Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note of June 23, 2007 in response to your letter of June 18, 2007, regarding the matter of Reverend Thomas Job, a priest ordained for the Archdiocese of Chicago who resigned from priestly ministry many years ago, and the allegations of sexual misconduct that were made against him by This matter was discussed in a Review for Cause by the Review Board at their meeting of June 16, 2007.

I accept the Review Board's determination that there is reasonable cause to suspect that this misconduct occurred. Since Thomas Job has already resigned from ministry and his faculties have been removed, any further action on my part to restrict his ministry would be superfluous. I ask that our Assistance Ministry continue to provide any appropriate outreach to as might be needed.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Mr. Thomas Job

Dear Tom:

Thank you very much for your very moving letter of October 31, 1991, resigning from the active priesthood. I appreciate the fact that this decision was reached only after deep soul-searching and was made with great regret.

It is with a sense of sadness that I accept your resignation, effective immediately. I agree that this is the wisest course of action for you to take. Allow me to thank you for the many years you served the Church as a priest. Many people benefitted from the ministry you exercised on their behalf.

It is gratifying to know that you have found considerable satisfaction in your work as an alcholism counselor. Undoubtedly this will continue to allow you the opportunity to share your gifts with a generous heart.

Tom, in my celebrations of the Eucharist, I will be including you in a special way. You can be assured that you are remembered in my prayers and I thank you for yours.

With cordial good wishes, I remain

Dear Bishop,

It is with great sorrow that I write this letter of resignation from the active priesthood in the Archdiocese of Chicago. But after much soul-searching this past year and a half, there seems to be no other alternative. The very last thing I want to do is submit my resignation, but equally, I do not want to become any more of an embarrassment to the Church than I already am.

You very graciously dealt with me and my situation some years ago. Andy McDonagh has been a guiding light and a great strength to me over these years. Andy suggested that I enclose the original letter I was going to send to you and one that I wrote to him so that you might better understand that this is not a sudden decision.

But the events of the past six months have brought so very much turmoil and emotional upheaval back into my life that I had to reach some definitive decision.

I truly feel that God has called me to the priesthood. I also truly feel that, through the Church, God has called me to a ministry in the field of addiction which I have pursued with Andy's encouragement. I will continue to work in this ministry, both full time as an employee of a treatment center and on a volunteer basis at St. Catherine's Benet Lake Center and Interventions.

I had dreams of being able to use my talent in this area to benefit the diocese and to assist Andy in his work, but it appears as if God has other plans for me.

I ask for your prayers - and you certainly are assured of mine. I will miss administering the sacraments, but find comfort that perhaps what I do today will help bring about my own salvation.

Respectfully yours,

Thomas J. Job

Tom Job is currently working in Lake County Alcoholic Center becoming a certified counselor. I feel this is a good ministry for him. I suggested he look into living at Benet Lake monastery. Jack Gorman says he will have a hard time finding some priest to take Tom into a rectory. Ray Goedert wants Tom in a religious house because he is rightfully concerned about the issue of supervision.

Tom Job was informed about possible publicity of his past because of the Dillon actions preparing for trial. Dillon is in contact with a Dominican priest who was dealing with the boy and family in which Tom was involved. Tom was never charged. Tom is very depressed by this new sequence of events. Tom wants to remain a priest. I'm not ready to ease him out yet. The Cardinal thinks Tom should not be in a parish.

RE: Tom Job

The following is an account of events regarding Fr. Tom Job on Monday and Tuesday, June 16 & 17, 1990.

- 1. Over the past few weeks (May 18 was my last appointment with Tom) a letter was to be sent to the pastor, Fr. Bob Fitzpatrick, and to the associate pastor, Fr. Job, indicating a change of pastoral status for Fr. Job from Pastoral Associate to Pastoral Resident for 2 reasons:
- 1) Fr. Fitz had indicated that he couldn't afford Fr. Tom as an Associate and there was an issue of jealousy.
- 2) Fr. Tom was going to take a job with Lake County as an alcoholism counselor. (Fr. Tom has been doing volunteer work at an outreach alcohol center at Benet Lake -- an outreach of St. Catherine's Hospital in Kenosha). I have been encouraging Fr. Job to move eventually into this ministry full time. I so reported this to the Vicar for Priests and Personnel Board. Fr. Job was gone on vacation and I could not resolve a point that Bishop Gorman, the Vicar, raised -- namely that Fr. Tom was going for training initially with Lake County until November. What would Fr. Job's status be then. Before Fr. Job went on vacation he called to tell me that he had talked to the pastor and it was agreed that he stay on as associate without pay. In order to clarify the situation I asked to meet with Fr. Fitz after-talking-to him on the phone and also Fr. Job on Monday, July 16, at 9:30 at Lake Forest Oasis. In this preparatory conversation with Fr. Fitz, Fr. Fitz requested a sentence be put in the letter saying that the original arrangement of Fr. Job's appointment be once more mentioned.
- 2. On July 16, around 7:45 A.M., Fr. Job left a message on my telephone recorder that the meeting at 9:30 was being cancelled, that he was leaving St. Bede's that day, that he was going to send a letter of resignation to the Cardinal, that he had not disgraced the Church, that he was going to take a week or two off and that he would call me later in the week.

I tried to reach Fr. Tom on the rectory phone and his private phone to no avail. I then called Fr. Fitz who confirmed the telephone message. Fr. Fitz seemed to be upset. There were interruptions on the phone. Fr. Fitz said he was helping Tom pack and would talk to me in the afternoon. Actually, he called me back shortly. We talked for a long time. Fr. Fitz seemed guarded in his comments. He talked about Fr. Tom teaching in the school (about 1½ hours a week). Fr. Fitz said he himself was always there at the same time. He said boys were visiting Fr. Tom in Fr. Tom's house (which incidently is in St. Bede's parish -- a house Fr. Tom has had for many years with Tom Franzman).

He said he know of some boys who have stayed overnight. He said he talked to Tom about this situation 3 months ago and that maybe Fr. Tom should consider leaving. He said he wanted to have the meeting with me about the letter of appointment because he wanted to make sure the sentence about "special arrangement" between Fr. Fitz and Fr. Job be re-emphasized. I asked him how he knew the kids were visiting. He said he knows without amplifying his remarks. We agreed to meet after Quinn Corcoran's funeral in Waukegan the next day.

3. Fr. Fitz and I met for about 50 minutes in I.C. Rectory in Waukegan after the funeral. We went over most of the material treated in the telephone conversation on Monday. I felt Fr. Fitz was much clearer or at least I seemed to get a better grasp of the concern that Fitz had. He said he has been worried about this much more than his other problems. He said he questioned the mother of one of 3 boys who he thought stayed overnight. The mother confirmed the fact. He said he heard other boys talking among themselves about being at Fr. Tom's house. Fitz told me he confronted Fr. Tom last Friday morning about raising the issue of "the arrangement" at our Monday meeting. I presume this panicked Tom who over the weekend must have made his decision to leave here. Fitz and I talked briefly with Bishop Gorman.

Interview with Tom Job- 10:50 - 12:05 P.M. Re:

Tom Job came to see me at my request. He was pretty disturbed after getting my call last week.

I reviewed my relation with Tom Job. I first saw him professionally during 1976-77-78 at the request of Fr. Richard Keating, at that time Chancellor of the Archdiocese, because of inappropriat behavior with some childred in Northlake. The monthly meetings were terminated in early '78 as there did not seem to be any reason to continue (This was mistake - we (Tom and I) agreed today because if we had continued he feels that events in 1983 would not have occurred.

, agitated by some recent I explained that personal problems at St. Cletus, once more raised the issue of whether or not T.J. was getting professional help and supervision in his present assignment. I told him how reviewed those years of difficulty with

She told me about finding a letter of apology from T.J. which he had while residing at

(T.J., today, 1) claims he never wrote such a letter, 2) that he called at the insistance of T.V. for purposes of personality growth to apologize for his (T.J.'s) behavior 3) that he never talked to after that 4) that attempted to reach him (T.J.) on the phone at late hours.)

I explained our concern for T.J. and the Archdiocese, how easy it is for people to sue, how vulnerable our priests are in these kind of situations and how it can pop up anytime. This is the reason that the representative of Archbishop (in this case Vicar of Priests' Office) have contact with supervisor in the event any charges are filed or litigation develops.

T.J. also gave me permission to check with Fr. Fitzpatrick, his pastor. I also advised T.J.:

· 1. 5 / 图示 1/2 / 2/2 /

- Diocese administration has obligation to monitor anyone who has had this kind of problem.
- 2. Attorneys constantly remind us if there was to be a relapse civil authorities would want to know exactly what kind of supervision there is for a previous violator.

I constantly advised T.J. during the interview that we are trying to care for him and the diocese and people involved.

We discussed my desire to develop a group for people who are having difficulties in this area and T.J. offered to help.

I related to him my relationship and conversations with John O'Donnell and Jim O'Connor and their questions about T.J. These conversations were not pursued by me bacause no deeper questions were presented.

T.J. said he was more comfortable about this visit. He is leaving for Europe on Friday with Tome Franzman.

I am on for calling her back One of the reasons it took so long before we got together was due to the telephone problems in the Western Suburbs last month.

Re: Father Thomas Job/Interview with Father James O'Connor

Date: March 4, 1987

Today I met with Father James O'Connor, pastor of St. Joseph Church in Libertyville.

Jim said when Tom Job was transferred to him, Jim received an anonymous letter saying, "Watch out for Job. He plays with boys and he steals from the collection."

Fr. Frank Gill, was staying with Jim. When he saw all the teenage boys going up to Job's room he asked Jim, "What is going on here with Job and these teen-age boys?" Jim called Tom Ventura who suggested that Jim confront Tom about it. Jim did. Tom denied anything was wrong, but the boys didn't come up anymore or if they did it was always in groups.

Tom always claimed to have inherited a fortune from his parents. He was an only child. He certainly has had a rich lifestyle. Frequent first class trips all over the world; a lot of money poured into a Fox Lake home; membership in an expensive hunt club, etc.

For the last three years, Jim O'Connor has been keeping track of the collections. When Tom is away in June and July the collection jumps about $2,000 per Sunday and the percentage of loose money jumps to 6%-14% of the total collection instead of 2%-3%.

After their parish pledge drive, Jim showed these figures to Tom Hanrahan who said "Something funny is happening with your collection. Keep an eye on it."

Jim started using money bags with a key and two weeks later a combination lock and the collection shot up again.

Job is leaving the parish in June. Supposedly he told the former principal at Carmel High School, Father Greg Klein, "When I leave St. Joe's, I'll retire."

Andy,

Here's the copy of the letter I've sent the Cardinal resigning from the priesthood.

I apologize for not getting it out sooner - but it was a difficult one to write.

You asked me to remind you about extending my car insurance. At our last meeting you also asked if I was interested in going on for further education. After giving that some thought, I feel I will probably pursue a Masters in Social Work which would be most beneficial in my ministry.

It is important to me that we keep in touch. Let's meet soon.

Even though the behavior referred to occurred some 12 years ago, it could be a source of interest to some people. Tom has been

3. We talked about his letter of resignation which he wrote in January of this year. He still would like to remain in the priesthood and is willing to give the St. George Rectory a try. He said he has renewed efforts to get off on Tuesday night and expects to be at next week's meeting. He could talk then about the St. George living situation.

4. After our Advisory Committee Meeting last Saturday, , I did not stress the actual opening date with Tom. He knows about it. If he follows through with we will move on from there. If he doesn't, it seems there is no other choice than to accept the resignation. I do think we should try to provide some appropriate residence if it is at all possible.

Cardinal Joseph Bernardin Archbishop of Chicago

Bishop,

I would like to preface this letter with the comment that I have always wanted to serve as a priest of the Archdiocese, and that I still do. However, circumstances have led to my attached offer, should you decide to accept it, of resigning from the active priesthood.

You have been aware for years of my personal problem. I can only reiterate my sorrow over the embarrassment I have been to the priesthood and to the Archdiocese. I have done everything I knew how to do to rectify the situation and to keep it from repeating.

have complied with every request made upon me by the diocese have been seeing and until last July, serving in St. Bede Parish in Ingleside (where you graciously assigned me at my

In July, I left the parish - without permission. The living conditions had become intolerable and unhealthy for me - to the point where depression was becoming a very serious issue again. I made the decision to leave because I felt my mental and emotional stability was threatened. In my twenty plus years of serving the Archdiocese, I have had only two assignments that were supportive, where communication within the Rectory was existent and good, where the priests living together were not threatened by the talents and expertise of the others but instead worked together, and where there was a genuine desire to serve the people of the parish. This was sadly missing from the rest. In no way do I blame others for what existed - for I was as much a part of this as the others. Since leaving St. Bede, I have been living by myself in my own home and working as an addiction counselor, preparing for my certification examination. This work was entered into with your permission and with Andy McDonough's encouragement.

