I've been in this command for over two years now. Last month, I became the RTC (Recruit Training Command) Catholic Coordinator and also the Division Chaplain for Division 6 and Special Training. We are the largest and most active Command Religious Program in the Navy. We average 800 recruits in our Sunday Services. We don't have baptism, marriage and confirmation at this particular command because of the nature of bootcamp; very hectic. I am also providing ministry to Filipino-American families in greater San Diego area.

I am presently assigned to RTC, San Diego. I am in charge of 2 Recruit Divisions with approximately 1600 Recruits. Bootcamp is 8 weeks of rigid training. The type of ministry is counseling, lectures, ministry of presence, religious education, sacrament of reconciliation, and mass. Confirmation, marriages and baptism are not common in RTC because of one nature of Bootcamp. We average 800 recruits in church attendance, also provide mass and other coverage at the Base Chapel.

NARRATIVE REPORT (Use the space below to describe your current ministry and special parochial activities, to make remarks and recommendations, to furnish personal notes such as family deaths, sicknesses, etc.)

I am presently assigned to Recruit Training Command here in San Diego. My primary duty is a chaplain for Two Recruit divisions. My responsibility also includes providing catholic services to thousands of recruits undergoing BOOTH CAMP. The kind of sacraments we always provide are the Holy Eucharist, and Reconciliation. Since boothcamp is an intensive two months of training, recruits are not encouraged to marry while on training for lack of time for preparations. Baptisms are being administered on base chapel after their training. I also support the base Chapel by providing regular mass during the week and the other sacraments. We have an average of one thousand recruits in our Sunday mass.

This priest is applying for active duty. Realizing that this initial period of three years is a trial period for the priest, the Archdiocese for the Military Services and the Military, we endorse him only for this limited period. Should he desire to serve past his initial commitment of three years, or request a transfer to the regular military, the inactive reserve or contract chaplain, another permission from his ordinary/religious superior is necessary before he can be granted the ecclesiastical endorsement of the Archdiocese for the Military Services.

Dear Father Amora:

The office of the Navy Chief of Chaplains has informed us that you wish to return to Active Duty and need the Endorsement of the Archdiocese for the Military Services to do so.

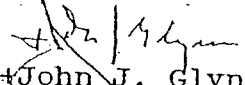

Before granting an Endorsement we need to clarify your status. According to our records we have received only one letter from your Ordinary written by The Most Reverend Felix Zafra, Bishop of Dipolog on May 22, 1985, granting his permission for you to serve in the Navy. On June 10, 1985 the Archdiocese for Military Services endorsed your serving an initial period of three years on active duty.

Apparently you were extended on active duty by the Navy and in 1993 released from Active Duty and permitted by the Navy to serve in Inactive Reserve status, though such service on your part was never endorsed by the Archdiocese.

Accordingly we need you to complete and return the enclosed form before we can proceed further.

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to call.

Dear Father Amora,

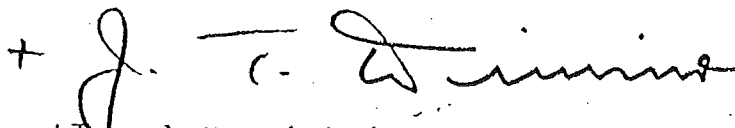

I had hoped that the results of last year's Board of selecting for the grade of Lieutenant Commander in the Navy Chaplain Corps might be reversed by this year's Board. My disappointment can only mirror that which you must feel.

I hope nevertheless that these few words may be able to reaffirm what you mean to me, to the bishops, priests, and people of the Archdiocese for the Military Services. May they be able to reaffirm especially the love and gratitude extended to you by all who have known you as their pastor.

Speaking to chaplains of the Italian Armed Forces, Pope John Paul II described the chaplain the Church prays for as the man who first and foremost, always and everywhere is a priest. In so speaking, Our Holy Father described yourself, for such is what and who you are and have been during your years as a chaplain.

Please know that whatever human disappointment or discouragement may weigh upon your heart I commend now to the gentle concern of Our Lady, Queen of the Clergy. My Masses and prayers offer thanks to God for what your priesthood has contributed to the ministry of the Archdiocese and ask His blessing upon you and your priestly efforts in the years to come.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Dear Father Amora:

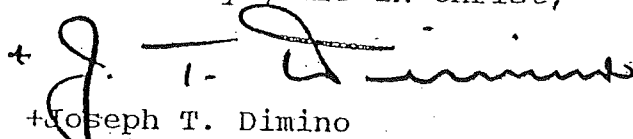

I was truly saddened that you were not selected for promotion to the grade of Lieutenant Commander in the United States Navy. I know that this was hurtful news for you to learn and, also, that the depth and pain of non-selection can only be felt by the one who has suffered such a happening. I can and I do empathize with you at this time.

I do want to affirm you in your Priesthood. Above all else, you are first and foremost a priest. You have been called to be a pastor of souls. I want you to know and realize that I am most grateful and appreciative for the generous gift of your priestly ministry - your care, love and concern for those men and women and family members whom you have been called to serve in the chaplaincy. The gift of your priesthood is esteemed by those whom you serve and by me. Indeed, the high regard and love that those you are pastoring have for you should be a source of comfort and strength at this time.

I want to assure you that you are in my Masses and prayers. May God continue to bestow upon you His richest gifts: Abundant Grace, excellent health, and a courageous heart. I am most grateful that you are a member of our Archdiocesan Family.

