Dear Cardinal George,

Queen of Angels Parish is in need of a permanent Pastor. In light of my being placed on administrative leave not permitting me to engage in priestly ministry nor to return to Queen of Angels Parish, therefore, unable to exercise the duties of Pastor and realizing the length of time the process for determining my future may take, in the best interests of Queen of Angels Parish, I offer my resignation from the pastorate of this Parish.

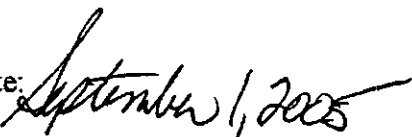

I do this mindful of Canon 528, 1 which reads:

A pastor ceases from office by removal or transfer carried out by the diocesan bishop according to the norm of law, by resignation made by the pastor himself for a just cause and accepted by the same bishop for validity, and by lapse of time if he had been appointed for a definite period according to the prescripts of particular law mentioned in Canon 522.

In accord with the norm of Canon 189, I, the undersigned Rev. William J. O'Brien hereby resign from the office of pastor of Queen of Angels Parish in the Archdiocese of Chicago, effective September 1, 2005.

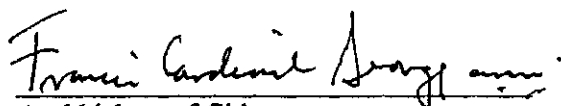

I ask your care for this grace filled Parish and people.

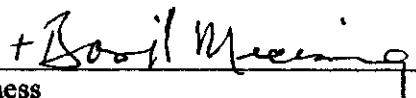

Rev. William J. O'Brien

Date:

ACCEPTANCE OF RESIGNATION

In accord with the norm of Canon 538, 1, I accept the resignation of the Rev. William J. O'Brien as the Pastor of Queen of Angels Parish in the Archdiocese. I recognize that he has done this because he is impeded from effectively exercising the office of Pastor.

RE: Parish Pastoral Intervention – Queen of Angels Parish [re: Rev. William O'Brien]

DATE: August 26, 2005

DO NOT COPY

As we reflect on the numerous meetings with parish staff members, Parish Council members and parishioners at Queen of Angels to update them throughout the process concerning the status of their pastor, Fr. Bill O'Brien, we wanted to share some comments and our own insights:

TEMPORARY WITHDRAWAL OF REV. WILLIAM O'BRIEN

When Fr. O'Brien was temporarily withdrawn in June, a group of archdiocesan leadership, that included Bishop Francis Kane, Frs. James Kaczorowski and Grace, and the two of us, met in the parish hall, first with parish staff members then immediately after with some members of the Parish Council. As you might expect, emotions were high. Most expressed shock and disbelief. Bishop Kane explained that he would read the prepared statement at each of the weekend masses and then be present to the people to listen, to answer questions and to comfort those seeking consolation.

Members of the Pastoral Council and parish staff were cooperative and expressed a willingness to be helpful during the stressful time. Some agreed to be present during the weekend masses to join with the Bishop in responding to the needs of their friends and fellow parishioners.

Memorandum – Queen of Angels Summary
8/26/05

AOC 004245

Assistance Ministry inquired about the needs Hispanic Community of the parish. We were told that the announcement would not impact the Hispanic Community. It was said that the Hispanic Community did not identify Fr. O'Brien as "their pastor."

Fr. Tom Lamping offered to inform the Hispanic Leadership of the turn of events and the plan for the weekend at their regularly scheduled meeting prior to the 12:30 mass on Sunday.

Per the principal's request, the school faculty was invited to, and gathered before, the Saturday mass to inform them of the situation prior to the public announcement (Ralph was present for this meeting). The purpose of the meeting of teachers was to prepare them to be present to their students in helpful ways on Monday morning...the last day of the school year before summer vacation. Assistance Ministry arranged for a psychologist/counselor to be present at the school on that Monday for faculty, students, and/or parents, as needed.

Reading of the Announcement: Saturday & Sunday, June 4-5, 2005:

Assistance Ministry and Bishop Kane were present after the Saturday evening mass and all of the Sunday masses the weekend of June 4-5, 2005. As Bishop Kane read the announcement, it was clear that parishioners were in disbelief. After the masses most parishioners spoke with either Bishop Kane or parish staff/council members who were present. Handouts and office brochures (in English and Spanish) were available for the taking at the back of the church.

On Sunday, Fr. Lamping met with the Hispanic leadership prior to the Spanish mass. Mayra was also present. Contrary to what we had been told, Hispanic leadership was very much affected by the announcement. They spoke warmly of their relationship with their pastor, Fr. O'Brien, and the hurt they were experiencing with the situation. They asked if there was anything they could do (i.e., testify on behalf of Fr. O'Brien) that might reverse the withdrawal. They then offered prayers of support for Fr. O'Brien. On hearing the letter being read during the 12:30 mass, many parishioners became emotional.

Between masses, the bishop asked to gather in the rectory to debrief. Some feedback was offered (i.e., that the letter/announcement was not pastoral enough).

During the days that followed, Assistance Ministry was in contact with the designated parish contact person, Mrs. Deb Madden. We reminded Mrs. Madden of the resources available to the parish community.

CARDINAL'S ACCEPTANCE OF REVIEW BOARD'S RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING WITHDRAWAL

A second parish leadership meeting took place on the evening of Thursday, August 11, for parish staff members and Parish Council members. Archdiocesan leadership present included Bishop Francis Kane, Frs. Patrick Lagges, Ed Grace, Vince Costello and Ralph. Most parish staff members and some council members were present. Fr. Heidenrich, Administrator, was also present for the meeting. Bishop Kane announced that you had accepted the Review Board's recommendation that Fr. O'Brien's withdrawal from ministry continue, and that the case was referred to the Congregation for the Doctrine of Faith.

Parish leadership had specific questions regarding the Canonical process. Fr. Lagges was able to address those questions with more clarity and competence. There was discussion about informing the parish family during the weekend (August 13-14, 2005) masses, and providing appropriate outreach. Parish staff /council members did not feel the need to be present after the masses, but suggested that the bishop and Assistance Ministry be available in an area more conducive for private conversations.

