

INTERROGATORY NO. 4: Have there ever been any complaints made against you regarding either alleged sexual misconduct or any other matter that reflected on your duties and responsibilities as a priest? If the answer is in the affirmative, please state:

- a) the nature of each and every complaint received;
- b) what was done to investigate these complaints;
- c) whether or not the complaints were reduced in writing;
- d) identify the person or persons having custody of the documents containing these complaints;
- e) identify the person investigating the complaint and the person making the complaint.

ANSWER: None, except the complaints raised by John Doe II.