Please keep us in your prayers.

Dear Father Amora,

I address these words to you and to your brother priests who minister to our nation's young men and women who are participants in Operation Desert Shield. My prayers are with each of those splendid and generous young people. Most especially, though, my prayers are with you my brothers in the priesthood, that you might be for them what you are called to be both in peace and in war, always solely a pastor.

Whatever the political, military and moral questions debated concerning this moment in history it has been truly said by our Holy Father, Pope John Paul II, that "wherever there is a human being, there is a place for a priest."

May God's grace, which anointed you in the priesthood of His Son, strengthen and sustain you. May you continue to be a voice of love, compassion and concern, of counsel and conscience, a messenger of Christ's loving witness to Our Father's mercy. Through your sacramental ministry to our young soldiers, sailors, airmen and marines may you be an instrument of peace.

Peace is still our wish and hope especially on the part of those whom you serve, but I note at this time our Church's teaching that a government has the obligation to defend its people against unjust aggression, a teaching strongly stated in Pope Pius XII's Christmas Message of 1948:

"A people threatened with an unjust aggression or already its victim may not remain passively indifferent. . . .

"All the more does the solidarity of the family of nations forbid others to behave as mere spectators in an attitude of apathetic neutrality

Among (the) goods (of humanity) some are of such importance for society that it is perfectly lawful to defend them against unjust aggression. Their defense is even an obligation for the nations as a whole, who have a duty not to abandon a nation that is attacked."

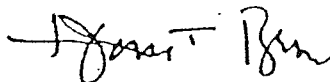

This is not to say that armed force is the only defense against unjust aggression, but it is a legitimate though grave option concerning the protection of a people; an option that must be considered and conducted soberly. We of our time most realize that we shall have to give a somber reckoning for our deeds, for the course of the future will depend largely on decisions made today.

Accordingly I know that you join me in prayer for our President, the members of Congress and the leaders of our Armed Forces, trusting in, and invoking God's guidance upon a national will to do what is right. We pray for those who bear the burden of exercising that will, those of whom the fathers of the Second Vatican said, "All those who enter the military service in loyalty to their country should look upon themselves as the custodians of the security and freedom of their fellow countrymen, and when they carry out their duty properly, they are contributing to the maintenance of peace."

We pray for the people of Kuwait, for the leaders and people of Iraq, and for all mankind. May God who is good forgive all of us our personal and national sins and help us to live in a peace securely founded in justice.

May Our Lady, Queen of Peace, intercede for us that peace prevail.

Faithfully yours,

+Joseph T. Ryan
Archbishop for the Military
Services, U.S.A.

ADDITIONAL QUOTES

Pope Pius XII - Christmas Message - 1953

"The Community of Nations must reckon with unprincipled criminals, who, in order to realize their ambitious plans, are not afraid to unleash total war. This is why other countries, if they wish to preserve their very existence and their most precious possessions, have no alternative but to get ready for the day when they must defend themselves."

Joint Pastoral Letter of the French Bishops - 'Winning the Peace' November 1983. (Paragraph #9).

"Under these conditions does not the absolute condemnation of all war place peace-loving peoples at the mercy of those who are motivated by an ideology of domination? In order to escape war these people risk succumbing to other forms of violence and injustice When played out to the end. Peace at any price leads a nation to every kind of capitulation."

St. Augustine's THE CITY OF GOD, Book IV, c-15.

"War and conquest are a sad necessity in the eyes of men of principle, yet it would be still more unfortunate if wrong doers should dominate just men."

Dear Father Ed,

I was most pleased to receive your Christmas card and your Christmas greetings. Thank you for writing personally on the card - the card is certainly one of the most beautiful I've ever received.

I made an attempt to try to be with some of you who are deployed but the Army General in charge of the entire Operation Desert Shield felt that no Christian clergymen should come at this time.

I spent Christmas at Camp Lejeune. My first Christmas in the Navy was at Camp Lejeune. I was able to begin my first homily on Christmas Eve by saying that "47 years ago tonight I offered Mass in this chapel."

Father Stephen Rock arranged for all of the priests to visit with me during the three days I was there. I found the entire visit to be a great spiritual experience - wonderful priests and great people whom they serve.

We are proud of all the people in the military and especially of our priests. You are doing a great job. You are needed desperately by the people you serve and you are indeed a fine priest. Thank you.

FPO San Francisco 96608

Dear Father Amora,

I was most pleased to receive your letter of October 18th. Thank you very much for writing to me and giving me a clear idea of what you and the other chaplains are doing - indeed a magnificent job.

Congratulations on being able to arrange a Day of Recollection. Also for arranging prayers, the Rosary and some discussions, as time permits.

My Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be offered for you and all those under your spiritual care. Last Sunday, fifty of your brother chaplains gathered at our archdiocesan residence for an early Thanksgiving dinner and we spent part of the evening praying for all those in Operation Desert Shield in our chapel, where we remember you daily in Mass.

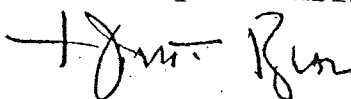

I see that the opening prayer in Mass on Thanksgiving reads:

Father all-powerful, your gifts of love are countless your goodness infinite.

On Thanksgiving Day we come before you
with gratitude for your kindness:
open our hearts to concern for our fellow men and women,
so that we may share your gifts in loving service.

Be assured that our hearts are indeed filled with concern for you, for all our priests and for all the valiant men and women whom you serve.

