Dear Ms. [REDACTED]

Fr. Enrique Losada, SS.CC., General Superior, residing in Rome, has requested that I, as Vicar Provincial of the Western Province, contact you. I received your address and phone number from Monsignor Richard Loomis, Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

The reason for my letter to you is to request your permission to travel to Phoenix to meet with you, or, if you prefer, to talk with you by phone.

Fundamentally, we of the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts, would like to express our sincere regret over what you, when a high school student suffered through the actions of one of our members. My visit or phone call to you would be for the purpose of verbally expressing this, and to offer you the help, through therapy, to recover from this past trauma, and for your total well being.

Also, to set your mind at peace. I would want to share with you what steps, psychologically and spiritually, Fr. Martin O'Loughlen, SS.CC. has taken over the years and continues now, that preclude any possible recurrence of such conduct.

Hoping to hear from you soon.

Very Sincerely,

(Fr.) Michael J. Brooks, SS.CC.
Pastor, St. Louis Church,
Vicar Provincial of Western Province

P.S. My home phone is (619) 324-2103. If you wish you may call and leave a message. I will return your call.
