FILE NOTES; MAHAN CASE
Friday, October 21, 1994

Meeting: Frs. Flatley, McCormack, Neil Hegarty

Fr. McC received a call indicating that there is the possibility that some inappropriate behavior could have taken place during the summer when Fr. Mahan was on vacation with two adolescent boys from Don Bosco High School.

Fr. Flatley and Fr. McCormack will be in touch with Fr. Tom Brennan from Don Bosco who might be able to identified the alledged victims.

The process will call for a meeting with the parents prior to any discussions with the boys. Fr. Flatley and Neil H. to be involved in this.

Confidentiality will be protected at each step in the process.

The possibility of a necessary filing with the DSS was discussed. All appropriate actions will be taken as the case goes forward.

Fr. Flatley to discuss the case with Attorney Rogers.

Fr. McCormack to discuss with Msgr. Murphy.

Neil Hegarty to identify professional to be involved with the boys. All of these actions will proceed as quickly as possible.

Sunday/Monday: (CMH) I spoke with Mrs. Nancy Hoort, LICSW about her availability for a possible evaluation in this situation. Nancy has a B.A. in Psyc/Anthropology from U.of Michagan, 1976 and an M.S.W. from Boston College in 1980. She has twelve years experience with MSPCC, the courts, police and Distric Attorney's offices in assessment and treatment of victims of abuse. She is available to be involved in this case if it should go forward.

*I'll send keep some