Faternally in Christ,

+Joseph T. Ryan
Archbishop for the Military Services

Dear Archbishop Ryan,

Greetings from the desert sands of Arabia!
Thank you for your letter. It is always nice to hear from my bishop. Your letter is very encouraging and has given me additional strength to continue ministering to the troops here in the desert.

I've been in country for two months now. We left the states in August. We are still hoping and praying that this crisis will be solved through peaceful means.

I'm with the Rotary Wing. There are two chaplains assigned to MAG-16, one protestant and myself. There ^{are} around 3,000 troops under our care. We have ^{the} Army, Seabees, Airforce and the Marines. We have daily masses, one saturday anticipated mass and four masses on Sundays. We have prayer and study every Tuesday evening. We pray the rosary and discuss and study some questions and doctrines in the church. Everything has been good with God's blessings.

We continue to hope and pray for the success of our deployment here. Thank you once again Archbishop Ryan for your prayer and concern.

Sincerely,

fr. Edito Amora

P.S. Last Oct. 11, I coordinated a priests day of Recollection in Bahrain. There were four priests in Attendance. Next month we expect seven priests to attend.

Dear Father Amora,

We extend to you our greetings from the nation's capitol - where conversations and discussions of the crisis in the Middle East are rampant and where information concerning the latest events in that area is eagerly sought from press, radio and television.

I have learned unofficially that you have departed from the United States and are now stationed in the Gulf area. For this reason I write to express my gratitude to you for your willingness to share your priestly ministry with the members of our armed forces even in difficult situations and far from the relative comforts of your homeland.

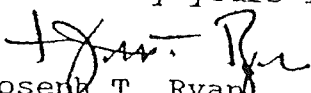

In the years to come, when you reflect upon your military service, you will undoubtedly recall these days as among your proudest moments. During your time in that threatening area you as a priest in uniform certainly realize that you are serving almighty God and your country in the highest traditions of American priests of the past who have accompanied our military personnel into areas of danger and risk.

Be assured that the Catholics of this country, mothers and fathers, wives, husbands and children, deeply appreciate your presence with their loved ones and applaud your dedication and commitment.

The bishops, and all your fellow priests of the Military Archdiocese, are remembering you daily in their Masses and prayers.

May Our Blessed Lady protect you. May God our Father bring you home safely.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

+Joseph T. Ryan

Dear Father Amora,

Monsignor Glynn, Father Condon, Father Johnson, Father McBride and I returned last Friday night from a three week trip at Regional Conferences in Honolulu, San Diego, San Francisco and San Antonio.

The conferences were most successful. The theme, as you know, was "The Priest as Evangeliser." Father McBride was very well received and did an excellent job. He gave three talks - the first one on our identity as priests, the second one on prayer and the third on celibacy.

All of you so far away from us were remembered in our Masses and we said special prayers for yourselves and all the good people under your pastoral care.

This past Sunday we had our usual gathering of priests for dinner. After dinner we recited the Angelus for vocations; the Rosary for yourselves and your good people and we then sang the Salve Regina for the special intention that Our Lady will take care of all of you.

I was moved by the second reading in the Mass on Sunday morning - St. Paul wrote thus to the Thessalonians:

"We keep thanking God for all of you and we remember you in our prayers, for we constantly are mindful before our God and Father of the way you are proving your faith and laboring in love, and showing constancy in hope in our Lord Jesus Christ."

As we commend you for your constancy in a difficult position, we promise you our continued prayers and lasting high regard. You are ever in our thoughts. God bless you and keep you. May our Lady in this month of the Holy Rosary protect you.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

+Joseph T. Ryan

Dear Edito:

Greetings of Peace!

Archbishop Ryan and I recently returned from Germany where we met with the priests stationed in Europe for the last of the 1985-86 Regional Conferences. With the Conference in Germany, the Conferences held in the United States during October and November 1985, and the Far East Christmas Visitation, Archbishop Ryan and I had a chance to meet 90% of the priests who completed the Orientation Course. Both of us are convinced that you and your fellow priests are working extremely hard to inculcate Christ's message of love and service to the Military world. Keep up the good work!

If we did not meet you personally at one of the Conferences or in one of the visits, you are greatly encouraged to write regarding any concerns, personal or professional, you may have. If we did meet with you, your comments and observations are most appreciated.

A new Orientation Class of ten is with us now. Six for the Army, three for the Navy and one for the Air Force.

We are almost up to full staff at our new location in Silver Spring. Things are going well, even though change is always difficult. The new members of our staff have blended in beautifully with those already experienced to form a real working team.

You have my prayers for your continued good health.

Fraternally in Christ,

Reverend John J. Cunniffe
Vice Chancellor

Dear Fr. John Curiffe,

Pax Christi!

Sorry, it's a kind of late to thank you and the staff for the great work you've done during the orientation class. Nevertheless, I would like to thank you all for everything.

For me, it was really a tough days to hurry everything. And thanks God I'm here at the Chapin School doing fine and hoping to succeed.

I am enclosing in this letter the active duty report. Again, I'm sorry for the inconvenience. I just know my permanent duty station recently.

Best wishes to all of you in the Military Archdiocese. May God bless you all.

Sincerely,
Rev. Edito Amora

Dear Father Amora:

On behalf of the entire staff of the Military Ordinariate I congratulate you on completing the Chaplain's Orientation Course. Your generous response to our efforts to supply priestly ministry to the members of our military family is deeply appreciated.

