) SS:

I, Cynthia Seelman, first being duly sworn under oath, states as follows:

2. That it was generally known by all students that Father Soens was sexually inappropriate with the boy students in the school.
3. That, in particular, it was known that if one of the boy students went to the sick room that Father Soens would go in and grab his crotch.
4. That I was raised and educated in the Catholic faith and was instructed both at home and in school that the priest could do no wrong.
5. That when it was announced that Father Soens was leaving the school, it was described that he was leaving the school because he was going away for a rest.
