Dear Archbishop Kelly,

Thank you for meeting with me and for your willingness to support my work in therapy. I feel confident that I will get the help I need this time.

With all of the many dimensions your own work must take you into, you must really have to fight at times to keep your balance. Issues like the one you and I have been discussing must seem far off the track and I get the feeling that it isn't something you entirely understand. I'm all the more appreciative of your efforts to help repair what you can and ⁽²⁾ to be open to my requests.

I feel your offer of a capped figure (that you mentioned on the phone) should be adequate over the three year period I suggested.
I will make it a priority to find a therapist in [REDACTED] - perhaps
Dr. Mc Dade - and begin the process.
At that time, we should be able to finalize this agreement.

Best wishes in your own work and in trying to live the truth. I can say I'm very glad to be getting to know you and hope we will continue to share & grow.

Sincerely,

MS-7
