MEMORANDUM

TO: Archbishop Murphy

FROM: Anthony Bawyn AB

DATE: 13 August 1993

RE: Fr. Michael Cody

Yesterday (Thursday) Fr. Thomas and I discussed the response that Fr. Cody sent me two weeks ago. It appears that he is doing pretty well in Nevada working with his brother.

We both wonder how advantageous it would be to insist that Fr. Cody start the laicization process. Perhaps it would be sufficient, after receiving an official opinion from both Pat Crowley and myself, for you to acknowledge the stability he is experiencing, restate the implications of his inactive status, remind him of what the assessment in Florida stated about therapy, and assure him that we would help him should he desire to change his status.

In light of the above, I am attaching both a copy of his letter to me and my draft letter for you. [REDACTED]