Following those suggestions, Bishop Kane, Assistance Ministry met with parishioners after each weekend mass to answer questions, hear parishioners' concerns and offer clarification of the archdiocesan and canonical processes. (Few parishioners took advantage of the opportunity.)

Dr. Susan George, psychologist, assisted parishioners in dealing with, and understanding, the emotions they were experiencing. Copies of Bishop Kane's letter (in English and Spanish) were available for parishioners as well. Those who did were supportive of Fr. O'Brien, and/or critical of the Archdiocese for its practice of "leaving priests out to dry". All were saddened by the new developments.

OTHER COMMENTS:

- Some parishioners expressed a wish that a new pastor be named as soon as possible to allow for further healing before the holidays.
- There was strong negativity against the Victim. Some parishioners accused him of "being in it for the money" or believing that he was part of SNAP and therefore couldn't be trusted. Some parishioners couldn't understand how you (and the Review Board) could withdraw Fr. O'Brien solely based on the fact that the Victim was able to identify the layout of Fr. O'Brien's private room (at St. Cajetans). When it was pointed out that the decision to withdraw was based on much more than "a memory" (or a knee-jerk reaction), people were reassured, and perceptions of some were modified.
- There is a vibrant Hispanic Community that appears to be treated as an auxiliary community. It appears they've not been integrated into the Queen of Angels Parish Family. Assistance Ministry draws that conclusion from the following:
 - The lack of consideration for the Hispanic leadership as shown by their absence from the meetings of parish leadership and staff, leaves us to question the willingness of the parish community/leadership to welcome and include Hispanics in the dynamics of parish life. It seemed as though the Hispanic Community are treated as tenants, renting space for worship, though it appeared that the most populated mass (if not the most vibrant) was the Hispanic Mass.
 - Neither the Hispanic deacon nor other members of the Hispanic Community was invited to the parish leadership meetings.
- Fr. O'Brien has many supporters in the parish. His wishes were conveyed/evident in the conversations that took place during the parish leadership meetings.

- Some parishioners expressed a distrust of the archdiocesan process calling it “duplicitous”.
- Bishop Kane was very generous to the people of the parish who approached him. We believe his pastoral and patient presence helped people to understand the seriousness of the matter, and at the same time to feel listened to and cared for.
- Fr. Lamping is directly responsible to minister to the large Hispanic Community; likely a larger task than any one person should be expected to shoulder.

Cardinal George, this is a diverse community with a lot of young families (English and Spanish). During our time at the parish, it has become rather clear that parishioners are anxious that their next pastor be able to carry on the momentum that Fr. O'Brien generated. The devotion of the staff (and some parishioners) has for Fr. O'Brien may prove to be a barrier to a new pastor in his efforts to achieve acceptance. Parish Council members as well as parishioners expect to be consulted in the process to name the new pastor.

Please let us know if you would like to discuss this further. Peace.

RE: Queen of Angels – Conversation with Bishop Frank Kane

DATE: July 19, 2005

Bishop Kane returned our phone call today. I informed him that you had wished to tell him that the Review Board had made a recommendation to Cardinal George regarding the Fr. William O'Brien matter. (The Cardinal accepted the Review Board's recommendation that there is "reasonable cause to suspect [that the priest engaged in the sexual misconduct of a minor].") Because of the acceptance by the Cardinal, Fr. O'Brien's status has been changed from temporarily withdrawn to withdrawn. Bishop Kane said that he would share the information with Queen of Angels' administrator, Fr. Robert Heidenrich, this afternoon with the caveat that Fr. Heidenrich keeps the information confidential until a plan can be developed to inform parish staff members and the parish-at-large.

On a related matter, much like Fr. Heidenrich had expressed in an earlier conversation, Bishop Kane is also concerned with Fr. [REDACTED] open opposition to the Dallas Charter and his rousing parishioner support for Fr. O'Brien's return. Bishop Kane plans to enlist Fr. Edward Grace's intervention with Fr. [REDACTED], but would appreciate whatever assistance we can provide as well.

Bishop Kane was appreciative of the information. We concluded the conversation agreeing to consult at the necessary time to coordinate efforts to inform the parish of the new development.

The Individual Specific Protocols (ISP) implement the primary goal of promoting the safety of minors. Additionally, the ISP protects the integrity of the Church and serves as a safeguard for individual priest or deacon. As long as the cleric is a client of the Office of Professional Responsibility, he will be subject to appropriate protocols, restrictions and monitoring under the authority of the Vicar for Priests and supervised by the Professional Responsibility Administrator (PRA). The agreement of a priest or deacon to abide by these protocols is not understood to prove the truth of any allegation and is not intended to be an admission of guilt for any delict or crime, whether in Canon Law, or State and Federal Law. This agreement represents the cooperation of the cleric with his bishop as he exercises his pastoral office (e.g., Canons 369 and 392).

This ISP for Rev. William O'Brien is as follows (PRA to initial all that apply):

1. The client is restricted from being alone with a minor or minors, that is anyone under the age of 18, without the presence of another responsible adult.

3. Continued regular Spiritual Direction with the suggested frequency of ___ times per week/month (please circle one) as recommended by _____ (name of spiritual director). Attendance to Spiritual Direction is to be reflected on "Clergy Daily Log" forms.

4. The "Clergy Daily Log" to be completed on a daily basis and co-signed by the monitor. The log is a tool that is used for the protection of minors, the cleric, the monitor and the Archdiocese. Although it identifies time periods, it is intended to provide a general record of the day rather than a detailed clock. If you are describing an off-site activity, please include your destination and the general purpose of the visit or activity. For example, it is enough to indicate that you did personal shopping at a given Shopping Center rather than the details of each individual store. However, if your self-description is challenged or a complaint is lodged with the Archdiocese, some documentation and verification may be necessary to sufficiently address the situation.