I see this work as a calling from God - a new direction of ministry for me which accomplishes a number of things. I have always felt that God puts us in the right place at the right time. This work, and leaving the parish when I did, allowed me to get away from the temptations that regular parish life made present to me. There was no more involvement with children, parish families, parish schools. I was able to cultivate creative, supportive, mature adult friendships. My goal and hope was to eventually assist Andy McDonough in his ministry serving the special needs of the priests of the archdiocese. A hope which I see slowly fading away.

Whatever I have done in the way of ministering as a priest I have done well. I am an untiring worker who loves challenge. I have thrown myself into this new ministry in the same manner - educating myself, working with individual priests whom I've met through my work, intervening in the lives of the laity to help them _______. I have no doubt that I could benefit the priests of the diocese in many ways -

But I have come to an impass. I have come to realize that I will never be trusted to function without supervision and that I will never be fully accepted as a "normal" priest again - whatever that means. I'm sure that the legal department of the diocese would rejoice over your acceptance of my resignation - and I truly can understand why. My unresolved conflict is that I am being told I must reside in a rectory or religious institution. This is for my own 'safety' and that of the diocese liability-wise.

I also need to feel that I have some control over my life - I'm forty-six years old.

I ask that you consider some compromise that would permit me to continue ministering as a priest of the Archdiocese in what I see as a healthy atmosphere. I am most willing to continue working with and for Andy McDonough, work on weekends. I have no doubt that I am healthy enough to minister to the unique needs of fellow-priests. But I need to maintain my own dignity and self-esteem, which I have worked long and hard to regain. If no compromise is possible, than you have my formal letter of resignation attached. I would appreciate it if you would let me know of your decision through Andy.

Speaking of Andy - you have a tremendous asset in this priest. I cannot praise him enough for his compassion, empathy and devotion. I leave with you the advice given me by my Deacon-pastor, Monsignor Peter Meegan: "a good pastor ministers to the needs of his staff, and because he does that, his staff takes care of the parish". Take care of Andy - he's one of a kind and your priests need him!

Yours in Christ,

Thomas J. Job

RE: Rev. Tom Job

1. I received a telephone call from Tom Job this morning about 8 A.M. on the recorder that he and Fr. Bob Fitzpatrick were cancelling their appointment with me at the Lake Forest Oasis on the Tri-State Toll Road scheduled for 9:30 A.M. Fr. Tom said he never disgraced the Church. He said he was sending in a letter of resignation to Cardinal Bernardin today and moving out of St. Bede Rectory in Ingleside. Tom sounded very agitated.

- 2. I tried to call him on his private line but to no avail. I contactd Fr. Bob a short time later and he, Fr. Bob, confirmed the fact that Tom was leaving the parish. I talked to Fr. Bob two or three times this morning about the situation.
- 3. The reason I had for meeting with the two of them this morning was to work out the wording of a letter of appointment for Fr. Tom to change from being Pastoral Associate to Pastoral Resident while in a training program for the Lake County Health Center -- Alcohol Division. My theme with Tom in recent months: become an alcoholic counselor and make this your full-time ministry for the future. He was amenable to that.
- 4. Bob Fitz saw the meeting this morning as an occasion to insert a sentence in the letter of appointment: that the original arrangement for Fr. Job at St. Bede be maintained and stressed. In a long, rambling conversation Fr. Bob said he has been very concerned the last 3 or 4 months about Fr. Job's behavior in the parish with the children. He talked to Tom about considering leaving St. Bede in view of the fact that Fr. Tom was having children at his home in the parish. Some parents told him about their children visiting there. There were no complaints, however. Fr. Bob has been becoming increasingly uneasy about the situation. Fr. Tom has been in the school for an hour and a half once a week. Fr. Bob has always been there. This has been going on since last September.
- 5. Fr. Bob told Fr. Tom he did not like the idea of kids being at his (Fr. Tom's) home. Fr. Tom did not deny that. Kids are there over night. Fr. Bob would only say that he knew these facts to be true. He never disclosed how he knew this.
- 6. Fr. Bob explained how he invited the Filipino priest in to live. This priest says Mass every morning -- first Mass -- thus making it easier on Fr. Bob and Fr. Tom. Fr. Bob says he is aware of the Filipino priest's background. Fr. Bob does not know how long the Filipino priest will stay.
- 7. Fr. Bob has invited Fr. Jasinski from St. John of God to come and be an associate there. Fr. Bob sort of expected Fr. Tom to leave the parish and was pleased this would happen because he has been very worried and wanted to be sure to have someone.

8. Fr. Bob has written a letter of resignation and was thinking of sending it in to the Pastoral Center the 2nd or 3rd week. I am to see Fr. Bob after John Corcoran's funeral in Waukegan tomorrow. I have tried to reach Fr. Job but to no avail. I left my number.

RE: Thomas Job

1. Bob Fitzpatrick, the pastor of St. Bede's, called (). Bob said that he was quite willing to accept Tom Job as a resident and he wondered whether he would be receiving a letter to this effect. He would like to put something in the bulletin so that it was clear to the people that Tom would no longer be available on a full-time basis.

2. I told Bob that I would speak to Andy McDonagh about this. I then called Andy and he said that he would think it through and get back to Ken Velo with a suggested letter for the Cardinal. I thought it would be important for the Cardinal's letter to Tom and to Bob that it in some way expressed granting of permission for him to function as a counselor for Lake County with residence at St. Bede. I did not think the Cardinal should be put in the position of making an appointment to the Lake County Counseling Service.

Fr. Tom reported that he has lost over 50 lbs. (down to 290) since he has been on the Jenny Craig diet. He also reported since he developed a resume for job as alcoholism counselor with the Lake County Board of Health he has felt more confidence in himself.

Fr. Tom is concerned with his friend - Fr. Tom Franzman, who has lost weight, does not have a new job, and is somewhat depressed. Fr. Tom Job constantly hears from the parishioners at St. Bede - what a wonderful parish priest Fr. Franzman was when he was an assistant there. Fr. Job is afraid that Fr. Franzman will be appointed to the Seminary to take Fr. Schroeder's place.

Fr. Job also expressed concern about Fr. Bill Hastings who also does not have a job.

I told Fr. Job about the attorney who is reported to be checking out pedophile cases concerning priests. Fr. Job feels conficent that he (Fr. Job) is doing all he can in attempting to recover.

Re: Tom Job - March 20, 1990 - Villa

This our monthly review with Fr. Tom Job

- 1. He is concerned with the relationship he has with his pastor at St. Bede's in Ingleside - Fr. Fitzpatrick. Father Fitzpatrick has been down because of the financial situation at the parish. He is also down because, as he says, he is jealous of Tom's talents in preaching etc. He has mentioned to Tom that he, Fitz., wonders whether the parish can afford Tom.
- Tom tells me he has been offered a job in Lake County Alcohol Rehabilitation. Tom is close to getting his certification as an Alcohol Counselor. We talked realistically considering this full time job and a residency at Ingleside. He could help out on weekends and possibly do some other ministry. Tom understands that he would get only $100.00 a month as resident and whatever stipends and that would be 0.K. with him. I think this is a good idea.
- 3. In the light of the publication of Archdiocesan Policy on Pedophilia, I suggested that he get in touch with

RE: Thomas Job

After receiving a call from I decided to call Tom Ventura today to see whether Tom Job has been in touch with him. I have not seen Tom Job at all, so unless he is keeping in touch with Tom Ventura, in effect, he is not under supervision by anyone connected with diocesan administration.

Tom Ventura told me that Tom Job really does not keep in touch with him. He suggested that I call Bob Fitzpatrick around the first of June just to see how things are going. I can then also check with Tom Job to see how things are going from his point of view. Perhaps at that time I can let him know that I would expect him to be in touch with me once or twice a year, etc. Not to do this, seems to put the diocese in jeopardy.

W.B. as of 6/13/88, 2 have not contacted ather Job or Followith. I sport to and me Donagh and he will just up on the case. He has dealt with John before years ago.

Tom Ventura called today. He said that Job was on vacation but is supposed to get in touch with Tom after his return. Tom's preference would be to have me work with Job, but he will discuss that more at length later on. In the meantime there is an opening at St. Bede in Fox Lake and Tom Job is interested. Tom will confront Tom Job on the question as to whether he is still taking young people to his cottage.

RE: Tom Job

T0:

FROM:

1. By the strangest of coincidences, you and I were discussing the case of Tom Job when I met you this morning in the subway. This afternoon, I received a phone call from Jim O'Connor (), the pastor of St. Joseph in Liberty-ville, expressing concern about Tom Job.

2. As background information, Jim said that when he first went to St. Joseph's, he received two anonymous letters. The first was a warning that "he plays with boys and steals from the collection". The second letter said something to the effect: "When are you going to do something to keep him from stealing from the collection?" Jim reported all this to Bob Kealy. Apparently the collection jumped sizeably each time Job went on vacation. The difference in collections would be two to three thousand dollars. Jim has had to resort to a combination lock system on the money bags.

With regard to the other charge, Jim admits that he has never seen any evidence of inappropriate activity on Job's part. However, when Frank Gill was living at St. Joseph's for two or three months at the beginning of 1985, Frank asked Jim one day what was going on, because he noticed frequently a group of teenagers going to Tom's room and the door would be closed.

Jim states that he talked to you about this and that he also confronted Job. He further stated that Job left St. Joseph's last June and informed the people that he was going on some sort of sabbatical.

3. Jim's concern at the present time stems from reports he has heard recently to the effect that Tom is still taking kids up to his cottage at Fox Lake. Apparently this is a cottage he owns with Tom Franzman. Jim said that one of Tom Job's friends, a boy who is now a senior in high school, served his Mass on the feast of the Immaculate Conception and Jim just asked him whether he ever sees Fr. Job any more. The boy replied in the affirmative. He told Jim that he sees Fr. Job at the "factory". Apparently this is a gym in Lake Forest and this boy said that Fr. Job video tapes the people going through their gymnastic routines. Jim did not want to make any accusations, but he thought that this was a rather strange thing for a priest to be doing.

Jim also mentioned that when Tom Job was at his first assignment in North-lake, there was a big complaint about him there, too. Jim knew the former principal and she told him that some of the people were ready to kill Job.

4. I told Jim I would pass this information along to you. I'm not quite sure what the next step will be. Maybe you could give me a call on this. I can see why Tom might not want to switch to me for supervision, but it certainly seems as though he has to be supervised by someone, and someone will have to check out the rumors that he is still taking youngsters to his cottage. I'd appreciate it, Tom, if you'd give me a call on this when you have a chance.

In light of our recent discussion, as well as your discussions with Tom Ventura, I hereby accede to your request for a six-month leave of absence for reasons of health. It is understood that this leave will be effective June 14, 1987.

During this time, I do ask you to be in contact with the Vicar for Priests. There will be a transition in that office. As you know, Father Richard Goedert will be replacing Father Ventura. Father Goedert is most willing to assist in this process.

I have spoken with Father Jim O'Connor, pastor of St. Joseph's Parish, Libertyville, regarding financial arrangements for Thomas Job. He will be paying Tom's salary for June and understands that thereafter Tom will receive compensation from the Archdiocese. You will recall we discussed this when you visited the personnel board on Friday, May 1st, and it was your thinking that it would be best for Jim O'Connor to be "out of the picture".

RE:

Father Tom Job

1. Tom Job, after long and difficult pondering, has decided to request a six month Sick Leave for reasons of emotional health from June 14, 1987 to January 14, 1988. He will contact Ken Velo for an appointment to see you about this request. I recommend that you grant it to him.

2. Background:

- I began working with Tom Job in November 1983 after having been contacted by a High School chaplain and the father of a student about alleged inappropriate activities by Fr. Job with his son. Fr. Job was cooperative, and met with me since then on a regular basis for support and supervision. I also contacted his pastor for assistance as an on-site supervisor. These arrangements seem to have worked well.

