Dear Priors and Superiors,

The letter with this fax cover sheet is a personal letter from Aaron Joseph Cote, O.P. to all the brothers in the Province about his perspective of what transpired on Monday, November 23. Therefore, it is intended only for the brothers of the Province. In making Aaron Joseph's personal letter available to the brethren in your community, please make sure that it is not posted in a place where those outside the community could see it, so as to protect the personal nature of this communication. You may want to consider making copies and placing them in the individual friars' mailboxes. I ask you to shred the letter once it has been read by the community. No one is authorized to copy or distribute his letter further without his written authorization in each case.

The personal letter of Aaron Joseph to you is not in any way a statement of the Province of St. Joseph. We will send our Press Release on Provincial letterhead. The Province is facilitating the distribution of his letter to you so you can have it as soon as possible because it is a time sensitive matter.

Thank you for your attention in this matter and for your assistance to make known Aaron Joseph's letter. Please continue to pray for all involved, as you are already doing.

Faternally,

Brian Mulcahy, O.P., Vicar Provincial