5. Abide by the assignment of residence to Cardinal Stritch Retreat House

- 6. ~~6.~~ Must complete and submit the "Travel/Vacation Agreement", and obtain concurrence with the Agreement, prior to a scheduled departure. In the event of a prolonged stay in a particular location, the Archdiocese is required to notify the Ordinary of that place of your presence there.
- 7. _____ Attendance at a recommended support group _____ (please indicate specific support group). Recommended frequency of _____ times per week/month (please circle one). Attendance at a recommended support group is to be reflected on "Clergy Daily Log" forms.
- 8. No inappropriate use of computers, software, Internet capabilities, communications tools or video technology. The standards articulated in the Policies and Procedures of the Archdiocese of Chicago and the Handbook For Archdiocesan Employees apply as they do to all Archdiocesan personnel.
- 9. No ministerial participation in the public celebration of the Eucharist or any other Sacrament or Sacramental without the prior, written permission of the Vicar for Priests.
- 10. Refrain from wearing any garb that would give the appearance of, or seem to infer, a priest/deacon who has canonical faculties and is currently assigned to some ministry (e.g., the 'clerical shirt').
- 11. On-site visits by the PRA and the VP annually to include a meeting with the cleric.

This Individual Specific Protocol is to be reviewed annually with PRA, VP, and the cleric. Also, there can be additional, written notations tailored to the needs of a specific situation which are signed by all parties and appended to this document. Any change or alteration to this agreement will involve consultation with the cleric, his monitor, the PRA, and the VP. The cleric, his monitor, the PRA, or the VP can initiate the discussion for change or alteration, or request that this Individual Specific Protocol be reviewed by the Professional Responsibility Review Board. At the discretion of any of the parties, the legal and/or canonical counsel of the cleric may be involved in the discussions.

I have reviewed, understand, and agree to all of these individual specific Protocols.

To be read by Most. Rev. Francis J. Kane, Auxiliary Bishop and Episcopal Vicar of Vicariate II, at Masses on June 4 - 5, 2005.

Dear members of the Queen of Angels Parish family,

I stand before you today with great sadness, because I have painful news to share.

Your pastor, Fr. Bill O'Brien, has been temporarily withdrawn as pastor of Queen of Angels Parish pending further inquiry and following an allegation received by officials of the Archdiocese of Chicago that he engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor. The sexual misconduct is alleged to have occurred approximately 25 years ago while Fr. O'Brien served as an associate pastor at St. Cajetan Parish in Chicago. This allegation has been reported to the Cook County State's Attorney.

The independent Review Board of the Archdiocese in its initial review determined that the matter warranted further inquiry and recommended that Fr. O'Brien be withdrawn from parish ministry pending this inquiry. Cardinal George accepted the Board's recommendation. Pending further review, Fr. O'Brien is cooperating with archdiocesan officials and now is residing in a monitored and restricted setting.

If anyone has additional information or a concern to raise regarding Fr. O'Brien, please contact our Archdiocesan Professional Responsibility Administrator directly at 1-800-994-6200. You may also contact the Office of the Cook County State's Attorney at 312-603-5440 or the Office of the Lake County State's Attorney at 847-377-3000.

This is very difficult news to share and even more difficult, I know, to hear. If there is more information about the situation to share, it will be shared.

For the time being, Fr. Bob Heidenreich, the area dean and pastor of nearby St. Benedict Parish, has agreed to serve as administrator for your parish. I have assured him and the rest of your pastoral staff that they shall have any additional assistance they need going forward.

May I ask that you join me now to pray for all people in need of the Lord's peace and healing: for the adult who brought this concern to the Archdiocese, for Fr. O'Brien, and for all those affected by the horror of sexual abuse.

Please know that Cardinal George is praying for the people of Queen of Angels Parish at this difficult time. Be assured that I shall also keep you in my prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Rev. Francis J. Kane

Questions regarding Fr. William J. O'Brien

DRAFT 4

Q: What is the nature of the situation?

A: Fr. O'Brien is accused of having committed sexual abuse of a minor male approximately 25 years ago when he was associate pastor at St. Cajetan Parish, located on Chicago's far southwest side. (If pressed to be more specific) To protect the privacy of the accuser, we cannot discuss the details of this matter.

In accordance with archdiocesan policies, the matter was considered by the independent Review Board of the Archdiocese, which, in its initial review, determined that the matter warranted further inquiry and recommended that Fr. O'Brien be withdrawn from parish ministry pending this inquiry. Cardinal George accepted the Board's recommendation.

Also in accord with archdiocesan policies, the allegation has been reported to the Cook County State's Attorney.

Pending further review, Fr. O'Brien is cooperating with archdiocesan officials and now is residing in a monitored and restricted setting.

Q: What is the status of Fr. O'Brien?

A: Fr. O'Brien has been temporarily withdrawn from ministry, pending further review of the situation, and is living in a monitored and restricted setting.

Q: Why is this withdrawal "temporary"?

A: It is temporary by virtue of the fact that the process is still ongoing...[if pressed]: The Review Board has advised that the matter warrants additional inquiry, and the final determination is yet to be made.

Q: When and how was the Archdiocese contacted about this matter?

A: An adult man first informed the Archdiocese in April, 2005, about the alleged abuse with Fr. O'Brien approximately 25 years ago when the accuser was a teen-aged minor.

Q: Where did the relationship take place?

A: To protect the privacy of the accuser, we will not provide such specific information. The relationship occurred during the period of time Fr. O'Brien served as an associate at St. Cajetan.

Q: Did the Archdiocese offer help of any kind to the accuser?

A: In accordance with the policy of the Archdiocese, the accuser has been offered assistance, which includes therapy and spiritual counseling.

Questions regarding Fr. O'Brien—2

Q: Have other reports of sexual misconduct with minors been made against O'Brien?

A: Yes. An anonymous third party made an allegation against Fr. O'Brien of sexual misconduct with a minor some years ago. This prompted an interview of the alleged victim, who, by that time, was an adult. The alleged victim denied that the allegation was true. However, in accordance with archdiocesan policies and procedures, the matter was reported to civil authorities.

Q: Has he ever been accused of misconduct with adults? What do you do when an allegation of adult misconduct is made against a priest?

A. Yes [there have been concerns re: adult misconduct]. [If pressed:] Out of respect for the privacy of those involved, we will not offer more information.

