OFFICE of the ARCHBISHOP

May 27, 1994

Dear Mr. [REDACTED] MS-20 :

As a result of information communicated by you and members of your family, I have made significant changes in Father Robert Dollinger's situation. He is retiring from his ministry as pastor, and he will not be engaging in any public ministry as a priest. He is now searching for a monastery or religious house where he may live in retirement. Those who will be his superiors in this situation will be fully informed of the information you have provided. I have also asked him to lay aside clerical garb.

May I ask you to share this information with your brother [REDACTED] MS-21 and with your sister [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] ?

With prayerful best wishes,

Devotely yours in Christ,

Thomas C. Kelly
Archbishop of Louisville