With this letter I am pleased to grant you the faculties of the Military Vicariate. These faculties will begin on the day you commence active duty and will perdure until they are revoked or until you leave active duty.

N.B. Our faculties will have to be reissued to you if:

- a) You return to inactive duty status in the reserve, or
- b) if you return to active duty from reserve status.

During the Orientation Course you received materials relative to various aspects of the operation of the Military Ordinariate and ministry in the Vicariate. Please keep these materials on hand and refer to them as needs arise.

The Vademecum contains regulations and procedures which are essential for your ministry in the Vicariate. We ask you to be sure to be familiar with its contents.

Please accept our prayers and best wishes as you prepare to serve God's People in uniform. Know also that we are always ready to assist you.

COMMENTS: (A summary statement evaluating the applicant is required. All extreme ratings marked by an asterisk (*) should be further commented upon in this page.)

Appeared confident, but not arrogant; Ordained 4/27/80 and served 7 mos. as parochial vicar; 3 years as pastor of parish of 19,000 people with 35 lay ministers. Very impressive He speaks with an accent but has used English only a year regularly; but correct and precise. He is preaching for the home mission of Dipolog Diocese through the U.S. for the past year. He had no previous military but had four years of military classes in high school. He respects the individual's conscience and avoids proselytising. He does seem highly motivated for the Navy. Received bachelor degrees in philosophy and theology in the Philippines. He is an amateur sportsman liking basketball, volleyball and tennis. He looks like a good follower and listener so will probably be a good leader later with great potential. We spoke about the 3years active/inactive contract and the indefinite nature of the commitment with the Navy afterwards. I definitely recommend him for acceptance on active duty in the Chaplain Corps; I would be very willing to work with him.

COMMENTS: (Supplement or qualify the motivation rating and potential as a career naval officer, as appropriate.)

He has been considering active duty for more than a year while in the U.S. Such persistence and determination speak well of his high motivation. His interest in things of the sea comes through well and I attribute his evident faith as the basis for wanting to serve people in new and varied ways in the Navy.

Amora, Edito Delmacio

Father Amora seemed sure of himself but not arrogant. He was ordained five years ago and has served at parochial vicar in a parish for seven months and then as pastor of another parish for three years. This latter parish has 19,000 Catholics and he had no assistant except for 35 lay ministers to help in various areas. While such a crowd would seem to preclude Mass alone, he appreciates the need to maintain the close relationship with the Eucharist that is such a central part of his faith even when he has been alone travelling in the United States on the mission preaching circuit. His work with such a large parish is an impressive feat and speaks very well of his leadership ability. The potential must be staggering. Such an accomplishment also accounts for the poise and confidence that he exhibits so comfortably. He does speak with a noticeable accent but explains that he has been using English on a regular basis for only a year or so; however, he does use the language correctly and with precision. He is currently on the road throughout the United States preaching to raise money for the home missions of the Dipolog Diocese back home. While he has not had any previous military service, he did attend military classes for four years in high school. He spoke knowledgeably of the Vatican Council's Decree on Religious Freedom when we discussed the question of religious pluralism within the Navy and he recognizes the need to respect a person's conscience and to avoid proselytising. He appears highly motivated for service in the Navy; that is the only U.S. service that recruits actively in the Philippines and he has been considering the decision to apply for active duty for the past year or so. He received his bachelor degrees in philosophy and theology in the seminary in the Philippines. He considers himself to be an amateur sportsman with a liking for basketball, volleyball, and tennis as well as golf. He impresses me as a good follower and willing listener so he will probably be a good leader later with great potential over the years. We discussed the 3 year active/3 year inactive duty expectation; he is aware of the indefinite nature of the commitment with the Navy after the first three years. I definitely recommend him for acceptance on active duty in the Chaplain Corps and I would be very willing to have him assigned with me. Finally, his experience in dealing with Buddhists would seem to be valuable as members of that faith community show up in greater numbers in the Naval service.

- Gave a talk of my experience during Desert Shield/Storm Operations at Visitation Church, Buicktown, New Jersey, while on leave.
- Conducted a funeral service for retired MSGT Robert Stillings, USMC, 21 June 1991.

I've been in this command for over two years now. Last month, I became the RTC (Recruit Training Command) Catholic Coordinator and also the Division Chaplain for Division 6 and Special Training. We are the largest and most active Command Religious Program in the Navy. We average 800 recruits in our Sunday Services. We don't have baptism, marriage and confirmation at this particular command because of the nature of bootcamp; very hectic. I am also providing ministry to Filipino-American families in greater San Deigo area.

I am presently assigned to Recruit Training Command here in San Diego. My primary duty is a chaplain for Two Recruit divisions. My responsibility also includes providing catholic services to thousands of recruits under-going BOOTHCAMP. The kind of sacraments we always provide are the Holy Eucharist, and Reconciliation. Since boothcamp is an intensive two months of training, recruits are not encouraged to marry while on training for lack of time for preparations. Baptisms are being administered on base chapel after their training. I also support the base Chapel by providing regular mass during the week and the other sacraments. We have an average of one thousand recruits in our Sunday mass.

This priest is applying for active duty. Realizing that this initial period of three years is a trial period for the priest, the Archdiocese for the Military Services and the Military, we endorse him only for this limited period. Should he desire to serve past his initial commitment of three years, or request a transfer to the regular military, the inactive reserve or contract chaplain, another permission from his ordinary/religious superior is necessary before he can be granted the ecclesiastical endorsement of the Archdiocese for the Military Services.