[As needed:]

Because we take charges of adult misconduct seriously, the Archdiocese has guidelines and procedures that include assessment of a priest's ability to continue ministry. Based on the findings, a priest can be placed on administrative leave, even be removed entirely from ministry, should circumstances warrant.

In accordance with the policy of the Archdiocese, the adults involved are offered assistance, which includes therapy and spiritual counseling.

Q: Why doesn't the Church reexamine the issue of celibacy and allow priests to marry?

A: Celibacy is a commitment freely chosen by those who are ordained priests of the Latin Rite of the Catholic Church. Sexual misconduct is not limited to celibates.

Q: How long has Fr. O'Brien been a priest?

A: He was ordained in May of 1973 and is 57 years old.

Q: Where has Fr. O'Brien served?

A: Prior to Queen of Angels, he served as first associate director and then director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. At that same time, he was an associate pastor at St. Cajetan. Previously, he served as an associate pastor at St. Symphorosa, Chicago. After ordination, he was first assigned to St. Jude the Apostle Parish, South Holland.

Q: Was the parish leadership contacted about the allegations?

A: Yes – earlier this week the parish staff and the parish council were informed of all this information before it was shared with the parish as a whole.

RE: Your Visit to Queen of Angels Parish

DATE: October 20, 2000

Several months ago Fr. Bill O'Brien and Bishop Conway each received a number of anonymous letters alleging that Bill had engaged in sexual activity with a female minor. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] After a time, the letters ceased.

Now the letters have resumed. As in the past, they allege Bill has been involved with an underage female.

I wish to assure you this matter is being carefully examined. [REDACTED]

The author of the anonymous letters threatens to bring this to your attention when you visit Queen of Angels. While I do not believe this will happen, I want you to know the threat has been made.

I will keep you informed as the situation unfolds. Please call me if you would like any additional information.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Kathleen Leggdas, Office of Professional Fitness Review Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Fitness Review, of a meeting with Victim AB, which took place on July 7, 2000. Victim AB reported that she had not been abused in any way by Rev. William O'Brien, nor had she voluntarily engaged in any sexual conduct with Fr. O'Brien, as alleged in anonymous letters received by archdiocesan officials.

Memo

To: Cardinal Bernardin
From: Rev. Patrick O'Malley
Date: 3/11/95
Re: William O'Brien

Fr. Canary and I met with Fr. O'Brien on Friday, 3/10/95. We discussed the points we had made with you earlier. We counseled Fr. O'Brien to speak personally with [REDACTED] to inform him of the past relationship to [REDACTED]. Fr. O'Brien said he has been thinking about that for a long time and has actually rehearsed it in his mind a number of times.

We all agreed that he should not do that immediately because [REDACTED] is going through a change of assignment right now and is under some stress. Our recommendation was that he do it some time after July 1. He agreed to do so.

Fr. O'Brien feels that he has in some ways made a statement to [REDACTED] about his relationship to [REDACTED]. It was not a straight out declaration, but he feels that there was an understanding.

We still feel that there is risk to the archdiocese here, but it is minimized somewhat if [REDACTED] knows the situation. As you know, this was our biggest consideration in terms of assigning Bill. You have talked about making him the administrator when Phil Dressler leaves Queen of Angels. That seems to be an acceptable step right now. Perhaps naming him the pastor after a decent interval once we see if there is any feedback on the appointment might be a way to go. There is no doubt in our minds that Bill could do a good job there.

Bill himself also indicated a concern about Phil Dressler. He seems to feel that Phil needs some encouragement from you at this time. But I know that he has communicated that to you already.

Memo to File

From: Rev. Patrick O'Malley
Date: 2/28/95
Re: Rev. William O'Brien

I spoke to Bill O'Brien today. He had called as a follow up to the letter he had received from the Cardinal. The Cardinal told him he would like to assign him as administrator initially of Queen of Angels, and then perhaps as pastor once Phil Dressler is reassigned. He did say that O'Brien should see the Vicars to clear up one more point.

We need to talk to O'Brien about his need to tell the [REDACTED] family or specifically [REDACTED] about his relationship with [REDACTED]. We feel that this is essential for the protection of both the Cardinal, the [REDACTED] family, and ultimately Bill O'Brien.

O'Brien was on a high because he feels that he is going to be named the administrator this time, and of course that is a good possibility. He asked whether he should tell Phil Dressler and I told him to wait until after we had talked and until he had a chance to talk to the Cardinal. I will call him on Monday to see when John Canary and I can see Bill together.

When I called back to set the meeting time at 3 PM on 3/10, Bill asked specifically what the purpose of the meeting would be. I told him what the topic would be.

When I spoke with Fr. Bill O'Brien several weeks ago about St. Dismas, he said two things about [REDACTED] was involved in the difficulty: (1) that he should be told about [REDACTED] and (2) that we must "preserve" [REDACTED] in the sense -- I think -- that we must let nothing happen to him.

I am not sure that I know exactly what he thought we should do. Did he speak with you about this? Do we need to do something?

Best wishes.

His Eminence,
Joseph Cardinal Bernardin
1555 North State Parkway
Chicago, Illinois 60610

Dear Joseph,

Please accept this letter, mailed in the United States through the courtesy of one of our Institute priests returning home early

Yes, things did not work out as we had hoped. Though a new place for ministry may not have been found, I want to thank you and all who advise you for the vote of confidence and care your efforts represented. That is the very positive memory which remains. Do not second guess what you attempted.

How do I feel? Tired. I write to you on a Tuesday morning. Last Thursday through Saturday were exhausting. First, the invitation to Waukegan out of the blue. Then moving more deeply into that prospect, followed by a most encouraging conversation with Bishop Goedert, and beginning the emotional process of leaving a place which has been very good to me. Quickly, all is in reverse.

Bad memories and regrets about past mistakes, and fears about all that could evolve come forward again. Through the years, I have attempted to prepare myself for whatever might come. Ready and non-surprised as I am when things do occur, they do hit hard, nonetheless.

