

ATTENTION! FAITHFUL CATHOLICS!

I call upon you to support the Bishop of the Diocese of Belleville, Edward K. Braxton, against the constant harassment directed toward him by certain members of such ultra liberal organizations as SIAP and FOSIL and other assorted liberal Catholics. Should their relentless campaign against legitimate authority within the church succeed; might the next target on their agenda be Pope Benedict XVI? Should you think that my suggestion is a gross exaggeration, just ask some of your most passionate liberal catholic acquaintances their opinion of our beloved pope.
