Dear John

To my embarrassment
the pastor mentioned that he hasn't received any "room and board"
money from the Boston Archdiocese. The agreement was $400 a month.

Not have I heard from Fred Ryan.

Not has personnel
published my new address despite 3
phone calls months
ago. Isolating.

2.
The media have found me and again pressure me for a story. I'm uncomfortable with not talking to them.

The Cardinal thought "a warm, dry climate" was the place for my allergies but it turns out the desert has a dust problem - and dust is my major allergy.

It seems penny wise but pound foolish not to provide medical

3
coverage for allergy illness. Almost 4 months of medical leave and no doctor, no medication because no money.

I have unpredictably
good days with my stomach and then ~~is~~, inexplicably bad days. Psychosomatic?
The only stress I have now, apart from what I've mentioned, is not knowing what will become → of me. I would have to explain to my parishioners what has happened and that would

precipitate the medical whirlwind. I think the best for all con-
-cerned is medical re-tirement and let me
do weekend supply.

John, I know how busy you are and I don't expect you to resolve any of the problems I've mentioned but neither do I want it said later:
"why didn't he tell us?"

I hope you have recovered enough to resume running cordially

Paul Stanley