Following your first call, it took a good deal of fast shifting to move myself towards Waukegan. I've never been too partial to Lake County, too much of a "city boy" with family and friends all there. So, the let down of not going there was not as great as it could have been had I completed the emotional move. But, I had made the move of this being the beginning of my gradual entry into fuller ministry. That will have to recede for a time.

I admire your words, "I have a feeling that this will end." You heard my response. Perhaps stemming from having first created the situation and then living with its aftermath for these years, my optimism is more questioning. That points out a basic difference between you and me. An Italian walks into a crowd and looks first for his friends. One who is Irish walks into a crowd and first looks to see if any enemies are present!

I would like to share with you three simple but important events which form the context in which this letter is written. First, on Saturday, we had a wonderful Day of Reflection led by a Benedictine monk. His themes: hope, God's forgiveness, conversion, reconciliation and always beginning new. Mike Wulsch and I both remarked, "He came to speak to me."

Second, just before Saturday dinner, the mail was passed around. I received two large brown envelopes filled with letters from my 7th and 8th graders. News of family, school, Confirmation classes and life in general. Some things were very personal. I wondered how they knew just what to write?

Third, last Sunday: Eucharist and lunch with the priests from Chicago at the Casa. What a wonderful and refreshing afternoon with "my own." The tide of unrest was beginning to turn.

The conclusion of my letter is this. I am at peace. Although I would have preferred to return home more relaxed, buoyant and serene as I had been up to a few days ago, the cloud has come again. But really, I know, all things have worked as they should: for my good, the good of the Church, the good of Queen of Angels and even for Phil Dressler's good.

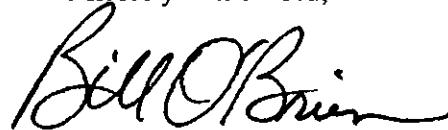

Perhaps Bill O'Brien reached another set of reconciliations, hopes and conversions in all this. Queen of Angels is my home and is where I should stay. Maybe Bill O'Brien will not be the Pastor of a so-called "plum" parish, as he and others have imagined. Queen of Angels has been more than good to me. it IS me - middle-income, city, active, all sorts of peoples, in transition, having its problems, deepening in faith and with a touch of class! Maybe Bill has been told that he has to put more effort into his Hispanic outreach. Maybe Bill has been told by his 7th and 8th graders to come home. Maybe they, even more than Bill's Archbishop, know where home is. And maybe Bill was told by a Benedictine monk to go home and begin new right there

And maybeare you ready to read four words I hardly ever say....Maybe, I was wrong! Queen of Angels might be where I should stay. And if Phil leaves as he wishes, maybe I could remain even as its pastor, if all is calm. Up to the time of your Waukegan call, I was already imagining what I could do with all I had experienced on sabbatical when I returned home. I love Queen of Angels It is home. And, I am happy to be going there.

Though you will receive this after Thanksgiving Day, I hope you had a great one. Mike and I will be at the Casa and I have much for which I am grateful. I will phone you when I return. This letter will help that conversation to be brief. I am going to Wisconsin for a few days, beginning December 2nd, prior to returning to the Parish. Just wanted to let you know how things are here. It was also good for me to put things into print for my own eyes to see.

With all personal best wishes and prayers, I am

Sincerely in the Lord,

P.S. Another positive result. I lost the weight you THOUGHT I had gained.

The day before I left for Rome, I spoke with you over the phone about a letter I had received from Bill O'Brien regarding his future. A copy is enclosed.

I told Bill what you suggested, namely, that he could be a pastor but that we were not prepared at this moment to tell him where or when. He seemed to understand that. I told him that after he returned from sabbatical, you, he and I would meet to review the matter.

Apart from his involvement, he is concerned about Phil Dressler and Queen of Angels. I do not know what has transpired since I left but this is something else we need to look into.

Many thanks.

Dear Cardinal Bernardini,

Best wishes and prayers that you are well. Please excuse this handwritten letter. My three week old computer has a hard-disk problem. I must entrust it to an Italian repair company! A small act of faith, I think. This accomplishes one goal: when I write, rather than format, I am briefer. So, sit down and read this only if you are relaxed. Options.

If the Directorship for Ethnic Ministries has not been filled, I apply. Advantages: I am not made a Pastor and remain at Queen of Angels in residence, part-time as Associate Pastor. My first directorship of the office was never announced in the New World. The same could happen here. Finally, do you have someone better? A three year term with the last year grooming a successor. The salary is split between Office and Parish: a help to Queen of Angels. Very low key, not as high profile as many jobs before. Down side: "it is 'downtown'".

Next, may I apply for Our Lady of Ransom now that Tom Dore is moving to St. Igle? Advantage: a parish that is not one of our most well known parishes. It has a growing Phellipine population whom I know and worked with in Ethnic Ministries. In fact, I am participating in the Asian Ministry Conference in Manila, January 9 to 21, 1996. It is a good parish, not wealthy, a large school which many tend to avoid. Disadvantage: I would be made a pastor and it is, put in the New World.

The next is shared in true confidence. Phil Dressler is going to apply for another pastorate (Team Jesus of Angels 1 1/2 years early) in January, 1975. He has had enough. I have deep feelings about where he is in ministry and the value of a change which he perceives, would bring renewal. Phil would like me to be made Pastor at 2 of Angels. Advantages: no move involved. Not so obvious. Disadvantages are two pronged. The first is that I don't, as a rule, like someone who is Associate to become Pastor. In my case, the world would be expected of me. The second downside is personal. Unless this is the only acceptable way (expedient) for me to become Pastor, I much prefer leaving 2 of Angels and truly starting a new chapter in life. I think you understand that. Once again, naming me anything has its risks.

Finally, don't just continue in "limbo" as you called it. My patience is still strong, but so is my desire to give what I know I can to the Church. The Review Board is "open to a pastoral" but only to another review of the situation at their December meeting. If you will kindly think about these thoughts and perhaps delay appointment if it's mentioned until then? In any case, if we are better candidates, move ahead without question.

Prayer & Friendship!