- Last Autumn Tom and I began discussion about the transition period which he would encounter in Spring, 1987. He learned that a) he would have to transfer to a new parish since his 5 year term would be ending and b) I would be leaving office. He was concerned about the kind of pastor who would be supervising him, the traveling distance from , his relationship with the new Vicar for Priests, and the possibility of
- Tom has discussed all of these factors at length with a lesser extent, with me. He feels that he needs some time and space to sort out the experiences of these last few years, to reflect upon his progress, and to work for greater emotional stabilization in order to prepare to enter a new assignment as well as possible.
- He loves priesthood and would like to continue to work as a priest. But he wants to do all he can to be as good a priest as he can. He also sees this leave as an opportunity to acquire additional ministerial skills by taking some college courses.

3. Practical plans.

A. He would live at a cottage which he owns with a classmate:

phone:

B. He would

He would attend classes in counseling at either the College of Lake County or at Loyola University, Chicago.

- D. He would do physical work around the cottage.
- 4. Recommendation: I think this is a good decision. We discussed the possibility of his returning to active ministry earlier than January 1988 on a step by step basis if his progress moves along well. I think that his return should involve a sensitive but effective supervisory relationship with the Vicar for Priests and with a new pastor. I think it would be appropriate to request a comprehensive progress report from as well at that time. I feel that we need to be both supportive to Tom and conscientious about our legal and moral responsibilities as well.

November 1983: Rev. Peter Heidenreich, O.P., informed me that age 17, told him that he had engaged in sexual activities with Fr. Job while he was associate pastor at St. Cletus, La Grange.

A meeting was arranged between Fr. Heidenreich, father and the Vicar for Priests to discuss the accusations.

I confronted Fr. Job. On Nov. 22, 1983 he

Fr. Job agreed to monthly supervisory sessions with the Vicar for Priests. He was also ordered to avoid further contacts with young people.

The pastor of St. Joseph's Parish Libertyville is serving as on-site supervisor.

April 1984: mother, contacted the Vicar for Priests to report that her son is know that Fr. Job is and expressed the hope that this never happens again.

November, 1985: Sister Peg Ivers, former principal of St. John Vianney Parish, Northbrook, Il., informed me that there had been accusations of improper activities between Fr. Job and boys when he served as associate at that parish during her time as principal there.

I contacted Fr. Mike Adams who had been on the Personnel Board at that time. He said that he knew very little about it but that Fr. Richard Keating had dealt with the case and had arranged treatment for Fr. Job. He thought that Fr. Keating had served as Fr. Job's supervisor during that period.

September 1986:

Re:

Job, Rev. Thomas [Resigned]/

Date:

April 2, 2007

In connection with allegation of sexual abuse against the former Rev. Thomas Job, I contacted Sr. Peg Ivers via phone on March 26, 2007 due to the fact that she was the principal of St. John Vianney at the time of the alleged abuse.

When I introduced myself, Sr. Peg indicated immediately that she remembered me from past conversations related to a different matter received by this office concerning Fr. Job and his past assignment to St. John Vianney. I informed Sr. Peg that I was calling in connection with an allegation against Fr. Job and when asked, she indicated that she did have the time and would be willing to speak with me. Prior to continuing, I informed Sr. Peg that this was a confidential investigation, to which she replied that she understood.

I informed Sr. Peg that had recently come forward to formalize an allegation against Fr. Job. Sr. Peg stated that she does know that from St. John Vianney. I then asked Sr. Peg if Fr. Job had any type of office located in the school building. Sr. Peg informed me that the school buildings were built at different times and as a result, there were small rooms that remained at the end of each hallway of the original school building. As per Sr. Peg, one of these small rooms was the nurse's office and on the second floor in one of these small rooms as Fr. Job's office. Sr. Peg stated that Fr. Job wanted to run the religious education program when he arrived at St. John Vianney, a request that was honored by the pastor. I asked Sr. Peg if Fr. Job's office included some sort of sink within it. Sr. Peg stated that Fr. Job's office had a little bathroom with a sink attached to it. She remarked that Fr. Job insisted upon having this little office on the second floor in the school building. Sr. Peg then expressed that her "...heart is broken for all the damage that has been done [the sexual abuse of boys by Fr. Job]..." She stated that before she knew of any of the abuse by Fr. Job, she had always been suspicious about him "...because he was always with boys...and had no adult friends."

Sr. Peg expressed her memories of Fr. Job always taking kids out of class. When asked, Sr. Peg stated that Fr. Job always only took boys out of class and spent time with boys and never any girls. Also when asked, Sr. Peg stated that Fr. Job did have the boys help him set up for and clean up after CCD. Sr. Peg stated that after CCD, Fr. Job would take the boys out in his car for a treat. She also expressed her knowledge of Fr. Job taking boys to his parents' place in Wisconsin for two or three days at a time.

Sr. Peg then shared many of her personal frustrations with attempting to notify the appropriate archdiocesan individuals/offices regarding her concerns with Fr. Job and boys when she was still the principal of St. John Vianney. As per Sr. Peg, she finally resigned from her position because she "...couldn't take it anymore [reporting her concerns with Fr. Job's behavior and no action being taken]..." Sr. Peg continued by stating that four months after she resigned from St. John Vianney, she received a phone call from the mayor of the town [Northlake] in the middle of the night regarding Fr. Job. As per Sr. Peg, the mayor informed her that a boy told his father of the sexual abuse by Fr. Job and the father in turn was threatening to go with a shotgun to confront the accused cleric. Sr. Peg stated that Fr. Job was gone from St. John Vianney the next day.

Sr. Peg stated that over the years after Fr. Job had left St. John Vianney and had been assigned to subsequent parishes, she received more than one phone call out of more than one parish asking her how he could have gone from parish to parish [exhibiting the same concerning behaviors with boys].

When asked, Sr. Peg informed me that did not go directly to her and inform her of any abuse by Fr. Job. However, Sr. Peg did confirm that the boys at St. John Vianney that Fr. Job had with him and help with CCD. Based upon allegation, I asked Sr. Peg if she knew of any interactions Fr. Job might Sr. Peg stated that, ". have had with to me [about the abuse by Fr. Job]...I don't know how he survived the abuse [by Fr. Job]." Also when asked, Sr. Peg stated that name did not ring a bell for her. Sr. Peg then remarked, "[Fr. Job] was very secretive when he was up in the room [his office in the school building] with the boys." I also asked Sr. Peg if the names were familiar to her, as had mentioned their presence when helping Fr. Job with CCD classes. Sr. Peg acknowledged that she knew both boys and that she knows disclosed any abuse by Fr. Job to her. Sr. Peg added family very well. When asked, Sr. Peg stated that nor however that it would be a "...safe assumption..." that Fr. Job abused them in some way, as they were a part of the group of boys the cleric had spent time with.

I thanked Sr. Peg for all of her assistance with this matter. Sr. Peg may be reached at

Date:

March 30, 2007

During a scheduled conference call that took place at the Vicar for Priests' Office today, I read the entire March 1, 2007 Memorandum [see attached copy] to the former Rev. Thomas Job. The March 1st Memorandum details additional memories related to the alleged sexual abuse by Fr. Job that has recalled since our initial December 2006 meeting.

Rev. Vincent Costello, Vicar for Priests scheduled today's 3:00 pm conference call with Mr. Job so that I could read the aforementioned Memorandum to the accused. Both Fr. Costello and I reminded Mr. Job that once the entire Memorandum was read, he would be given the opportunity to provide a response.

I continued by reading the entire Memorandum without any interruption. When I asked him, Mr. Job stated that he did not have any questions or responses to memories detailed in the Memorandum. Mr. Job thanked both Fr. Costello and myself prior to ending the phone call.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, of Victim ES's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on August 31, 2006, formalizing his allegation of abuse against Rev. Thomas Job. The alleged abuse consisted of Fr. Job providing Victim ES with pornography and masturbating Victim ES. Fr. Job would also buy Victim ES expensive gifts. The alleged abuse occurred at the St. Cletus parish rectory and at Fr. Job's private home in Northern Illinois. The alleged abuse began when Victim ES was in seventh or eighth grade and continued until he was a sophomore in high school, and occurred approximately on a weekly basis. Victim ES also reported that the abuse was reported to the pastor of St. Cletus, as well as Vicar for Priests Fr. Thomas Ventura, and the St. Cletus school principal in the early to mid 1980's.

During all this time the Catholic Church or church officials did nothing to help us. I know that there are good priests out there and feel that they too have been victims.

PRA attempted to reach Ms. Broadway via phone on November 28th and left her a voice mail message, asking for a return call.

PRA reached Ms. Broadway via phone today in response to her November 28th message. Ms. Broadway informed PRA that she had questions to ask about a number of DCFS investigations that involved clerics of the Archdiocese of Chicago, including the matter concerning Rev. Thomas Job.

Ms. Broadway asked if the Archdiocese of Chicago financially supports the former Fr. Job. PRA informed Ms. Broadway that Fr. Job resigned in 1992 and therefore, did not think that there was any financial support provided. However, it was agreed that PRA would attempt to determine if there is any such support provided and would contact Ms. Broadway with the information.

Prior to ending the phone call, Ms. Broadway provided her fax number if Ms. Broadway mentioned to PRA that she has been instructed to have this report concluded by the first of the year.

Re:

Job, Rev. Thomas [Resigned]

Date:

November 20, 2006

Per Professional Responsibility Administrator's [PRA] request, PRAA reviewed the former Rev. Thomas Job's Seminary file on November 20, 2006. The following is a summary of information in the aforementioned file:

- In a document titled Philosophy I, Semester I 1965 under the Application section, it is written in part, "Wished to withdraw after one day here. Was not dissatisfied with seminary but felt that he should not be a priest. On the whole seems very sensible to me. Impulsive first act has thus far been quite out of character with what I see of him now".
- In a document titled Summer Letter for 1965, Thomas Job describes his taking care of the servers and taking an occasional camping trip where he takes groups of boys from the parish. The name of the parish is not on the document. He references having worked there for the past five years.
- A letter dated 9/3/65 signed by Barry Horner and addressed to Monsignor Foley states in part, "He (referencing Thomas Job) spent every day here at the church and rectory helping me in many ways and getting other boys of the parish to work with him on these projects".
- Fr. Dougherty wrote in a document dated 1966-67 under Dean's evaluation, "Tom is a serious young man who is generous with his time. He is very courteous and intelligent, mature in his appearance. He seems too apologetic and obsequious at times. He seems to have many veiled or unspoken feelings. I am not sure how much he is making his own life here, his own little seminary. He seems very self-righteous when challenged. Vocation: The impression he makes is a bit spooky, somber and sad. I'm not sure I know him well at all. He does seem serious about his desire to be a priest.

- Thomas Job wrote the following in a letter titled Summer Letter 1967: "I took a trip during the summer the last two weeks of July. I had my work pretty well in hand, so I took a week and a half off to do some camping, a pastime which I particularly enjoy. I took four boys from the parish along, and went down to the Smoky Mountains in North Carolina. The boys worked for me at the rectory doing maintenance work and putting what they earned toward the trip. The parish more or less sponsored the trip, but the boys earn it on their own."
- Fr. Thomas Horne from St. Peter Damian Parish in Bartlett, IL wrote in part in a letter dated 9/5/67 and addressed to Monsignor Gorman: "Tom has no serious faults and very few minor ones. But he is heavily freighted with good qualities and abilities. In him the prime mover is a real enthusiasm about his vocation and priestly work. This motivates him to undertake and carry through almost anything. While he is not pietistic he never fails at daily mass and communion. He is constantly in the church and rectory and works with me most faithfully. He does not work alone but has a group of boys who work with him".
- Fr. Robert Dougherty wrote in a document dated 1967-1968 on letterhead from St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, "I feel more positively towards him because I have seen more of him. I feel more trust in him. I feel there is some hidden tension in my relationship with him. I find it hard to determine how open he is. There is a certain uneasiness there. I like to see him as steady and dependable, more as a person and less of a functionary. I feel that he has not yet really matured or is confident in himself. He seems somewhat insecure".
- A positive evaluation was written by Fr. Peter Wilkin from Santa Maria del Popolo Parish-dated 9/9/69. The evaluation states in part, "There have been no problems to speak of in his relationship with members of the house. The people have responded enthusiastically to him as a person and as a Deacon".
- Fr. Job wrote to Monsignor Gorman or George Kane on September 15, 1969. The letter states in part, "In closing, I cannot begin to thank you for allowing me to come to Mundelein (the letter appears to be referencing the Santa Maria del Popolo Parish) even with all of your misgivings. I would venture to say that things have worked out so well because I had shopped around and decided on this parish and they wanted me. In the future, perhaps we should let men choose their own parish if they have enough initiative to go out and find one."
- On his Personal Data sheet, Fr. Job describes an interest in continuing to work with "special religious education" and writes he had found "working in the retarded programs very helpful to me personally as well as very fulfilling ministerially".

