abuse by her grand father.I told her to forgive fully her grandfather.Then healing takes place.

If you happened to meet the girl just ask about me if she says any bad about me i am ready to accept any punishment.

But my good name is spoiled because of the girl's mum and the bishop.

I know the satan uses one or two people to spoil my name.

I take up the challenge and I believe in jesus's grace to stay in my HOLYNESS.

I hope you trust my holyness and innocence.

For long time i did not take up any counselling and healing because the name will be spoiled.

The misunderstandings come.

I showed to the girl kindness and helped her to relieve from past pain and suffering.

She was suffering so much without telling to anybody.

Anyway god's will be done.

I miss you a lot I love you .As my own sister you showed to me love and kind.

You were so loveable and did the service of hair cutting.

I will be always grateful to you.

Please kindly take the rocky chair which i promised to give you.

Please share this with M-2 and the parish council members.

Diocese of Crookston
218

Please send the M-3 and F-2 mail id
to your loving brother Fr. Jeyapaul
Please share with F-3

"F-1 - Roseau, MN" <F-1> wrote:

Dear Fr. Jeyapaul,

I was so happy to hear from you. It is always a joyful event when a life is celebrated as your Mom's was. You have been in my prayers everyday. Thank you for your kind words. Yes, I have been very blessed by God and I am so very grateful for all He has done for me. I pray that I can continue to praise Him for His goodness by using His gifts to do His Holy Will.

I was not so happy to hear that when Bishop Balke was here to celebrate the Masses on Sunday, he announced to the congregation in Blessed Sacrament, only, that you had overstepped your bounds with a teenager and, although it was not sexual, was still very serious. M-1 and I attended Mass in Hallock as we were in that town the entire week-end. So, I did not hear what the Bishop said first hand, but got it from many people who had heard him. Many are upset and bewildered, wondering why the Bishop would make it public knowledge when very few knew anything about it beforehand. It just opened a huge mass of questions and assumptions and wild imaginings. If you would like to confide in me regarding this, please know that it will be held in very strict confidence.

So sorry that you must face this on top of the grieving for your mom. You will continue to be in my prayers. Love, F-1

Do You Yahoo!?
Tired of spam? Yahoo! Mail has the best spam protection around <http://mail.yahoo.com>