Dear Father Amora:

The office of the Navy Chief of Chaplains has informed us that you wish to return to Active Duty and need the Endorsement of the Archdiocese for the Military Services to do so.

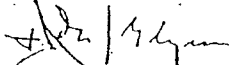

Before granting an Endorsement we need to clarify your status. According to our records we have received only one letter from your Ordinary written by The Most Reverend Felix Zafra, Bishop of Dipolog on May 22, 1985, granting his permission for you to serve in the Navy. On June 10, 1985 the Archdiocese for Military Services endorsed your serving an initial period of three years on active duty.

Apparently you were extended on active duty by the Navy and in 1993 released from Active Duty and permitted by the Navy to serve in Inactive Reserve status, though such service on your part was never endorsed by the Archdiocese.

Accordingly we need you to complete and return the enclosed form before we can proceed further.

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to call.

Dear Father Amora,

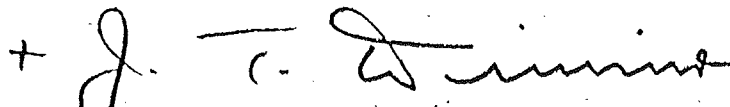

I had hoped that the results of last year's Board of selecting for the grade of Lieutenant Commander in the Navy Chaplain Corps might be reversed by this year's Board. My disappointment can only mirror that which you must feel.

I hope nevertheless that these few words may be able to reaffirm what you mean to me, to the bishops, priests, and people of the Archdiocese for the Military Services. May they be able to reaffirm especially the love and gratitude extended to you by all who have known you as their pastor.

Speaking to chaplains of the Italian Armed Forces, Pope John Paul II described the chaplain the Church prays for as the man who first and foremost, always and everywhere is a priest. In so speaking, Our Holy Father described yourself, for such is what and who you are and have been during your years as a chaplain.

Please know that whatever human disappointment or discouragement may weigh upon your heart I commend now to the gentle concern of Our Lady, Queen of the Clergy. My Masses and prayers offer thanks to God for what your priesthood has contributed to the ministry of the Archdiocese and ask His blessing upon you and your priestly efforts in the years to come.

Faternally yours in Christ,

Dear Father Amora:

I was truly saddened that you were not selected for promotion to the grade of Lieutenant Commander in the United States Navy. I know that this was hurtful news for you to learn and, also, that the depth and pain of non-selection can only be felt by the one who has suffered such a happening. I can and I do empathize with you at this time.

I do want to affirm you in your Priesthood. Above all else, you are first and foremost a priest. You have been called to be a pastor of souls. I want you to know and realize that I am most grateful and appreciative for the generous gift of your priestly ministry - your care, love and concern for those men and women and family members whom you have been called to serve in the chaplaincy. The gift of your priesthood is esteemed by those whom you serve and by me. Indeed, the high regard and love that those you are pastoring have for you should be a source of comfort and strength at this time.

I want to assure you that you are in my Masses and prayers. May God continue to bestow upon you His richest gifts: Abundant Grace, excellent health, and a courageous heart. I am most grateful that you are a member of our Archdiocesan Family.

Please keep us in your prayers.

Dear Father Amora,

I address these words to you and to your brother priests who minister to our nation's young men and women who are participants in Operation Desert Shield. My prayers are with each of those splendid and generous young people. Most especially, though, my prayers are with you my brothers in the priesthood, that you might be for them what you are called to be both in peace and in war, always solely a pastor.

Whatever the political, military and moral questions debated concerning this moment in history it has been truly said by our Holy Father, Pope John Paul II, that "wherever there is a human being, there is a place for a priest."

May God's grace, which anointed you in the priesthood of His Son, strengthen and sustain you. May you continue to be a voice of love, compassion and concern, of counsel and conscience, a messenger of Christ's loving witness to Our Father's mercy. Through your sacramental ministry to our young soldiers, sailors, airmen and marines may you be an instrument of peace.

Peace is still our wish and hope especially on the part of those whom you serve, but I note at this time our Church's teaching that a government has the obligation to defend its people against unjust aggression, a teaching strongly stated in Pope Pius XII's Christmas Message of 1948:

"A people threatened with an unjust aggression or already its victim may not remain passively indifferent. . . .

"All the more does the solidarity of the family of nations forbid others to behave as mere spectators in an attitude of apathetic neutrality

Among (the) goods (of humanity) some are of such importance for society that it is perfectly lawful to defend them against unjust aggression. Their defense is even an obligation for the nations as a whole, who have a duty not to abandon a nation that is attacked."

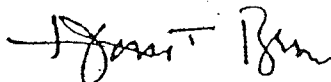

This is not to say that armed force is the only defense against unjust aggression; but it is a legitimate though grave option concerning the protection of a people; an option that must be considered and conducted soberly. We of our time most realize that we shall have to give a somber reckoning for our deeds, for the course of the future will depend largely on decisions made today.

Accordingly I know that you join me in prayer for our President, the members of Congress and the leaders of our Armed Forces, trusting in, and invoking God's guidance upon a national will to do what is right. We pray for those who bear the burden of exercising that will, those of whom the fathers of the Second Vatican said, "All those who enter the military service in loyalty to their country should look upon themselves as the custodians of the security and freedom of their fellow countrymen, and when they carry out their duty properly, they are contributing to the maintenance of peace."

