Archdiocese of Dubuque – Table of Accused Priests August 2013

Table of priests against whom public accusations of sexual abuse of minors have been made and/or lawsuits have been filed. They are listed chronologically according to the earliest time the sexual abuse occurred, according to the accusations. The name of the priest is included, as well as dates of birth, ordination, and death. In the "Comments" section, the time that the accusation became public is indicated. At the end of the table, there is provided an alphabetical list of the priests, with each priest's dates and places of assignments. The current status of the priest is also listed in that summary.

Being included in this table does not necessarily mean that the accusation has been proven in a court of law or shown to have occurred through an outside investigation or admitted to by the person accused.

An accusation was made against Rev. Nicholas Cigrand (deceased 1976) by a man claiming that he had been abused when he was a parishioner and altar boy in the 1960s. The accusation resulted in a lawsuit, which was dismissed by a district court judge in Dubuque County because the plaintiff could not provide evidence to support his claims. The case was then appealed to the Iowa Supreme Court. On April 13, 2007, the Iowa Supreme Court affirmed the district court's dismissal of the case and stated that "nothing in the records even suggests any abuse by Father Cigrand."

An accusation was made against Rev. Peter Graff (deceased 1976) by a man claiming that he had been abused when he was a parishioner in the 1940s. The claim was mediated and settled in 2013. The Archdiocesan Review Board reviewed all information developed by the Archdiocesan counsel and the counsel for the plaintiff, and was unable to offer a determination on the credibility of the allegation.

Regarding the case of the Rev. Michael Fitzgerald: In 2000 he admitted improper use of the Internet but denied sexual abuse of minors. One anonymous phone call claimed to know from a third party about sexual abuse of a minor, but the person making the accusation declined to identify himself or the supposed victim. Because of the media attention devoted to the matter, Father Fitzgerald resigned his position as pastor of St. Joseph in Marion, Iowa. He died as the result of a highway accident on October 2, 2001.

Other accusations which have been made against other priests (and which have been described as "credible") are not included for one or more of the following reasons: They have either not been sustained, not proven, not admitted to, or not adjudicated by a civil court or ecclesiastical process. In some cases the information came in connection with medical reports, which are governed by civil law restrictions, or from other sources for which church and/or civil law imposes restrictions. In a very few cases, the sacramental seal of confession was involved.