Assistance Ministry received a call today from an attorney, Mr. assistance, asking for clarification on the Archdiocesan process for reporting an allegation against resigned priest, Thomas Job. He did not identify his client in the conversation, but offered the following information:

- The alleged abuse occurred when his client was a parishioner at St. Cletus in the 1980's.
- According to Mr. , the client's parents went to the pastor at the time, and continued to report to the Archdiocese by contacting then-Chancellor, Fr. Ventura.
- Mr. has asked the client's mother to provide him with a written account (as best she can recollect) of the steps she took at the time to report to the Archdiocese her child's allegation.
- Mr. did not share what the response was when the family reported to the Archdiocese in the 80's.
- Mr. said his client currently resides outside of I responded that according to the client's comfort level, the Archdiocese, through OPR, could make arrangements for his/her travel to Chicago, or OPR and a representative from VAM could travel to to meet with him/her in an appropriate/suitable meeting space. He appreciated the preference for a face-to-face meeting.

Mr. had received some initial information from a fellow attorney, Mr. parts were incorrect. I clarified the reporting procedures, and then referred him to our Archdiocesan website for more detailed information.

I specified outreach to Mr. 's client including his mother and other family members who may be in need. I also provided him with contact information for OPR, John O'Malley, and James Serritella. He was grateful for the information.

Mr. assured me that he would relay the information to his client. He commended the Archdiocese for having services available to his client and family. With his client's approval, he will contact OPR to make the necessary arrangements.

In any event I want to inform you that to the best of my knowledge
Thomas Job, is still alive. I had contact with him last November. I cannot vouch for his PRA received a voice mail message from Sr. Peg Ivers on November 17, 2005 regarding her concerns with the former Rev. Thomas Job that she has shared to date [see file].

Sr. Peg stated that she did write a letter to Cardinal George regarding the aforementioned matter as she had informed PRA that she would. As per Sr. Peg, she was calling to clarify some of the points in her recent letter to the Cardinal where she had also mentioned her past concerns with Rev. William Cloutier [Resigned/Deceased]. Referring to the letter that she wrote to the Cardinal, Sr. Peg stated that she did not "...want to give the wrong impression..." regarding her comments about Fr. Cloutier. Sr. Peg explained that at one point in time in the past, Fr. Cloutier was a member of her staff. She stated that "...there were problems..." with Fr. Cloutier and as a result, she spoke with Revs. William J. McNulty [Retired] and Tom Ventura. In Sr. Peg's words, she "begged them" to address the problems with Fr. Cloutier. Sr. Peg stated that Fr. McNulty was "very supportive" of her and her concerns, but that "...no one around Bill McNulty would act on my request [to have Fr. Cloutier removed]."

Sr. Peg asked for a return call if there were any questions or any need for additional clarification. Sr. Peg may be reached at PRA spoke with Sr. Peg Ivers via phone on November 11, 2005 regarding a recent newspaper article that included information on the former Rev. Thomas Job [see file]. Sr. Peg expressed her concerns that in the newspaper article she read, Fr. Job was listed as deceased. She also remarked that the idea that Fr. Job's name was never mentioned in the media before in connections with allegations of sexual misconduct with minors was "crazy." Sr. Peg then informed PRA that Fr. Job's name had been mentioned publicly in connection with such allegations 30 years ago.

PRA agreed with all of the information that Sr. Peg stated, including that there was information regarding Fr. Job in the recent newspaper article that was incorrect. Sr. Peg was then informed that a civil attorney who represents alleged victims of misconduct released the recent information reported by the media on the aforementioned topic by clerics. PRA clarified for Sr. Peg that the aforementioned incorrect information concerning Fr. Job was not released by the Archdiocese of Chicago. Sr. Peg expressed her appreciation for the clarification.

PRA thanked Sr. Peg for her phone call and for sharing all of her concerns. Sr. Peg was informed that her concerns and suggestions would be conveyed to the Cardinal. PRA also supported Sr. Peg's suggestion that she write a personal letter to the Cardinal regarding the aforementioned matters.

Mr. Thomas Job

Dear Mr. Job,

By now you are undoubtedly aware of Mr. Anderson's disclosure of the names of priests and former priests who were involved with the settlements of some of his clients. I suspect that you also know that yours was one of the names Mr. Anderson disclosed to the press. I want to assure you that the disclosure was Mr. Anderson's decision, not the Church's.

Since that news story broke we have received a number of inquiries as well as information about the men whose names were publicly shared for the first time, including you. We have also heard rumors that over the last couple of years you have been engaged in doing some of the things priests often do, like distributing Holy Communion and offering retreats and/or days of recollection. I hope this is not true. If this is true I ask that you cease doing so immediately.

The reasons I make this request should be obvious to you. First of all, you resigned from the active ministry several years ago. Secondly, as you know, Cardinal George has accepted our Review Board's determination that there is reason to believe that you engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor. Had you now still been an active priest in the Archdiocese of Chicago you probably would have been removed from public ministry. Now that your name has been made public we want to avoid the possibility of scandal. We do not want people to think you are acting in the name of the Church.

If you wish to have further conversations about this matter please feel free to contact me either by phone (312-642-1837) or by writing to me at the address on our letterhead.

Sincerely yours,

PRA contacted Francis Cardinal George via phone on November 2, 2005 regarding the former Rev. Thomas Job and the phone call received from his current employer [see November 3, 2005 Memorandum in file].

Cardinal George expressed his grave concern with all of the information provided by Mr. Job's current supervisor at the Lake County Behavioral Services Department, PRA informed Cardinal George that the information shared by regarding Mr. Job was communicated to Rev. Vincent Costello, Mr. Job's Vicar for Priests. When asked by Cardinal George, PRA informed him that Mr. Job is resigned, but not laicized.

Cardinal George directed PRA to contact Bishop Raymond Goedert and share with him this information regarding Mr. Job. He stated that he wanted the process to begin to have Mr. Job laicized. Cardinal George supported PRA's suggestion to have a letter written regarding Mr. Job's status and standing as a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago shared with the "...nuns...and Catholic girls' home [see November 3rd Memorandum in file]..." Cardinal George also stated that Mr. Job is not to be administering communion. He requested that all of this information be communicated to Bishop Goedert.

PRA spoke with Bishop Goedert via phone on November 3, 2005 regarding the aforementioned matter. It was agreed that Bishop Goedert would fax to PRA a copy of a decree stating that Mr. Job is not in good standing as a cleric of this diocese. Bishop Goedert stated that he would contact Fr. Costello about this matter as well.

A Letter From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners of St. Bede,

Last week, I read in the newspaper that the Archdiocese of Chicago had settled a number of cases with victim-survivors of clerical misconduct. One case involved a former associate pastor from St. Bede, Thomas Job. It was through the victim-survivor's attorney that his name was released to the media, not through the Archdiocese of Chicago. I was surprised by what I had read, because I didn't have prior notice of the news item. At the same time, I was immediately concerned for our parish family and the reaction of the community regarding this new development. Thomas Job had served at St. Bede beginning in 1988, and resigned from the priesthood in 1992.

As you know, in the past, other priests' names have been announced as being removed from ministry because of a substantiated allegation of sexual misconduct with a minor. Thomas Job's name had not been part of that disclosure because he was resigned from the priesthood at the time this accusation was received by the Archdiocese. The Archdiocese, however, did follow its normal procedure in processing the accusation, and the Independent Review Board did make their recommendation to Cardinal George.

One could ask, why didn't the Archdiocese tell us that they had come to a settlement involving a priest that once served our parish? In order to maintain the privacy of the victim-survivors who come forward, it is the policy of the Archdiocese not to disclose details of any settlement. However, because the Archdiocese does not prohibit a victim-survivor or their attorney from revealing the details of a settlement, their disclosure might sometimes include the name of a priest that has not been previously made public in association with a claim of sexual misconduct with a minor.

It is a shock to see a priest's name in the newspapers associated with such a serious matter who served at St. Bede. Because we will never be able to know more than what we know now, perhaps we can suspend judgment against all involved. Instead, let us rise as the strong parish family of St. Bede and pray for all victims of sexual abuse and all those affected by this sin. I am available if anyone would like to speak with me about this matter.

Fr. Tim Fairman

Reaching Out to the Needy this Holiday Season

As we all know there are many families living right here in our own backyard that will not be as fortunate as we will this Holiday Season. They feel fortunate when they are able to put together enough food to make one full-meal in a week. For most of us we don't even give it a second thought as we have enough food to have multiple meals in one day.

So I pray that all of us who can will consider reaching into our hearts and pantries and share what we have with those in need. On November 12th and 13th St. Bede Parish will sponsor a food drive to help supplement the Grant Township Pantry for the holidays. When you come to Mass on Saturday evening, November 12th, or Sunday morning, November 13th, please bring one or more of the items from the list below, put them in a bag and place them on the altar before or after Mass. After each Mass the gifts of food will be placed in Coleman Hall and brought over to the Grant Township Food Pantry Monday morning. I know your gifts will be truly appreciated.

Thanks and God Bless

Please NO GLASS ITEMS! Canned, plastic, boxed or packaged items only!

Items needed: Beef stew, chicken & dumplings, chili, jelly, peanut butter, box or canned potatoes, canned vegetables, skillet dinners, macaroni & cheese, macaroni & beef, beefaroni, tuna, spaghetti sauce, cereal, juice, soups, jello, soap, toilet paper, tooth brushes, diapers (small, medium, and large), shampoo.

PRA spoke with Sr. Judith Davies, OFM via phone today regarding the former Rev. Thomas Job. Sr. Judith is the Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Joliet.

PRA informed Sr. Judith of an ongoing investigation into the alleged sexual abuse of a minor by Fr. Job when he was assigned to St. John Baptist Vianney in the late 1960s/early 1970s. Sr. Judith was then informed that according to Archdiocesan Archives, Fr. Job also had faculties in the Archdiocese of Joliet when he was assigned to St. John Baptist Vianney [from July 11, 1970 through June 1976].

PRA then asked Sr. Judith if she could determine if there have been any allegations of sexual abuse of minors brought against Fr. Job in the Archdiocese of Joliet. Sr. Judith informed PRA that Fr. Job's name is not familiar to her and that she does not believe that there have been any allegations brought against him in their diocese. However, Sr. Judith informed PRA that she would check their files and contact PRA if any additional information on Fr. Job is located.

PRA thanked Sr. Judith for her time and assistance. Sr. Judith may be reached at [815] 722-6606.

PRA received a return phone call from Sr. Judith this afternoon. Upon checking through the files in the Archdiocese of Joliet, Sr. Judith stated that there is nothing present concerning Fr. Job. PRA thanked Sr. Judith for her assistance with this matter.

Conference Call

Rev. James T. Kaczorowski arrived at the Office of Professional Responsibility just after the scheduled 12:30pm scheduled meeting time. PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski then contacted Mr. Patrick Reardon via phone at his office. Once Mr. Reardon was on the phone line, PRA contacted Mr. Thomas Job at his home via phone as well.

After introductions were made, PRA asked Mr. Job if he had any questions or concerns regarding the process of having an allegation of sexual misconduct of a minor made against him
Mr. Job responded by informing PRA that he did not have any questions or concerns at this time
PRA also offered to forward a copy of §1100 Sexual Abuse of Minors: Policies for Education, Prevention, Assistance to Victims and Procedures for Determination of Fitness for Ministry as well as a copy of allegation to Mr. Job via mail. Mr. Job did not initially respond to PRA's offer to forward such information to his attention. Mr. Reardon did then request that PRA forward him a copy of allegation against Mr. Job. It was agreed that PRA would fax and mail copies of the report to Mr. Reardon as requested.

