If there's any moment a time bomb can go off it will. Very shaking. Feels very sick over weekend. Talked of archbishop Monday morning; feels more settled. Saw man 1st on Thursday - didn't recognize him. He was probably angry about that; that he was so spiteful of people. Said when he called that he abused him when he was a boy. Insisted we get together & talk. He said he wouldn't get together with me at that time. Said he was sorry for anything he's done. Asked him to call the archbishop. Alan said he should never be around a child again, never in a parish, never function as a priest. Alan was very angry; said he's hurt for many years.

Good family.

Met w/ archbishop Monday - archbishop said he's w/ best program there is. Alan wants no court or publicity or money, just wants him barred from ministry. Archbishop doesn't want to take him out of the ministry.

Plans to pull back & maintain low profile & avoid parish work even more than before. Want to stay low profile because so many people know him.

said he can pull together 20 men & women who could say he molested him.

Alan will before & resign when at Holy Spirit & apologize.
Plans to stay where he is, not resign. needs to help people
