CONFIDENTIAL

FILE MEMO September 13, 1993

I called Bishop Daniel Walsh on September 3, 1993, regarding a call we received concerning a professional ethics complaint from his diocese. During that conversation, I informed him that Michael Cody of our archdiocese was living in the Reno/Las Vegas diocese, and was not allowed to exercise any form of priestly ministry. I told him that in the unlikely event that Michael requests faculties or assignment, the petition should be summarily denied. GLT/VG GLT