PRA then began by reading allegation of sexual misconduct against Mr. Job. PRA read the allegation in its entirety without any interruptions from either Mr. Job or Mr. Reardon. Once the entire report was read, Mr. Reardon stated that he and Mr. Job spoke briefly prior to the October 19, 2004 conference call regarding this matter. Mr. Reardon then stated that it was in Mr. Job's best interest to say nothing at this point in time [in response to the allegation], as Mr. Job is not seeking a review [of this matter] by the Review Board. He also indicated that the lack of his client's response was to protect Mr. Job from the possibility of being sued at any time in the future. Mr. Reardon informed PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski that upon receipt of a copy of the report, he and Mr. Job might provide a written response to the allegation. However, Mr. Reardon added that it would be more than likely that a written response would still not be provided to the allegation.

Fr. Kaczorowski then suggested that Mr. Job offer some sort of response to the allegation and mentioned the Review Board's future review of this matter and the possibility of attorney releasing Mr. Job's name publicly. Mr. Reardon again responded that based upon an initial conversation of the matter with Mr. Job, that they agreed that there would be no response by Mr. Job or on his behalf. When asked by Mr. Reardon during the October 19th conference call, Mr. Job verbally agreed with his attorney to not provide any response to allegation against him.

Prior to ending the phone call, PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski thanked Mr. Job and Mr. Reardon for their time. PRA also asked Mr. Job directly if he would be interested in having the aforementioned information mailed to his home. Mr. Job indicated that he did not want copies of any of the information that PRA had offered to send to him. It was also agreed that PRA would not mail any correspondence to Mr. Job at his home without his consent.

Mr. Thomas Job reviewed this report and his signature is a statement of agreement of the accuracy of what he/his attorney Mr. Patrick Reardon shared in the October 19, 2004 conference call. The conference call lasted for approximately 45 minutes.

Memorandum to the File

I met with Father Job on November 12, 1987. He is doing much better, physically and psychologically. He said he is secure in his vocation and is looking forward to returning to parish work. [One concern is _______]

Father Job's concern is the stated requirement (cf. Father Ventura's memorandum of August 22) that he must be supervised. He is opposed to supervision because he feels he doesn't need it ________. I explained that some supervision would be needed but that it would probably not be as "oppressive" as he thought. In any case, he said he wanted a clear statement of what would be needed. I told him that we would clarify this. When I asked him, he told me he does have a spiritual director (a nun). He does not have a regular confessor.

I don't know which draft of this letter this is...but all the rest of them get more and more difficult to read because of my handwriting, so I decided to type this one even though it seems terribly impersonal.

There is only one way to begin this letter, and that's by saying "I'm terribly sorry for what I did to you". The words seem so trite...but there's well over a year of agony and soul-searching behind them. There is no way in which I can ever make-up to you for the way in which I used you...all I can offer is some of what I have learned about myself since I left LaGrange.

Within a couple of months of being transferred and after living for a while in somewhat of a normal situation here in Libertyville, I began to come to grips with what I had done to you. What took place was only between us - I had never been so involved at any other time with anyone else. Talk about feeling guilty... I really cared about you and what happened to you...and above all you see, else I really wanted to help you. As I thought about how I felt about you and realized what I had done to you with such incredible rationalization I started to go into a deep depression. I had tried to contact you a few times after leaving, but was never able to get through to you. And then when I started realizing what I had done, it seemed best if I never interfered in your life again. I agonized for months over whether or not I was a homosexual. At times I could convince myself I was, at other times not. I lost just about all selfrespect in myself and in my priesthood. And about fourteen months ago reached the point of seeing suicide as the only way to resolve what was going on inside of me. I never tried to commit suicide, but I came to the point of coldly working out the details of how to end my life. I was still rational enough though to realize that I was going out of my mind and that running could not be the only answer.

When I learned that you had gone to Father Ventura and I got some picture of what you had been going through
I care a great deal for you and I'm so pleased that you're working things out for yourself.

The "why" for what I did is unbelievably complicated.

SAINT JOSEPH CHURCH • 121 EAST MAPLE AVENUE • LIBERTYVILLE, ILLINOIS 60048

I've learned that what took place probably was caused by many events coming together in my life at once, making me extremely vulnerable...and knowing you at a time when you were extremely vulnerable. You were going through the confusion of adolescence as well as . I was in between two of the most traumatic losses of my life -. Both of which were very painful and agonizing. Both of which left me totally alone in this world. I have learned that what probably is at the bottom of all my actions is my extreme fear of being alone. I needed someone to care about me, to look up to me, to need me...and you needed someone too. And as much as I wanted to be able to help you and give you what you needed at that time in your life, I felt totally incapable of solving the problems of | This produced even more anxiety and frustration. I have said a couple of times in this letter how strongly I felt about you - and still do. My problem was I cared so much about you that I couldn't come to grips with the fact that I could do nothing to help you. I still don't understand everything . And as I reread what's above, it sounds so cold and removed. The fact is that for whatever reason I hurt vou, and I will deeply regret that for the rest of my life. I am doing everything I can to put my life in order. I realized that it has been over seventeen years since I can remember being truly happy. What I want for myself is to simply be able to be proud of myself again. I pray for you because I want you to find happiness and finally overcome the terrible things I did to you - you don't deserve any of it. I want you to forgive me...a thing that I realize you may never be able to do. There's no way I can adequately express all that I've learned about myself - my fears and my wants. But I want to assure you that what took place between us will never be repeated and that I will continue to look for the end to my problems. I would like to talk to you - if that's what you want. I thought the letter would be a good way of getting said some of the things I have to try to explain they're so very complicated. I have your phone number at . If it would be easier for you to call me with your private number is schedule, I am usually in my room on and off all evening and almost always after 9:30 pm and I'm up til at least 11:30 each nite. Don't hesitate to just reverse the charges. If I don't hear from you by the end of next week, I'll contact you. I'm going to be gone for the next few days but will be back on Sunday. typing just doesn't seem right. I'm both afraid to ke to you and tooking forward to it. I will be able to accept however ufeel.

DECREE

Having received the recommendation of the Archdiocesan Professional Responsibility Review Board that information at least seems to be true that Thomas Job, a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago, engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor at the time of the alleged incident, I have concluded that this constitutes information which "at least seems to be true" (c. 1717) and warrants further investigation.

Therefore, in accordance with the aforementioned canon, I decree that an inquiry be done into the facts and circumstances of this accusation, as well as its imputability to Thomas Job.

Since my other duties prevent me from conducting this investigation personally, I hereby appoint Ms. Leah McCluskey to act as the investigator in this matter. In carrying out these duties, Ms. McCluskey will have all of the authority of an auditor, in accordance with cc. 1428 and 1717. She is delegated to take testimony from the accused and from any witnesses (cc. 1530 - 1538 and 1547 - 1573), to obtain any necessary documents (cc. 1540 - 1546), to enlist the services of any experts deemed necessary (cc. 1574 - 1581), and to have access to places or things which she deems necessary for her investigation.

In conducting her investigation, Ms. McCluskey is to take care that such an investigation does nothing to harm Mr. Job's name or to violate his right to protect his privacy.

After she has concluded her investigation, Ms. McCluskey is to make a written and oral report to the Professional Responsibility Review Board, no later than one hundred eighty days from the date of this appointment. This report is to address the facts, circumstances, and imputability concerning the alleged offense. This report is to be sent to me, along with the advice of the Review Board.

Re: Fwd: Thomas Job???

The truth is that we intend to seek his laicization, but we have triaged the cases with the priests who have not resigned (but are just removed) at the top. As a resigned & departed priest, we will take care of Job when we reach that part of the list; right now, he is out of ministry and outside the reach of any authority we might have had over him. It is important to do it, but our personnel have the crisis-situations to deal with now.

I was just wondering if you had a chance to speak to the Cardinal about requested that Thomas Job be laicized from the priesthood. Could you let me know? It is important to that the Archdiocese at least request it. Not much can be done about Thomas Job but at least he can be stripped of ever being recognized as a Catholic priest. Thanks again for all your work. Take care and best wishes.

During a scheduled conference call that took place at the Vicar for Priests' Office today, I read the entire March 1, 2007 Memorandum [see attached copy] to the former Rev. Thomas Job. The March 1st Memorandum details additional memories related to the alleged sexual abuse by Fr. Job that has recalled since our initial December 2006 meeting.

Rev. Vincent Costello, Vicar for Priests scheduled today's 3:00 pm conference call with Mr. Job so that I could read the aforementioned Memorandum to the accused. Both Fr. Costello and I reminded Mr. Job that once the entire Memorandum was read, he would be given the opportunity to provide a response.

I continued by reading the entire Memorandum without any interruption. When I asked him, Mr. Job stated that he did not have any questions or responses to memories detailed in the Memorandum. Mr. Job thanked both Fr. Costello and myself prior to ending the phone call.

It was my thought as well to read the additional information received to Job. I have already talked to the person over the phone and typed it up--so I would be free next week if that worked for you.

I am free on Monday, 3/5 after 3p; Tuesday, 3/6 after 1p; Wed., 3/7 from 1p-4:30p; and Friday, 3/9 in the morning.

Have a good weekend Fr. Costello-today is the St. Pat's Day parade in Forest Park...I will be there supporting all of us Irish people:)

I think we should probably read the other memories regarding Job to Job. There may be a time constraint because I'll be on vacation from March 11th - 18th (God willing). Do you think you can get the person making the allegations in for a conversation during the next few days? Or do feel comfortable enough to speak with him on the phone? Would that suffice? Please let me know what's best.

Fr. Vince Costello

>>> Leah McCluskey 03/01/07 11:06 AM >>> Fr. Costello,

I just spoke with the individual whose allegation was read to Job last week. The individual has four additional specific memories of incidents involving Job--should we set up a phone call to read the additional to him?

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, of Victim EU's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on July 7, 2004, formalizing his allegation of abuse against Rev. Thomas Job. The alleged abuse consisted of Fr. Job providing Victim EU with alcohol, as well as incidents of hugging, kissing, fondling, and mutual oral sex. The alleged abuse took place at St. John Vianney parish. Fr. Job would also sleep in the same bed as and shower with Victim EU. The alleged abuse began when Victim EU was in third or fourth grade and continued until he was in seventh grade in approximately 1969-1973. Victim EU stated that he reported the abuse to the principal of St. John Vianney in 1972 or 1973, and that he recalls that another person raised questions about Fr. Job's conduct with children just prior to his transfer to St. Cletus in 1976.

Re:

Date:

July 9, 2005

PRA spoke with Ms. Yvonne Gillie-Wallace, DCFS investigator via phone on June 22, 2006. The phone call began discussion a different matter. Ms. Gillie-Wallace then expressed her need to speak with PRA about "other pending cases."

Ms. Gillie-Wallace referred to DCFS investigator Artis Cook and their need to go out to "Mundelein." PRA informed Ms. Gillie-Wallace of her [PRA's] June 16th phone conversation with Ms. Gailyn Thomas of DCFS regarding the needs of the investigators. Ms. Gillie-Wallace was able to clarify that she was interested in the location of where the clerics withdrawn from the priesthood [for substantiated allegations of sexual misconduct] reside. PRA informed Ms. Gillie-Wallace that "Mundelein" is the location of St. Mary of the Lake Seminary and that the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House is on the seminary grounds. Ms. Gillie-Wallace was informed that the clerics she has spoken of reside at the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House. PRA spent much time attempting to explain the set up of St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in relation to the location of the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House. Ms. Gillie-Wallace did eventually express her understanding of the campus.

Ms. Gillie-Wallace then requested clarification for the addresses of the following clerics [which PRA provided]:

Ms. Gillie-Wallace also asked about the former PRA informed Ms. Gillie-Wallace that all three men have resigned from the priesthood and therefore, the Archdiocese of Chicago does not have any control over where they reside.

When asked, PRA agreed to fax Ms. Gillie-Wallace a list of all clerics who have been withdrawn from ministry and residing at the Cardinal Stritch Retreat House. Ms. Gillie-Wallace provided the fax number of [708] 210-3546.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the July 8, 2011 letter written by a relative of Victim EV to the Archdiocese of Chicago. In the letter, the relative requests additional information about Rev. Thomas Job, whom the relative reported had been spending a great deal of time with Victim EV, a minor, over the past several years.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces the summary prepared by Leah McCluskey, Directory of the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review, of Victim EW's statement, given to Ms. McCluskey on August 7, 2008, formalizing his allegation of abuse against Rev. Thomas Job. The alleged abuse consisted of Fr. Job providing Victim EW with alcohol, Fr. Job exposing himself and masturbating in front of Victim EW, fondling Victim EW and asking Victim EW to touch Fr. Job. The alleged abuse occurred at the St. John Vianney school and rectory, as well as during an out-of-state trip with other boys. Victim EW was approximately 14 years old at the time of the alleged abuse.