We pray for the people of Kuwait, for the leaders and people of Iraq, and for all mankind. May God who is good forgive all of us our personal and national sins and help us to live in a peace securely founded in justice.

May Our Lady, Queen of Peace, intercede for us that peace prevail.

Faithfully yours,

+Joseph T. Ryan
Archbishop for the Military
Services, U.S.A.

ADDITIONAL QUOTES

Pope Pius XII - Christmas Message - 1953

"The Community of Nations must reckon with unprincipled criminals, who, in order to realize their ambitious plans, are not afraid to unleash total war. This is why other countries, if they wish to preserve their very existence and their most precious possessions, have no alternative but to get ready for the day when they must defend themselves."

Joint Pastoral Letter of the French Bishops - 'Winning the Peace'
November 1983. (Paragraph #9).

"Under these conditions does not the absolute condemnation of all war place peace-loving peoples at the mercy of those who are motivated by an ideology of domination? In order to escape war these people risk succumbing to other forms of violence and injustice When played out to the end. Peace at any price leads a nation to every kind of capitulation."

St. Augustine's THE CITY OF GOD, Book IV, c-15.

"War and conquest are a sad necessity in the eyes of men of principle, yet it would be still more unfortunate if wrong doers should dominate just men."

Dear Father Ed,

I was most pleased to receive your Christmas card and your Christmas greetings. Thank you for writing personally on the card - the card is certainly one of the most beautiful I've ever received.

I made an attempt to try to be with some of you who are deployed but the Army General in charge of the entire Operation Desert Shield felt that no Christian clergymen should come at this time.

I spent Christmas at Camp Lejeune. My first Christmas in the Navy was at Camp Lejeune. I was able to begin my first homily on Christmas Eve by saying that "47 years ago tonight I offered Mass in this chapel."

Father Stephen Rock arranged for all of the priests to visit with me during the three days I was there. I found the entire visit to be a great spiritual experience - wonderful priests and great people whom they serve.

We are proud of all the people in the military and especially of our priests. You are doing a great job. You are needed desperately by the people you serve and you are indeed a fine priest. Thank you.

Dear Father Amora,

I was most pleased to receive your letter of October 18th. Thank you very much for writing to me and giving me a clear idea of what you and the other chaplains are doing - indeed a magnificent job.

Congratulations on being able to arrange a Day of Recollection. Also for arranging prayers, the Rosary and some discussions, as time permits.

My Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be offered for you and all those under your spiritual care. Last Sunday, fifty of your brother chaplains gathered at our archdiocesan residence for an early Thanksgiving dinner and we spent part of the evening praying for all those in Operation Desert Shield in our chapel, where we remember you daily in Mass.

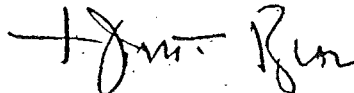

I see that the opening prayer in Mass on Thanksgiving reads:

Father all-powerful, your gifts of love are countless
your goodness infinite.

On Thanksgiving Day we come before you
with gratitude for your kindness:
open our hearts to concern for our fellow men and women,
so that we may share your gifts in loving service.

Be assured that our hearts are indeed filled with concern for you, for all our priests and for all the valiant men and women whom you serve.

Dear Archbishop Ryan,

Greetings from the desert sands of Arabia!
Thank you for your letter. It is always nice to hear from my bishop. Your letter is very encouraging and has given me additional strength to continue ministering to the troops here in the desert.

I've been in country for two months now. We left the states in August. We are still hoping and praying that this crisis will be solved through peaceful means.

I'm with the Rotary Wing. There are two chaplains assigned to MAG-16, one protestant and myself. There ^{are} around 3,000 troops under our care. We have ^{the} Army, Seabees, Airforce and the Marines. We have daily masses, one saturday anticipated mass and four masses on Sundays. We have prayer and study every Tuesday evening. We pray the rosary and discuss and study some questions and doctrines in the church. Everything has been good with God's blessings.

We continue to hope and pray for the success of our deployment here. Thank you once again Archbishop Ryan for your prayer and concern.

Sincerely,

fr. Edito Amora

P.S. Last Oct 11, I coordinated a priests day of recollection in Bahrain. There were four

Dear Father Amora,

We extend to you our greetings from the nation's capitol - where conversations and discussions of the crisis in the Middle East are rampant and where information concerning the latest events in that area is eagerly sought from press, radio and television.

I have learned unofficially that you have departed from the United States and are now stationed in the Gulf area. For this reason I write to express my gratitude to you for your willingness to share your priestly ministry with the members of our armed forces even in difficult situations and far from the relative comforts of your homeland.

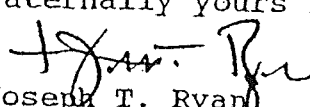

In the years to come, when you reflect upon your military service, you will undoubtedly recall these days as among your proudest moments. During your time in that threatening area you as a priest in uniform certainly realize that you are serving almighty God and your country in the highest traditions of American priests of the past who have accompanied our military personnel into areas of danger and risk.

Be assured that the Catholics of this country, mothers and fathers, wives, husbands and children, deeply appreciate your presence with their loved ones and applaud your dedication and commitment.

The bishops, and all your fellow priests of the Military Archdiocese, are remembering you daily in their Masses and prayers.