Dear Pat and John,

I hope this letter finds you both well. Just a brief reminder or question. As you know, I will begin Sabbatical on August 25, 1994. Are we to meet before my Sabbatical begins? As I understand, my position was to be reviewed at the Advisory Board's June and/or July meeting. It was my hope that I might have some focus for my future prior to my departure for Sabbatical. Please give a call or drop a line. Aside from this, I assure you that everything is going fine and I look forward to a time for study and further personal and spiritual development.

Dear [REDACTED]

I received your letter of April 2, 1994. [REDACTED]

As you indicated, Father O'Brien was involved with [REDACTED]'s family. That too is a painful issue. I hope it is all behind us at this time. Nevertheless, I need to assure you that Father O'Brien is not being considered for the office of bishop. I do not know where that rumor arose, but it is not true. It may be that someone hazarded an opinion that he would make a good bishop, but please accept my word that his name is not being submitted for that office.

Thank you very much for your congratulations concerning the allegations that were brought against me recently. It was a trying time for everyone involved but it seems to have worked out for the best.

I wish you and your family all God's blessings and grace. Please continue to pray for me and for all priests.

Re: Rev. William O'Brien

Fr. William O'Brien came to see John Canary and me today. When we had last met in May, we said we would get together sometime after September. O'Brien was to make a retreat and report back to us how things were going after that retreat.

He made the retreat late in September with Fr. Rich McCaslin up at the Jesuit Retreat House outside of Kenosha. According to O'Brien the retreat went very well and has been helpful to him in any number of ways.

I directly asked Fr. O'Brien whether he thought at this time he would ever act out again as he has in the past. He assured us that he would not, and that he had taken precautions in his personal life to see that those situations would be handled properly next time around. If they do occur, he says he is ready to respond to them in an appropriate manner. He wishes to remain a priest and knows that there will be a price to be paid personally for that. He is willing to pay that price.

We told him that we cannot at this time give him direct and specific information on what he will be eligible for in terms of assignments in the future, specifically, for the pastorate. He seems aware of this and finds it OK. He would however like to know what will happen at some point along the line. We did tell him that that was a question we would bring before the Advisory Board at the appropriate time.

We asked O'Brien directly whether there is anyone who could monitor him while in Rome. We felt this would be a concern of the Advisory Board. He then assured us that Fr. Mike Wulsch, a classmate and good friend who knows his entire situation, will be accompanying him. We told O'Brien that, once we have talked to Wulsch, he will be most acceptable to us as a monitor during O'Brien's stay in Rome. The Sabbatical will take place from Sept. '94 until Dec. '94 in Rome.

O'Brien seemed to be in a good place at this time.

4. Bill raised the question about his future. He would like to know if he will ever be a pastor. If his liability to the diocese is so great so as to prevent him from becoming a pastor, Bill would like to prepare for another type of ministry. Perhaps he would become a military chaplain. Perhaps he would become a teacher. Bill asked us to clarify the possibilities for his future.

5. Bill would like to have permission for a sabbatical. He would like to go to Rome. He has heard that this program is a strong one, and he would enjoy meeting people in Rome who he helped out while he was director of the Office for the Propagation of the Faith.

Re: William O'Brien

John Canary and I reviewed the letter from William O'Brien of April, 1993. You asked for some comments on this letter.

On December 2, 1992, we sent you a memo concerning a meeting that we had with O'Brien. At that time we talked to him about spending two years at least in the parish. He was to look into the possibilities of a fairly lengthy directed retreat as with an after-care program and a spiritual director as part of that ongoing program. There was no talk at that time about a sabbatical that would encompass theological study. The sabbatical that he outlines in his request to you is content-oriented and not a spiritual or psychologically oriented program. We would have opposed it since we felt he still needs to confront the root causes for his past behavior.

Bill was very open to that program at the time, more open than he would have been [REDACTED]

We have met only once with Bill since then. We should meet with Bill to go over our original plan and remove any misunderstandings.

We appreciate you sending this letter on to us from Bill. Bill knows he should be working with us and any request such as this should have gone through our office. It puzzles us as to why he keeps going to you first and does not follow the understood protocol that we had set up. At any rate, with your permission we will call Bill and sit down with him and go over this matter again.

Jay said he just kept his mouth shut.

2. I asked Jay to let me know again exactly what he was able to tell me without violating any confidence. Jay related three events:

A. About 11 years ago, while stationed at St. Jude's, this particular , who was a friend of Bill's

Bill forcibly assaulted this woman. He stripped her against her will and attempted to rape her. He spilled seed on her body. She hit him and escaped from him.

Jay said she also mentioned to the associate, Paul Seaman, something about the incident without identifying the person involved.

She eventually mentioned to Paul that the reason for her attitude was the fact that she had been attacked by a priest in the past, etc. She did not tell Paul the name of the priest.

B. Jay said that he also learned about Bill's relationship to through this same person and also through This same woman mentioned that there is a suspicion in the family that one of children is actually Bill's.

I asked Jay directly whether or not she ever said that there was a sexual relationship between and Bill. Although she never said that, that is certainly the suspicion, particularly since they really believe one of the children is Bill's.

Dear Bill,

I received your letter of October 9th. My immediate reaction is that discussing future assignments is premature at this time. Father O'Malley has just received the report [REDACTED] and I have not yet had time to go over it as carefully as I feel I must.

As soon as I have read the report, I will call and set up an appointment for you, Father O'Malley and myself to discuss all the ramifications.

I know you are eager to get moving in this matter, but the climate remains as tenuous as ever at this point. No settlements have been reached yet, as negotiations proceed painfully ahead.

Please understand my reluctance to make any definitive decisions right now. I am confident that, when we do have time to weigh all the factors involved, we will be able to come to some kind of reasonable resolution.

[redacted] That might be a problem as well.

O'Brien reminded me that the Cardinal had told him about his interview with [redacted]

[redacted] So there are some extraneous factors, whether true or false, which, if this whole thing comes out in the open, could become quite serious.

[redacted]

So the whole case is quite complicated. Bill O'Brien thinks that we ought to try to work out some kind of agreement with [redacted] lest he blow it, himself and others, wide open.