Dear

I hope that this letter finds you doing well.

Enclosed you will find a draft report of your allegation of sexual abuse against the former Rev. Thomas Job. The report is based upon our meeting that took place on August 7, 2008. Thank you again for agreeing to meet with me and for sharing all that you did.

I ask that you review the report and make any changes and/or additions necessary to ensure its accuracy. Please return the draft to me with your changes in the envelope provided. I will then return a final report to you for your signature. Once all signatures are provided, a copy of the final report will be forwarded to you through your attorney Eugene Hollander.

due to the fact that our meeting needed to be shortened, I did not have the opportunity to ask you some additional questions that I would have normally asked while we were still together. I would also appreciate it if you would consider adding any responses you wish to the following questions in the report that you return to me with your other changes and additions:

- 1. Are you currently married?
- 2. Do you have any children?
- 3. Could you please provide the name of the company that you currently work for and the amount of time that you have been with them?

Conference Call

I arrived at the Vicar for Priests' Office just prior to the scheduled conference call. Rev. Vincent Costello initiated the call with Mr. Thomas Job at 3:00 pm.

Fr. Costello spoke with Mr. Job initially to inform him that he and I were the only people present. He also invited Mr. Job to ask any questions, make any statements, or choose not to respond after the allegation had been read to him.

I then introduced myself to Mr. Job and thanked him for his time. When I asked Mr. Job if he had any questions prior to continuing with my reading the allegation made against him by he responded that he did not.

After reading the allegation, Fr. Costello asked Mr. Job if he had anything to say or if he wished to make a response. Mr. Job said that he did not. I informed Mr. Job that he had the right to have a copy of the report of allegation sent to him. When asked, Mr. Job stated that he would appreciate it if I did not send to him a copy of the report.

I informed Mr. Job that if he had any future questions concerning this matter, to please call either me or Fr. Costello.

Re:

Book,

This memorandum identifies a potential public relations issue for the seminary in the up-coming Village of Mundelein Centennial celebrations. has written a book with contains some narrations of sexual misconduct by former Chicago clergy, one such incident occurring on the USML campus. Let me narrate how the book came to me and what recommendations I have for addressing its content.

This morning the director of the Fort Hill Historical Society called to tell me that a local resident of Mundetein had written a book about his family which had a lot of material about the seminary in it. She said that he wanted to meet me present me with a copy of the book. I told her to have him stop by today. I met in the Office of the Provost and he presented me with a copy of his book.

We spent some time talking and he related his great love for the seminary, his admiration of Cardinal Mundelein and how much this place played a role in his life growing up at Santa Maria del Populo and High School.

This is ______ first book. By profession he ______ Previously he worked at ______ It is very personal account, with lots of local people names and events related.

gave me the book which had three sections highlighted. He told me that he wanted to bring them to my attention, as not everything he has to say about the Catholic Church is nice. He then mentioned that the Rev. Thomas Job had been assigned to Santa Maria as a deacon and that his family was very close friends of the Rev. It is a lasted him if they or any other priest had hurt him or acted inappropriately. He said no, he never felt that way. He told me that he writes in the book that looking back; he could remember them hugging him a little too tight, but that no, he was not abused.

TO: 913127515279

He went on to tell me again, how much he loves the seminary and that he is so pleased that his book came out right now, for the Village of Mundelein centennial. There will be a public book signing at the Fremont Library and later a private on at Park Street Inn. I thanked him and told him I would read the book.

I read the sections which he had marked in detail today, and found that there are some unfortunate stories regarding Deacon Job bringing students swimming in our gymnasium. Also, there is a fairly detailed narrative of inappropriate behavior by Thomas Job to him, which contradicts his claim to me that nothing inappropriate happened to him. (Page 238-239). Later in the final chapter, he notes that Cardinal Mundelein would have been "deeply saddened to learn that his institution became the center of a cshandal that rocks the Archdiocese of Chicago and served as a breeding ground and safe-harbor for dozens of pedophile priests." (Page 285) He goes on in the conclusion to briefly rehearse his relations with Deacon Thomas Job and Fr. [These pages are attached to this memorandum].

Since I have not read the whole book, I can only base my comments on the short visit of the author and the sections of the book which he pointed out to me. I did not pick up any ill will. On the contrary, he spoke only with esteem of the seminary. That said, the quotations, either in the context of his story or just as standalone quotes will be very negative for the seminary's public image.

I think we should bring this matter to the attention of Jimmy Lago and Colleen Dolan, and seek their advice concerning possible response scenarios.

Conference Call

I arrived at the Vicar for Priests' Office just prior to the scheduled conference call. Rev. Vincent Costello initiated the call with Mr. Thomas Job just after 1:00 pm.

Fr. Costello spoke with Mr. Job initially to inform him that he and I were the only people present. He also invited Mr. Job to ask any questions, make any statements, or choose not to respond after the allegation had been read to him.

I then introduced myself to Mr. Job and thanked him for his time. When I asked Mr. Job if he had any questions prior to continuing with my reading the allegation made against him by he responded that he did not.

I proceeded by reading the report of allegation against Mr. Job in its entirety.

After reading the allegation, Fr. Costello asked Mr. Job if he had anything to say or if he wished to make a response. Mr. Job said that he did not. I informed Mr. Job that he had the right to have a copy of the report of allegation sent to him. When asked, Mr. Job stated that he did not wish to have a copy of the report.

I informed Mr. Job that this matter would be brought before the Review Board for its recommendations to the Cardinal. I told him that he would have the right to be notified of the Cardinal's decisions based upon the Review Board's recommendations via written letter[s]. When I asked Mr. Job if he would like these letters sent to him, he said that he would not.

Fr. Costello and I both thanked Mr. Job for his time. Mr. Job responded by thanking us and ended the phone call.

Greetings all,

I have given the following contact information to Archbishop Gregory's Secretary:

Dan Everett

Cell#

Archbishop Gregory is not in the office today, but will give the information to him when he comes in tomorrow. I have spoken with Wilton and he has agreed to contact Mr. Everett.

Ed Grace

Good morning Father. I am contacting you due to the fact that the name of Archbishop Wilton Gregory has come up in regard to our investigation of the allegation against Thomas Job. It seems that remembered Archbishop Gregory as a seminarian who helped Job teach adult education classes at Santa Marie Del Popolo in a program started by Job. In as much as his name came up, we feel that there might be some value in conducting an interview with him in regard to his observations and remembrances of Job and his activities. Can you contact Atlanta and let him know that Investigator Dan Everett will call him if he agrees to be interviewed. We would need a contact number for Dan to use in the event the Archbishop agrees to be interviewed.

Thank you,

Jim Molloy

Ex-Lake County employee gets jail, huge fine in theft case

By Tony Gordon

A former "trusted employee" of the Lake County Health Department, who admitted creating a system in which he and another worker collected tens of thousands of dollars in pay they did not earn, was sentenced to a year in jail Wednesday.

Thomas Job, 67, of Spring Grove, was also ordered to pay $39,875 in restitution and, in a rare occurrence in Lake County criminal cases, was ordered to pay the maximum $25,000 fine.

Job, who served as the rehabilitation coordinator for the department's addiction treatment program, pleaded guilty to felony theft Feb. 15.

Officials said Job and Richard Morelli, the detoxification coordinator for the same program, manipulated a computerized time keeping system in order to collect pay for hours they did not work.

Morelli, who has pleaded not guilty to theft and official misconduct charges in the case, testified Wednesday he and Job had offices at opposite ends of a floor of the department's headquarters in Waukegan.

Morelli said he and Job decided that either one of them could do the job of running the addictions program they were both paid to supervise.

"A plan was implemented to take time off," Morelli said. "The first person in (at the office) would sign us both in."

Morelli said he would frequently show up first, then when Job would arrive at the office hours later, he would go home.

Officials said the scheme was in play for close to two years when a health department internal investigation discovered the manipulations in late 2009 and police were called.

Morelli said the computer that kept track of the swipe cards employees used to enter and leave the building was kept in Job's office, and Job was the architect of the scheme.

A total of $86,494 was taken, officials said, with Morelli collecting $46,619 and Job getting $39,875.

Morelli, 60, of Highland Park, is due in court Aug. 1 and said Wednesday he has not entered into any negotiation with prosecutors for benefit for his testimony against Job.

However, under cross-examination by Job's attorney Michael Solock, Morelli admitted prosecutors have not moved to revoke his bond in the theft case based on his April 30 arrest for DUI and marijuana possession.

In most cases, when a person on bond in one felony charge is charged with another offense, prosecutors ask a judge to revoke or raise the original bond because of the new offense.

It was also revealed that Job was a Roman Catholic priest in the Archdiocese of Chicago from 1970 until 1992, when he resigned.

Marc Hansen, an investigator for the Lake County state's attorney's office, said Job was one of 14 priests named in a 2005 settlement of a lawsuit filed by 24 adults who claimed they had been sexually molested as children.

Solock said the allegations in the lawsuit were "hearsay and innuendo" and that his client had made no admissions regarding the lawsuit.

Assistant State's Attorney Christen Bishop asked Associate Judge George Bridges to impose a sentence of five years in prison, while Solock asked for probation.

Bridges said he was most interested in "making Lake County whole" from the theft and ordered the restitution and levied the fine.

He said Job will be in jail when not working, receiving medical or psychological care or performing the 150 public service hours that are a part of his sentence.

Bridges told Job he believed his training as a priest should have kicked in at some point during the theft.

"It begs the question of how a priest or former priest could get involved in something like this and not have your teachings screaming at you," Bridges said. "You should have heard your good conscience telling you it was wrong."

Re: Job laicization (Prot. No. 290/08).

According to the Postal Service documentation that we received, on Wednesday, June 14, 2010, Thomas J. Job received the canonical notification of his return to the lay state, that is his laicization. The letter informing him of his laicization also asked that by July 6, 2010 he contact either me or Deacon Dan Welter to sign the decree of laicization; he never contacted us.

Pursuant to that:

- 1. Both original copies of the Decree will be signed by Cardinal George and notarized by Jimmy Lago.
- 2. One original will be returned to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith and the other original will be filed in Thomas Job's Chancery file.
- 3. Access to the signed original of the Rescript in his Chancery file should be done through the Chancellor.
- 4. The effective date of the laicization is June 14, 2010, the date that he signed the receipt for the certified letter of notification.
- 5. In accord with Canons 535, §2 and 1054, a request has been sent to the parish of his baptism asking that the entry that records his baptism now also note his return to the lay state and his release from all the corresponding obligations, including that of celibacy. The parish has been instructed that whenever a certificate attesting to his baptism is issued, there is not to be any mention of his ordination as a Deacon and a Priest, not should there be any mention of the obligation of celibacy.
- Any inquiries about his return to the lay state should be referred to the Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Chicago. In the letter to his parish of Baptism, it was requested that this also should be noted in his baptismal entry.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces Victim EZ's statement of his relationship with Rev. Thomas Job, as described by Victim EZ in a book he authored, published in 2009. Per Victim EZ, the abuse consisted of then-Deacon Job encouraging Victim EZ to go swim with Job, wearing only his underwear, and after swimming, Job pulling a naked Victim EZ onto his knee. Victim EZ also stated that he and other alter servers would accompany Fr. Job to the seminary to use the gym and pool facilities. At these times, Fr. Job would tell the boys that swimsuits were optional, and supervised the minors changing in the locker room.

