OFFICE of the ARCHBISHOP

May 7, 1981

Dear Brother Jeremy:

In a letter which I received today from Father Thomas R. Clark, he requested that I send you in his behalf a letter of release from active priestly service in the Archdiocese of Louisville. I am happy to comply with Father Clark's request.

As I understand it too, this letter is not speaking in terms of excardination. If such an excardination is contemplated, it will take place at a later date.

Please be assured of my best wishes in behalf of the devoted work which you and your confreres are performing to help so many in the name of Christ, our Divine Savior.

With every best wish, I am

Devotedly yours in Christ,

Thomas J. Donoghue
Archbishop of Louisville