I had spoken to Ralph Bonaccorsi about getting hold of someone who might act as an intervenor. A third person, objective, who could sit down with us and [REDACTED] and figure out if there is any way that he can get the help that he needs without the Archdiocese looking like it's taking sides. Ralph gave me the name of a [REDACTED], Office # [REDACTED], Home # [REDACTED]. I will contact [REDACTED] and arrange a meeting between [REDACTED], [REDACTED], Bonaccorsi and myself to talk about the parameters and the way in which he might be of help in the situation. We need to make sure that he is not prejudiced in our favor or in any other way.

I told [REDACTED] that I would be getting back to him early next week after I get a chance to talk to [REDACTED] and make further arrangements.

they are part of the client-lawyer relationship. I will also cull O'Brien's record for the specific notes that might help the Cardinal get a better grip on this whole case.

One of my recommendations, after talking to Ray Goedert, is that Bill O'Brien should get his own lawyer. The Cardinal asked whether Bill ought to be removed from his high profile position and I said we needed to discuss that at the next Advisory Board meeting.

[REDACTED]

Bill did admit to both Tom and to Ray that he was "involved". He also felt he was injured by the relationship as was [REDACTED]

At the time, Bill was offered separate legal counsel but declined, feeling he would get that if needed. It was suggested that he resign at the time, but he refused to, saying that he would run his course at the Propagation of the Faith and leave some time in 1990 and then be re-assigned. Obviously that date went by. Perhaps his assignment was for a longer period of time. At least he appeared to be open to the possibility of leaving the Propagation of the Faith.

He was ordered not to have any contact with the [REDACTED] after this time and also to stay away from the south side.

I received a call today from Jack Powers, the pastor of St. Jude in South Holland. Jack spoke to me about a man named [redacted] phone [redacted] [redacted] is the husband of the woman whom Bill O'Brien had a relationship with. [redacted]

Jack listened to him and listened to his story. [redacted] told about how this had been brought to Ray Goedert's attention. At the time the Cardinal had agreed to see [redacted] if [redacted] desired to see him but he did not take the Cardinal up on this offer. Jack thinks that at this time it might be right for [redacted] to see the Cardinal. He seems to be talking about going ahead and exposing this whole situation to the newspapers. [redacted]

[redacted] I spoke to the Cardinal about the situation. He agreed to the following:

1. I will call [redacted] and offer the possibility of his coming to see the Cardinal along with me present.
2. I will then call Ken Velo to set up an appointment for [redacted]
3. Then I will be in on the meeting when we get together.
4. I will meet with the Cardinal before that to brief him on the details of this case as they have unfolded in the past.

I spoke to [redacted] and he is open to the meeting. I told him to expect a call from Fr. Velo. I then called Ken and he is setting up the meeting at this time.

William O'Brien

The Cardinal wanted a complete summary of where this situation is. He is very concerned because of the importance of Bill's position in his administration. Ray Goedert said he had sent a summary to the Cardinal the past week. For various reasons it had gotten delayed in the system.

The Cardinal checked and found it on his secretary's desk. He will read this file thoroughly and see what needs to be done. Bill has been honest with the Cardinal apparently although it was reported he has been seen at Sox games with a woman. He had been instructed by Jim Roache not to hang around south of Madison St. when this all first began to occur. Bill is not out of the woods yet in terms of liability.

I told Jay that the [redacted] incident and the [redacted] incident were known to me, but this first situation, which Jay called "rape", was new to me.

6. I told Jay that we were trying to handle the situation as best we could. 1. On the occasion of the Cardinal's Overnight, Bill O'Brien met with me to discuss most recent developments. He said that he heard from [REDACTED] recently that [REDACTED]

2. Bill also wanted me to know that the Sisters at the convent at St. Jude apparently have heard some conversation around the parish about the break-up of the [REDACTED] marriage and Bill's involvement. [REDACTED] said that the school principal made an off-hand comment to her about this. [REDACTED] lives at the convent, though she has no connection with the school or parish any longer. [REDACTED], as a friend of Bill's, mentioned it to Bill. Bill felt obliged to let Jim Roache and me know this latest development.

3. I asked Bill if he thought it was just old news being casually talked about or had something happened to bring this about? He was not sure and we agreed that he would ask [REDACTED] to probe a little further to see just what the source of the information was and how serious. I told Bill that if [REDACTED] uncovers something of consequence, I would appreciate it if she would call me. Otherwise, we can just let the matter drop.

4. I suggested that once [REDACTED], perhaps the pressure will be off [REDACTED] and Bill. But Bill said that's not how [REDACTED] operates. He suspects that [REDACTED] will contact Jim Roache and begin to demand money for the education of the children.

5. We also talked again about the question of Bill's staying in his present assignment. In view of the fact that to move him now would give the appearance of guilt, it was decided to just let things stand as is and we will await [REDACTED] next step.

My brother and I had dinner with [redacted] and [redacted] last night. While making small talk before supper, [redacted] happened to ask how the job was going. She said it must be very difficult. She then said, I suppose you have cases like that of Fr. O'Brien from St. Cajetan's. This really took me by surprise, as I hadn't the faintest idea that she would have had even an inkling of a problem. However, she mentioned that her son, [redacted], had said something to her about it. At least he must have said enough that made her wonder why Fr. O'Brien doesn't leave the priesthood, since this apparently wasn't the first problem of this kind. I really didn't respond and someone else invited to dinner came in right at that moment so the conversation ceased.

[redacted] is the vice-president of the firm at which [redacted] is employed. [redacted] undoubtedly has unloaded his story on [redacted]. He must have also told him about the wedding of their mutual boss, [redacted]'s daughter. According to [redacted], Fr. O'Brien was going to say that Mass but was ordered not to do so. This is not quite the way Bill told Jim Roache, but it could be that [redacted] garbled up the situation, too. I don't intend to do anything about this information. It just makes me realize that more and more people are going to be aware of Bill's problem.

I have just received a progress report and some recommendations concerning reassignment from Tom Ventura. Let me first express my appreciation to you for your straightforward and cooperative attitude in dealing with a difficult, painful and embarrassing situation. I think that the attitude of [REDACTED] has also been significant in the resolution of this matter.

