Re: A Response

Dear Fr. Vasile,

Christ is Risen!

I greet you today on the Feast of the Mid-Pentecost!

I have been instructed by His Beatitude, Metropolitan JONAH to communicate the following information to you. His Beatitude is bewildered by the nature of your recent postings.

Nevertheless, he is asking you to consider the following:

1. His Beatitude again extends to you an invitation to come to the OCA Chancery to meet with His Beatitude to discuss some of the issues that you have brought forward in your e-mails. We would need to arrange this meeting at a time that would be convenient to both Metropolitan JONAH and yourself.
2. His Beatitude would consider the possibility of assigning you to a parish if you would withdraw your lawsuit. (Perhaps this would be something that you could discuss personally with the Metropolitan when you meet with him.)

Sincerely, your brother in Christ,

Fr. Alexander Garklavs

Dear Fr. Vasile,

I have spoken to Metropolitan JONAH about the possibility of having you come to New York to meet with His Beatitude. The Metropolitan is, in principle, willing to meet with you here. I'm not sure if you are willing or able to come to New York, but do let me know if you are so incline. There are a few dates available in December.

I do not know the entire story of your case, but as I have shared with you: the fact that your attorney has subpoenaed Metropolitan JONAH last summer has made it very difficult for the Church. You will understand that there would be no willingness at all to meet with you, inasmuch as we have now spent over $20,000 in lawyers fees, simply to answer the matter that you initiated. Nevertheless, the Metropolitan is willing to meet with you, but only here at his residence in New York.

While Fr. Karlgut is no longer working here, we have a file with all of the communications that you sent here, as well as your clergy file. They are kept in a safe place.

May the Lord bless you and your family with patience and peace.

Sincerely,

Fr. Alexander Garklavs