May Our Blessed Lady protect you. May God our Father bring you home safely.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

+Joseph T. Ryan

Dear Father Amora,

Monsignor Glynn, Father Condon, Father Johnson, Father McBride and I returned last Friday night from a three week trip at Regional Conferences in Honolulu, San Diego, San Francisco and San Antonio.

The conferences were most successful. The theme, as you know, was "The Priest as Evangeliser." Father McBride was very well received and did an excellent job. He gave three talks - the first one on our identity as priests, the second one on prayer and the third on celibacy.

All of you so far away from us were remembered in our Masses and we said special prayers for yourselves and all the good people under your pastoral care.

This past Sunday we had our usual gathering of priests for dinner. After dinner we recited the Angelus for vocations; the Rosary for yourselves and your good people and we then sang the Salve Regina for the special intention that Our Lady will take care of all of you.

I was moved by the second reading in the Mass on Sunday morning - St. Paul wrote thus to the Thessalonians:

"We keep thanking God for all of you and we remember you in our prayers, for we constantly are mindful before our God and Father of the way you are proving your faith and laboring in love, and showing constancy in hope in our Lord Jesus Christ."

As we commend you for your constancy in a difficult position, we promise you our continued prayers and lasting high regard. You are ever in our thoughts. God bless you and keep you. May our Lady in this month of the Holy Rosary protect you.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

+Joseph T. Ryan

A fine chaplain and adequate Navy officer, LT AMORA is sincere in his dedication to all faith groups and administers a well rounded religious program. Stable in conviction, confident in moral judgement and productive in the delivery of spiritual values, Chaplain AMORA:

- Conducts regular weekly services at the battalion level.
- Extends himself to command personnel and dependents by visitation programs in the barracks, brigs and military and civilian hospitals.
- Effectively delivers thoughtful and challenging lectures to drug and alcohol classes.

Chaplain AMORA has rapidly become a seasoned field chaplain who:
 --Enthusiastically provides a wide range of religious services and programs during a variety of field commitments to the whole battalion while frequently remaining in the field overnight to minister to personnel at the battery level.
 --Upon reporting, immediately assimilated himself into a major USCENTCOM exercise-Gallant Eagle '86-providing extensive Catholic coverage to infantry, tank, and artillery units.
 --Unhesitantly responds to requests for Catholic services to regiments and battalions visiting the Combat Center for training exercises.

Chaplain AMORA is a team player. Augmenting himself into the base Catholic religious activities, he has become actively involved in the life and community of the parish congregation where he:
 --Participates in the parish council and sacramental ministries.

Chaplain AMORA expands his interests into the civilian community providing valuable assistance to the only local Catholic priest being available on call" for masses. He is an active member of the Filipino-American community and serves as chaplain to their association and to the Marriage counter movement.

AMORA seeks to improve himself professionally and personally by:
 --Attending Military Ordinariate and Regional Pastoral and Diocesan Conferences.
 --Participating in Marriage Tribunal matters and by attending the Chief of Chaplains PDTG.
 --Attending a Special Military Course in Threat Training.

AMORA is physically fit conforming to the Navy PFT standards. He wears uniform with pride and is highly supportive of the Navy Equal Opportunity program. His warm personal counseling skills are appreciated by all personnel in the battalion.

Dear Editó:

Greetings of Peace!

Archbishop Ryan and I recently returned from Germany where we met with the priests stationed in Europe for the last of the 1985-86 Regional Conferences. With the Conference in Germany, the Conferences held in the United States during October and November 1985, and the Far East Christmas Visitation, Archbishop Ryan and I had a chance to meet 90% of the priests who completed the Orientation Course. Both of us are convinced that you and your fellow priests are working extremely hard to inculcate Christ's message of love and service to the Military world. Keep up the good work!

If we did not meet you personally at one of the Conferences or in one of the visits, you are greatly encouraged to write regarding any concerns, personal or professional, you may have. If we did meet with you, your comments and observations are most appreciated.

A new Orientation Class of ten is with us now. Six for the Army, three for the Navy and one for the Air Force.

We are almost up to full staff at our new location in Silver Spring. Things are going well, even though change is always difficult. The new members of our staff have blended in beautifully with those already experienced to form a real working team.

You have my prayers for your continued good health.

Dear Fr. John Curiffe,

Pax Christi!

Sorry, it's a kind of late to thank you and the staff for the great work you've done during the orientation class. Nevertheless, I would like to thank you all for everything.

For me, it was really a tough days to carry everything. And thanks God I'm here at the Chopkin School doing fine and hoping to succeed.

I am enclosing in this letter the active duty report. Again, I'm sorry for the inconvenience. I just know my permanent duty station recently.

Best wishes to all of you in the Military Archdiocese. May God bless you all.

Sincerely,
Rev. Edito Amora

Dear Father Amora:

On behalf of the entire staff of the Military Ordinariate I congratulate you on completing the Chaplain's Orientation Course. Your generous response to our efforts to supply priestly ministry to the members of our military family is deeply appreciated.

With this letter I am pleased to grant you the faculties of the Military Vicariate. These faculties will begin on the day you commence active duty and will perdure until they are revoked or until you leave active duty.

N.B. Our faculties will have to be reissued to you if:

- a) You return to inactive duty status in the reserve, or
- b) if you return to active duty from reserve status.

During the Orientation Course you received materials relative to various aspects of the operation of the Military Ordinariate and ministry in the Vicariate. Please keep these materials on hand and refer to them as needs arise.