[REDACTED]

Concerning reassignment, I have made these decisions:

- 1) I will ask the Personnel Board to assist me in reassigning you as a resident preferably in a parish in the northern section of the Archdiocese.
- 2) I think it would be wise for you to remain in your present position as Archdiocesan Director of the Propagation of the Faith until June 1, 1986. At that time, I will ask Tom Ventura to evaluate the situation with you and recommend either: a) that you continue until the completion of your term, or b) that you be reassigned to full-time parish ministry.

If there is need for any additional information or clarifications, please feel free to ask. As always, I would be happy to discuss these matters with you.

Again, Bill, I want to express my appreciation for your cooperation in this difficult matter. I will continue to remember

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, of Victim AA's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on May 23, 2005, formalizing his allegation of sexual abuse against Fr. William O'Brien. According to Victim AA's statement, he sought counseling with Fr. O'Brien when he was 16 years old. Victim AA reported that Fr. O'Brien invited him to his room at St. Cajetan's rectory and after a couple meetings, engaged in mutual masturbation and oral sex with him. Victim AA also stayed overnight in the rectory at St. Cajetan on more than one occasion. Further, Victim AA identified the names of two other priests who were assigned to St. Cajetan at the time he was being abused. According to Victim AA, one of those priests observed Victim AA on one occasion exiting Fr. O'Brien's bedroom where the door had been closed. Victim AA reports that Sexual abuse occurred on multiple occasions between Victim AA's sophomore and junior year.

Meeting

Rev. John Collins made arrangements with the former Rev. William O'Brien to meet at the Vicar for Priests office at 1:30 pm on January 21, 2010. Mr. O'Brien arrived just prior to the 1:30pm start time.

I presented Mr. O'Brien with a copy of the transcript of my November 17, 2009 meeting with , where  formalized his allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor against him. I also gave Mr. O'Brien a packet that contained copies of information pertaining to the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review, the professional investigation firm used by the Archdiocese of Chicago, and a copy of archdiocesan policies (§1100 Sexual Abuse of Minors: Policies for Education, Prevention, Assistance to Victims and Procedures for Determination of Fitness for Ministry).

At Mr. O'Brien's request, I read to him excerpts from the aforementioned transcription where  spoke of how he first met the former Fr. O'Brien and described the alleged incidents of sexual abuse that took place.

After I read from the transcript, Mr. O'Brien stated that he would make a response in writing within 14 days of our January 21st meeting. Mr. O'Brien informed Fr. Collins and me that he would like to keep the mailings to him from my office to a minimum, citing his family as the reason. It was agreed that any letters/documentation from my office would be addressed and sent to Mr. O'Brien in care of Fr. Collins. Fr. Collins will then call Mr. O'Brien to let him know when there is mail for him from my office to be picked up from the Vicar for Priests Office.

Fr. Collins and I again thanked Mr. O'Brien for his time. It was agreed that Mr. O'Brien would call Fr. Collins with any questions or concerns.

After Mr. O'Brien left the meeting, I asked Fr. Collins if he knew what Mr. O'Brien meant when he associated his family with receiving mail from my office. Fr. Collins expressed his belief that Mr. O'Brien lives in a building with some of his family members.

Dear Leah,

As told you yesterday, I believe that I have some knowledge of [REDACTED] who is bringing an allegation against Bill O'Brien. During the [REDACTED] school year I was [REDACTED] for a student named [REDACTED] at [REDACTED]. I recall [REDACTED] making frequent references to [REDACTED] Father Bob Stepek, who seems to have been a very important person in [REDACTED] life. I believe that Bill O'Brien and Bob Stepek both served at St. Symphrosa Parish around the same time. I don't recall how many years [REDACTED] was a student [REDACTED].

[REDACTED]

During his freshman year [REDACTED], I do not recall him ever making reference to being sexually abused by the former Father Bill O'Brien or by anyone else. That's pretty much all I remember.

MEMORANDUM

To: Rev. Edward Grace, Vicar for Priests

From: Leah McCluskey, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review

Re: O'Brien, Rev. William [Resigned]

Date: November 19, 2008

On November 17, 2008, I called and spoke with Rev. Vincent Costello about the attached anonymous letter concerning the former Rev. William O'Brien in your absence. After reading the attached letter to Fr. Costello, it was agreed that I send the original letter to you.

Due to the fact that the anonymous letter does not reflect any new allegations of the sexual abuse of minors against Mr. O'Brien, I am sending this to you for your information and handling. I am wondering if the Office of Catholic Schools should be involved at some point in time if the statements in the letter are true, but I will leave that decision to you.

If I could be of any help with this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Apparently he is working for Chicago Joe's (Restaurant) ^{IRVING} ^{WESTON}
Apparently his friendship with the school principal is more important than the safety and well being of our children.

Several of us are shocked!

Several of us are worried!

We do not know him.

MEMORANDUM

To: Leah McCluskey
CC: Fr. Jim Kaczorowski
From: Ed Grace
Re: William O'Brien (Resigned)
Date: November 25, 2008

Leah,

On November 19th you sent over an unsigned hand printed letter concerning the presence of Bill O'Brien in Queen of Angels School, apparently in the role of delivery person for a local restaurant. On Saturday, November 22nd, I brought this to the attention of Fr. Jim Kaczorowski, the pastor of Queen of Angels. (Jim is, of course, fully aware of the circumstances of O'Brien's removal from ministry.)

Jim informed me that he was already aware of the incident and had addressed it directly with Bill O'Brien. Jim had been informed of Bill's presence at the School by irate parishioners who had seen Bill. That same day, Jim contacted Bill and informed him that he could not be on parish premises of Queen of Angels, even as a delivery person. Jim informed me that Bill understands and accepts this restriction.

In addition, Fr. Kaczorowski informed the school principal that O'Brien was not allowed on the school premises, even as a delivery person. Jim also informed the parish school board of O'Brien's presence in the school and the steps Jim had taken to prevent a recurrence.

Finally, Jim also informed the Regional Vicar, Bishop Kane, of the incident and his steps.

It seems to me that this was an appropriate response. If you have any further thoughts, let me know.