Date: 4/3/2009 5:08 PM Subject: Matter concerning Thomas Job and Attachments: Leah McCluskey.vcf Hello All, I have spoken with many of you about this already and will circulate a complete memorandum on Monday morning. I received a call this afternoon from Frs. Lyle and Baima regarding an author local to the Mundelein area whom Fr. Baima met with. Frs. Lyle and Baima informed me that they had initially spoken with Fr. Canary about this matter, who then suggested that they call me [thank you Fr. Canary]. A man by the name of wrote a book entitled, was an altar server at Santa Maria del Popolo during the time Thomas Job served as a deacon there. requested to meet with Fr. Baima and present him with a copy of the book--both of which he did. told Fr. Baima of being an altar server while Job was at Santa Maria and also that Fr. was a close friend family. Hearing this, Fr. Baima asked if either of these men hurt him. that they did not--only hugging him "a little too tight" on occasion, but that neither Job nor abused him. Fr. Baima turned to the pages of the book which After meeting with had marked. These pages and others to swim in Mundelein Seminary's included two narratives about Tom Job--one of Tom Job taking pool naked and another where Job took alone to a home where the two swam in their underwear [and after swimming in the pool, Job sat on his lap and talked to him about it being okay to be naked]. Fr. Baima has written up and faxed to me already a memorandum of his meeting with which included attachments of the pages that had marked for him. I have also asked Fr. Baima to send me the book so that I could read the rest. I will open a Job/ file on Monday and circulate a memo with Fr. Baima's memo attached. Executive Summary

On July 14, 2008, Hillard Heintze received a request from the Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review for investigative assistance in the matter of Thomas Job, a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago. Specifically, we were asked to assist in learning more about the background of the accuser a 50-year old male subject, who alleged he was sexually assaulted repeatedly by Job over a year period. Also, we were asked to locate and conduct interviews of persons familiar with various aspects of these allegations. According to the formal allegation presented by he was assaulted by Job on approximately twenty different occasions during 1970 while Job served at Santa Maria Del Popolo Parish (SMDP).
Hillard Heintze conducted the requested background investigation of This investigation found no federal, state or local records pertaining to criminal history, civil litigation, bankruptcy, liens or judgments. There was no derogatory information revealed about from the proprietary databases searched.
Several interviews of former SMDP teachers, school officials and priests who served at SMDP during the time period in question were interviewed. Fr. Thomas Franzman, a close friend of Thomas Job, was also interviewed. Fr. Franzman provided insight and corroborated certain portions of the statements made by the accuser.
The interviews conducted by Investigator Everett revealed significant agreement with the formal statements of However, each of the interviewees expressed positive remarks about Job, indicating they had never observed Job act inappropriately around children. Although one person interviewed, Fr. John Tapper, stated he had doubts about Job due to the amount of time he spent around minor children, but also stated he had never seen Job act inappropriately.
In addition to the actions requested, Hillard Heintze conducted an on-site visit of Santa Maria Del Popolo School located at 126 N. Lake St., Mundelein, IL 60060 to view an area described by as a supply room in his allegation of April 24, 2008. Several supply rooms were located and documented throughout the school buildings, but all were reported to be locked during the time period of these allegations and only teachers had keys to access them.
Due to the corroboration established through interviews and the physical inspection of areas described in the allegations, the occurrence of these allegations is highly probably with some degree of fact enhancement by the accuser.

CASE REFERRAL TO HILLARD HEINTZE

On July 14, 2008, Director Leah McCluskey, Office for Child Abuse Investigations and Review, referred the matter of resigned priest Thomas Job to Hillard Heintze for further investigation. Specifically, we were requested to:

- Conduct a background check on the accuser,
 Speak with Rev. John Tapper, one of possibly two individuals still alive who were assigned to Santa Maria Del Popolo during the time period of the alleged abuse; also
- assigned to Santa Maria Del Popolo during the time period of the alleged abuse; also specifically ask Fr. Tapper if he recalled who from the seminary may have provided supply work to Santa Maria Del Popolo during the time of the alleged abuse
- Determine if Rev. _____ is alive and speak with him [according to Rev. Daniel Smilanic, _____ is either resigned from the priesthood or is deceased]
- Determine if any teachers, religious, etc. could be located who may have been assigned to or working at Santa Maria Del Popolo at the time of the alleged abuse

On July 15, 2008, Harvey Radney, Hillard Heintze Senior Vice President, contacted Ms. McCluskey to discuss additional investigative procedures related to the investigation of this matter.

On July 17, 2008, Radney assigned Investigator Daniel Everett the primary responsibility of conducting the follow up investigation.

Research and Site Visits

On August 12, 2008, at 12:00 p.m., Investigator Everett conducted an on-site inspection of Santa Maria Del Popolo School in Mundelein, IL. Upon arriving at the school, the investigator was met by the school secretary who identified herself as Cathy Petrocelly. The investigator had previously contacted Ms. Petrocelly and scheduled the school visit to visually inspect any storage rooms located within the school property. Ms. Petrocelly informed the investigator that Santa Maria School had used two different buildings for their classrooms for many years. She stated as of September 2008, all school classrooms were located in the building at 126 N. Lake Street which is the main school building.

Ms. Petrocelly escorted the investigator to the school building located at 40 N. Seymour Ave. This building is located directly across the street from the main school building and is in the lower level of Santa Maria Del Popolo Church. Ms. Petrocelly conferred with other teachers present at the school and the general consensus was that in the late 1960's and early 1970's the upper classes, grades 7 and 8, would have been located in the church building.

While touring the church/school building, the investigator observed a storage room next to the school kitchen. This room was approximately 20'x20' in size. This room contained miscellaneous school and church supplies. The investigator was then shown a closet/storage room next to the school office. This room was also found to be approximately 20'x20' in size and also contained miscellaneous school and church items. The investigator was then shown a third supply room which was located near the entrance of the building. This room also appeared to be approximately 20'x20' and is currently used as a janitor's closet containing several janitorial items. The investigator then observed a larger storage room located near the boy's and girl's bathrooms. This room was larger, approximately 40'x40'.

The investigator learned that nine classrooms are located on this garden level floor. None of the above-mentioned storage rooms are accessible from the classrooms. The investigator observed that all of the storage rooms were locked and required a key to be opened.

Ms. Petrocelly escorted the investigator back to the main school building located at 126 N. Lake Street. The investigator was shown a small room on the first floor used as a Religious Education room in the school. This room was located across from the chapel and appeared to be approximately 15'x40' in size. Ms. Petrocelly believed this room was a storage room at one time. The investigator was next shown a much larger storage room located on the second floor of the school building. This room was approximately 60'x60' in size, and had several school items stored inside. The investigator was next shown a small janitor's closet located on the second floor. This room was approximately 10'x6' in size. Miscellaneous janitorial items were stored in this room.

The investigator was then shown two additional storage rooms on the second floor. The first was approximately 80'x8' in size. The second was a very large attic-type room which was used to store larger items. Again, none of these storage rooms were accessible from the classrooms. The investigator also observed much of the land surrounding the Santa Maria Del Popolo School and Church is a parking lot and very possibly could have been used as a play lot area for the school children.

Ms. Petrocelly informed the investigator there is a woman, who periodically fills in as a substitute teacher. It taught at Santa Maria Del Popolo School full-time for many years in the 1960's and 1970's. Ms. Petrocelly felt could be much more specific regarding the layout of the two school buildings as they existed in the 1960's and 1970's.

KEY FINDINGS

Allegation Statement: stated in his allegation his first recollection of "weirdness" by Fr. Job was when he was 11 or 12 years old. He spoke of Fr. Job taking him upstairs in the rectory into an office-type room where Fr. Job would hug him from behind and put his hands down and under his pants. stated he felt petrified. Later in his statement, estimated the abuse began in about 1970 when he was in the 7 th grade.
Supporting Fact: Although provides conflicting statements regarding Job's first contact with him, Job was assigned to Santa Maria Del Popolo between December 1969 and May 1970, when was in 7 th grade and 12 years old. Job was ordained and transferred to St. John (Baptist) Vianney following his ordination. The approximate time frame presented by is supported by the narrow period Job was present at SMDP.
FINDING #2 Allegation Statement:
He further stated the abuse occurred while he was in the seventh grade, when Job would come to his class and tell the teacher he would need his help. Job would then take to the closet where the supplies were kept.
Conflicting Statement: According to date of birth, he would have been a first grade student in approximately 1963. Further, the 1 st grade and 7 th grade classrooms are housed in separate buildings. stated in his allegation the first instance of abuse occurred when he was 11-12 years old (1968-69). stated there were approximately twenty instances of abuse over a period of one year which is in conflict with the length of time Job was actually assigned to SMDP.
Allegation Statement: made the following statements which were supported by interviews or other independent means: • Job would take and other altar boys bowling at Mundelein lanes. Fr. Thomas Franzman, a close personal friend of Thomas Job, stated Job would bring young people to the seminary in Mundelein to bowl and use other facilities such as the basketball and baseball facilities. • stated the abuse by Job took place in the rectory (on the second)
Sister stated she did not recall an office on the second floor of the rectory but did remember a copying machine being located in one of the rooms. This fact was also stated by . This creates the possibility that a 12-13 year old might describe as an "office-type" room, one in which a also stated Job stayed in the rectory with copying machine was located. Monsignor Meegan when he was not at the seminary in Mundelein, while other priests, including , lived in another building which was owned by the church and located a short distance from the main rectory. Investigator Everett, during a site visit to SMDP, noted several supply rooms and janitor's closets located throughout the school buildings which supported stated he sold Job his Chrysler automobile, but could not recall the color of the vehicle. described Job's vehicle as maroon in color. While the fact was established Job did own a vehicle, none of the persons interviewed could recall the color.

FINDING #4

Two attempts, through two separate sources, to locate the SMDP school records for have been made. At this time, we have been unable to verify his attendance at Santa Maria Del Popolo.

CONCLUSIONS

In his allegation statement of April 24, 2008, presents statements as fact which are either confirmed or partially corroborated by witnesses interviewed by the investigator in this case. The timeframe of when the incidents occurred are supported by the narrow window of Job's presence at SMDP. Descriptions of the rectory, the school and activities of Job's interaction with children of the parish provided by in conjunction with the allegation timeframe, are also consistent. There remain areas which appear to be a lack of recall or outright enhancement of facts by the accuser. This does not impugn the possibility that the inappropriate activity did occur.

Re:	PFR-122 Job/

From: Investigator Daniel Everett

On August 3, 2008, at 3:00 p.m., Investigator Everett conducted a face-to-face interview with Fr. John Tapper. Fr. John Tapper is a retired Diocesan priest living at the purpose of the interview was to obtain information regarding a confidential investigation of inappropriate behavior by a deacon involving minor children at Santa Maria Del Popolo.

Investigator Everett informed Fr. John Tapper the focus of this investigation was Thomas Job who was assigned to Santa Maria Del Popolo as a Deacon in the early 1970's. Fr. Tapper stated he was ordained as a priest in 1961. He was assigned as an associate pastor from June 1970 until sometime in 1974. Fr. Tapper stated Job had already been working at SMDP as a Deacon when he arrived. Fr. Tapper recalled Job had been ordained as a priest some time in 1970. Fr. Tapper recalled Job being assigned to St. John Baptist Vianney in Northlake, IL after being ordained but was very reluctant to leave SMDP.

Fr. Tapper stated he did not live in the rectory at SMDP. He lived in another residence a short distance away. Fr. Tapper stated he had very little contact with Job during his stay there. Fr. Tapper recalled Thomas Franzman being a very good friend of Job and believes Thomas Franzman is currently an active priest with the Chicago Archdiocese. Fr. Tapper recalled Job as a "pompous" person who thought highly of himself. Job's primary responsibility was running the altar servers program. Fr. Tapper recalled Job taking three altar boys to on a summer vacation. Fr. Tapper could not recall the names of two of the boys, but did recall one of the boys was . Fr. Tapper could not recall when this travel took place. When questioned further, Fr. Tapper stated this was not a religious retreat but instead just a vacation to Fr. Tapper also recalled Job spent a good deal of time with the three boys, and always remembered being very nervous when Fr. Tapper gave him instructions on various chores he had to do around the rectory. Fr. Tapper stated he felt something was not right about this situation. Fr. Tapper recalled seeing the three boys consistently being called to serve as altar boys for the more important masses, such as funerals and weddings. According to Fr. Tapper, many of the altar boys had various jobs in the parish. Fr. Tapper at this time, made it perfectly clear he had never seen Job acting inappropriately around any minor children, but always had his doubts about Job since he spent so much time around these three altar boys. Fr. Tapper stated he never observed Job showing any excessive affection toward any minor children.

The investigator then questioned Fr. Tapper about his recollection of the church rectory at SMDP. Again, Fr. Tapper stated he did not live in the rectory, but was able to recall the rectory had been demolished some time ago. Fr. Tapper remembered the rectory had an office on the first floor. He recalled a bathroom and two or three bedrooms on the second floor. Fr. Tapper stated it was very common for children of the parish to spend time in the rectory. Fr. Tapper stated Monsignor Meegan had recruited many of the students to work in the rectory. The majority of these students were male according to Fr. Tapper.