The Vademecum contains regulations and procedures which are essential for your ministry in the Vicariate. We ask you to be sure to be familiar with its contents.

Please accept our prayers and best wishes as you prepare to serve God's People in uniform. Know also that we are always ready to assist you.

COMMENTS: (A summary statement evaluating the applicant is required. All extreme ratings marked by an asterisk (*) should be further commented upon in this page.)

Appeared confident, but not arrogant; Ordained 4/27/80, and served 7 mos. as parochial vicar; 3 years as pastor of parish of 19,000 people with 35 lay ministers. Very impressive. He speaks with an accent but has used English only a year regularly; but correct and precise. He is preaching for the home mission of Dipolog Diocese through the U.S. for the past year. He had no previous military but had four years of military classes in high school. He respects the individual's conscience and avoids proselytising. He does seem highly motivated for the Navy. Received bachelor degrees in philosophy and theology in the Philippines. He is an amateur sportsman liking basketball, volleyball and tennis. He looks like a good follower and listener so will probably be a good leader later with great potential. We spoke about the 3 years active/inactive contract and the indefinite nature of the commitment with the Navy afterwards. I definitely recommend him for acceptance on active duty in the Chaplain Corps; I would be very willing to work with him.

COMMENTS: (Supplement or qualify the motivation rating and potential as a career naval officer, as appropriate.)

He has been considering active duty for more than a year while in the U.S. Such persistence and determination speak well of his high motivation. His interest in things of the sea comes through well and I attribute his evident faith as the basis for wanting to serve people in new and varied ways in the Navy.

Amora, Edito Delmacio

7 May 1985

Father Amora seemed sure of himself but not arrogant. He was ordained five years ago and has served as parochial vicar in a parish for seven months and then as pastor of another parish for three years. This latter parish has 19,000 Catholics and he had no assistant except for 35 lay ministers to help in various areas. While such a crowd would seem to preclude Mass alone, he appreciates the need to maintain the close relationship with the Eucharist that is such a central part of his faith even when he has been alone travelling in the United States on the mission preaching circuit. His work with such a large parish is an impressive feat and speaks very well of his leadership ability. The potential must be staggering. Such an accomplishment also accounts for the poise and confidence that he exhibits so comfortably. He does speak with a noticeable accent but explains that he has been using English on a regular basis for only a year or so; however, he does use the language correctly and with precision. He is currently on the road throughout the United States preaching to raise money for the home missions of the Dipolog Diocese back home. While he has not had any previous military service, he did attend military classes for four years in high school. He spoke knowledgeably of the Vatican Council's Decree on Religious Freedom when we discussed the question of religious pluralism within the Navy and he recognizes the need to respect a person's conscience and to avoid proselytizing. He appears highly motivated for service in the Navy; that is the only U.S. service that recruits actively in the Philippines and he has been considering the decision to apply for active duty for the past year or so. He received his bachelor degrees in philosophy and theology in the seminary in the Philippines. He considers himself to be an amateur sportsman with a liking for basketball, volleyball, and tennis as well as golf. He impresses me as a good follower and willing listener so he will probably be a good leader later with great potential over the years. We discussed the 3 year active/3 year inactive duty expectation; he is aware of the indefinite nature of the commitment with the Navy after the first three years. I definitely recommend him for acceptance on active duty in the Chaplain Corps and I would be very willing to have him assigned with me. Finally, his experience in dealing with Buddhists would seem to be valuable as members of that faith community show up in greater numbers in the Naval service.

Very Reverend Gregory D. Vaughan
Chancellor, Diocese of Trenton

Trenton, New Jersey 08638-0147

Dear Father Vaughan:

On January 22, 2001 I received a report of an allegation involving Father Edito d'Amora, who is listed in the Kenedy Directory as being in the Diocese of Trenton.

The allegation was made by a high school senior in San Diego County, who told her high school counselor that approximately 8 years ago, she was fondled by Father Edito on 2 occasions. Father was a family friend. The two alleged incidents happened at his home in the living room while she and Father were watching TV. Father owned the home and the girl's family was renting the house from him. At the time Father Edito was serving in the Navy as a chaplain and assigned to a ship based in San Diego.

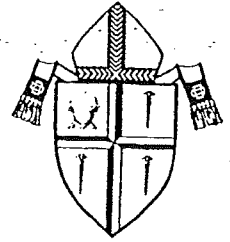

The high school counselor has filed a report with Child Protective Services of San Diego County. You may want to consult legal counsel to determine whether New Jersey law requires you to file a report as well.

Should you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at 858-490-8310. I will also send a letter regarding the allegation to the bishop of Father Edito's diocese of incardination, the Diocese of Dipolog in the Philippines.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Bishop Manguiran:

On January 22, 2001 I received a report of an allegation involving Father Edito d'Amora, who is listed in the Kenedy Directory as being in the Diocese of Trenton. I understand that Father d'Amora is an incardinated priest of your diocese.

The allegation was made by a high school senior in San Diego County, who told her high school counselor that approximately 8 years ago, she was fondled by Father Edito on 2 occasions. Father was a family friend. The two alleged incidents happened at his home in the living room while she and Father were watching TV. Father owned the home and the girl's family was renting the house from him. At the time Father Edito was serving in the Navy as a chaplain and assigned to a ship based in San Diego.

The high school counselor has filed a report with Child Protective Services of San Diego County. I have informed the Chancellor, Very Reverend Gregory Vaughan, of the Diocese of Trenton about the allegation.
