I received a telephone call from _____ On 4-14-86 I had a telephone conversation with her and she at that time told me that she could find information for me regarding the Orange County Catholic Archdiocese. At that time we were concerned because I was not receiving any cooperation from _____ the parish priest at St. Bonaventure Church. I had made several attempts in the past to contact _____ by telephone and in person at the church, however, it appears that he is attempting to avoid me. _____ said that she now has information that may assist in contacting the church authorities above.

She explained that I should call the Vicar for Pastoral Affairs for the Orange County Archdiocese. She said there are three priests that could be contacted who may give information and be helpful in locating Father Chris. She gave the names _____ _____ also told me that a good friend of Father Chris's, a Cantor for the church _____ could be contacted and may have information as to Father Chris's whereabouts.

_____ All three can be reached.

_____ also said that she talked with _____ who is the property manager for church affairs, phone number _____. She asked him about the house owned by the church and used as a nunnery. She was told that the house was in escrow at this time. She did not have the address of the house or any other information and suggested that I _____ regarding the residence.