Fr. Tapper recalled one family by the name of A few of the boys in the family, along with their sister worked in the rectory. owned and operated a in the area. Fr. Tapper thought the family was close friends with Job.
The investigator then questioned Fr. Tapper regarding the physical description of Santa Maria Del Popolo School. He stated although he had been in the school on many occasions while working at SMDP, he could not describe the school building. Fr. Tapper was not able to recall any information on a supply room at the school.
Fr. Tapper stated Fr. Thomas Franzman and Fr. knew Job rather well, and thought they may have additional information to assist the investigator.
Fr. Tapper recalled a friend by the name of least told him several years ago that Job had acted in an unofficial capacity as an administrator at St. Peter Damian Parish in Bartlett, IL. Job's parents lived in the parish. Job had volunteered his services at St. Peter's while he was still enrolled in the seminary. According to Job had propositioned son for some type of sexual act. Job's proposition and that was the end of it. This incident allegedly occurred sometime in the late 1960's

When asked, Fr. Tapper stated he did not recall what type or color vehicle Job drove while assigned to SMDP.

The investigator then asked Fr. Tapper if he had any additional information to share. Fr. Tapper stated he did not and the interview was concluded.

Re: PFR-122 Job/

From: Investigator Daniel Everett

On August 8, 2008, at 10:15 a.m., Investigator Everett conducted a face-to-face interview with Fr. Thomas Franzman. Fr. Franzman is currently assigned as the Director of the Sheil Center in Evanston, IL which is associated with the Newman Center at Northwestern University. Fr. Franzman was informed the purpose of the interview was to obtain information regarding a confidential investigation of inappropriate behavior involving a deacon at Santa Maria Del Popolo. This interview took place at the Archdiocese Office located at 155 E. Superior St.

Investigator Everett informed Fr. Franzman the person named in these allegations was Thomas Job who was assigned to Santa Maria Del Popolo as a deacon in the early 1970's. Fr. Franzman stated he has known Thomas Job for many years. They first met at Quigley High School in 1961 or 1962. Fr. Franzman and Job were classmates and became good friends when they attended Niles College together. Both Fr. Franzman and Job were ordained in 1970. Fr. Franzman was then assigned to St. Bede's in Ingleside, IL and Job was assigned to St. John Baptist in Northlake, IL. Fr. Franzman believes Job was a working Deacon at SMDP for 6 months prior to being assigned to St. John's. Fr. Franzman and Job had stayed in touch with one another throughout the years.

Fr. Franzman had little firsthand knowledge or contact with Job when he was at SMDP as a deacon. He stated, however, he believed Job's duties while at SMDP were general duties such as teaching religion, doing baptisms and working with the altar boys. He does recall Job bringing younger people to the seminary in Mundelein, IL to bowl and use other facilities such as the basketball and baseball facilities.

Fr. Franzman stated he remembered Job was always around young people and believed he always worked well with them. Franzman always considered Job to be a good teacher. He never witnessed any inappropriate behavior by Job and stated he felt very sorry to hear of these allegations against Job. Franzman stated when Job worked with younger people they were always in a group and he never knew Job to be alone with one or two children. Fr. Franzman always felt Thomas Job's relationship with children was normal.

Fr. Franzman stated children never said anything bad about Thomas Job and he was usually strict with the children.

Fr. Franzman stated years ago he and Job bought a summer cottage together in the area which they still own. Fr. Franzman recalled Job bringing children to the cottage, but it was always a group of them. When asked, Fr. Franzman stated he does remember Job taking children on vacation to but never thought anything of it because he felt Job, as many priests had done, tried to recruit young male subjects to consider joining the priesthood some day. Fr. Franzman recalled Job taking two or three boys with him to and believed they may have gone to or When asked, Fr. Franzman stated he did not recall what type of vehicle Job had driven during that period.

Fr. Franzman is still in touch with Job and during a conversation some time ago Job asked Fr. Franzman if he had heard of any allegations of inappropriate behavior by him involving minors. Job told Fr. Franzman he was sorry if he caused him any embarrassment, but did not elaborate.

Fr. Franzman was asked if he had any additional information he wanted to share and the interview was concluded.

Re: PFR 122

Dear Jim,

I called St. Mary of the Lake Seminary today and spoke with Rev. Denis Lyle's secretary, to ask for information on Thomas Job. Fr. Lyle is the rector of the seminary.

called me back and said that all information in Thomas Job's seminary file indicates that his diaconate assignment was Santa Maria Del Popolo. The information in the file includes the following reports of deacons:

- 1. 12/20/69 Final Report of the Pastor, Msgr. Meegan
- 2. 12/20/69 Final Report of the Supervisor, Rev. Peter Wilkin
- 3. 12/30/69 Final Report of the Associate, Rev. David Cortese said that it looks like Thomas Job was at Santa Maria Del Popolo the summer prior [1968] working, maybe not as a deacon. She explained that there now is a letter in priest files where they served their diaconate assignment prior to being ordained.

I have also attached a copy of the 2006 review that Patty Zacharias did of Thomas Job's seminary file. As you can see, no specific dates and/or letter concerning Job serving as a deacon at Santa Maria Del Popolo, but certainly references and evaluations.

Hope this helps.

MEMORANDUM

File - PFR-122

From:

Patty Zacharias, Professional Responsibility Assistant Administrator

Re:

Job, Rev. Thomas [Resigned]

Date:

November 20, 2006

Per Professional Responsibility Administrator's [PRA] request, PRAA reviewed the former Rev. Thomas Job's Seminary file on November 20, 2006. The following is a summary of information in the aforementioned file:

- In a document titled Philosophy I, Semester I 1965 under the Application section, it is written in part, "Wished to withdraw after one day here. Was not dissatisfied with seminary but felt that he should not be a priest. On the whole seems very sensible to me. Impulsive first act has thus far been quite out of character with what I see of him now".
- In a document titled Summer Letter for 1965, Thomas Job describes his taking care of the servers and taking an occasional camping trip where he takes groups of boys from the parish. The name of the parish is not on the document. He references having worked there for the past five years.
- A letter dated 9/3/65 signed by Barry Horner and addressed to Monsignor Foley states in part, "He (referencing Thomas Job) spent every day here at the church and rectory helping me in many ways and getting other boys of the parish to work with him on these projects".
- Fr. Dougherty wrote in a document dated 1966-67 under Dean's evaluation, "Tom is a serious young man who is generous with his time. He is very courteous and intelligent, mature in his appearance. He seems too apologetic and obsequious at times. He seems to have many veiled or unspoken feelings. I am not sure how much he is making his own life here, his own little seminary. He seems very self-righteous when challenged. Vocation: The impression he makes is a bit spooky, somber and sad. I'm not sure I know him well at all. He does seem serious about his desire to be a priest.

- Thomas Job wrote the following in a letter titled Summer Letter 1967: "I took a trip during the summer the last two weeks of July. I had my work pretty well in hand, so I took a week and a half off to do some camping, a pastime which I particularly enjoy. I took four boys from the parish along, and went down to the Smoky Mountains in North Carolina. The boys worked for me at the rectory doing maintenance work and putting what they earned toward the trip. The parish more or less sponsored the trip, but the boys earn it on their own."
- Fr. Thomas Horne from St. Peter Damian Parish in Bartlett, IL wrote in part in a letter dated 9/5/67 and addressed to Monsignor Gorman: "Tom has no serious faults and very few minor ones. But he is heavily freighted with good qualities and abilities. In him the prime mover is a real enthusiasm about his vocation and priestly work. This motivates him to undertake and carry through almost anything. While he is not pietistic he never fails at daily mass and communion. He is constantly in the church and rectory and works with me most faithfully. He does not work alone but has a group of boys who work with him".
- Fr. Robert Dougherty wrote in a document dated 1967-1968 on letterhead from St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, "I feel more positively towards him because I have seen more of him. I feel more trust in him. I feel there is some hidden tension in my relationship with him. I find it hard to determine how open he is. There is a certain uneasiness there. I like to see him as steady and dependable, more as a person and less of a functionary. I feel that he has not yet really matured or is confident in himself. He seems somewhat insecure".
- A positive evaluation was written by Fr. Peter Wilkin from Santa Maria del Popolo Parish-dated 9/9/69. The evaluation states in part, "There have been no problems to speak of in his relationship with members of the house. The people have responded enthusiastically to him as a person and as a Deacon".
- Fr. Job wrote to Monsignor Gorman or George Kane on September 15, 1969. The letter states in part, "In closing, I cannot begin to thank you for allowing me to come to Mundelein (the letter appears to be referencing the Santa Maria del Popolo Parish) even with all of your misgivings. I would venture to say that things have worked out so well because I had shopped around and decided on this parish and they wanted me. In the future, perhaps we should let men choose their own parish if they have enough initiative to go out and find one."
- On his Personal Data sheet, Fr. Job describes an interest in continuing to work with "special religious education" and writes he had found "working in the retarded programs very helpful to me personally as well as very fulfilling ministerially".

Sr. Peg stated that in the recent past she did write a detailed letter to Cardinal George in regards her Fr. Job and her concerns. Sr. Peg expressed her hope that she would receive a response "from someone," either Cardinal George or PRA.

PRA contacted Francis Cardinal George via phone on November 2, 2005 regarding the former Rev. Thomas Job and the phone call received from his current employer [see November 3, 2005 Memorandum in file].

Cardinal George expressed his grave concern with all of the information provided by Mr.

Job's PRA informed Cardinal George that the information shared by regarding Mr. Job was communicated to Rev. Vincent Costello, Mr. Job's Vicar for Priests. When asked by Cardinal George, PRA informed him that Mr. Job is resigned, but not laicized.

Cardinal George directed PRA to contact Bishop Raymond Goedert and share with him this information regarding Mr. Job. He stated that he wanted the process to begin to have Mr. Job laicized. Cardinal George supported PRA's suggestion to have a letter written regarding Mr. Job's status and standing as a resigned priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago shared with the "...nuns...and Catholic girls' home [see November 3rd Memorandum in file]..." Cardinal George also stated that Mr. Job is not to be administering communion. He requested that all of this information be communicated to Bishop Goedert.

PRA spoke with Bishop Goedert via phone on November 3, 2005 regarding the aforementioned matter. It was agreed that Bishop Goedert would fax to PRA a copy of a decree stating that Mr. Job is not in good standing as a cleric of this diocese. Bishop Goedert stated that he would contact Fr. Costello about this matter as well.

Your Eminence:

Welcome back after what sounds like a wonderful and weary journey.

Congratulations on your 8th Anniversary as Archbishop of Chicago. I hope none of the succeeding years will be as difficult as the past one.

I would like to update you on the following priests:

Thomas Job: I saw him on August 22nd (the first time since he had moved out of St. Bede, Ingleside, July 16 and indicated he was leaving the priesthood) and he wishes to stay in Priesthood. He is working at the Lake County Alcohol Center (at my encouragement and is living in his home in St. Bede). He will be in to see me on Sept. 17. I will recommend he make an appointment with you and I will let you know the results of Sept. 17th meeting.

Dear Tom:

In light of your request and given the approval of your Pastor, Father Fitzpatrick, as well as the endorsement of Father McDonagh, I hereby grant permission for you to take part in the program as specified in your letter of June 1, 1990.

It is understood that you and Bob Fitzpatrick will work out the arrangements now. Also, the previous agreement which was worked out with the office of Vicar for Priests will remain in effect.

At the conclusion of the program, it would be advisable for you and Father Fitzpatrick to discuss future direction of your involvement. I will ask Father McDonagh to facilitate this matter.

It is my hope that you will derive satisfaction from this new endeavor. Know that you have my prayers and continued support.

For the past two and a half years I have been helping out at St. Catherine's Benet Lake Center for Alcohol and Drug Abuse. The time I spend there has gradually increased as I have become more and more involved in the substance abuse treatment process. I would like to get my certification as a Substance Abuse Counselor and have been encouraged to do so by Andy McDonough and Ray Goedert. The staff at Benet Lake has also encouraged me to go on to certification.

I have an opportunity to do so by working for the Lake County Health Department's Alcohol and Drug Abuse Program. I can be accepted into their program and complete all the necessary qualifications for certification. Enclosed is the schedule I would have while working with them. The program would begin on June 26th.

I have discussed this at length with Andy McDonough

I feel called to this form of ministry and I feel that involvement in this field would benefit the Archdiocese in many ways. I have discussed this with Fr. Bob Fitzpatrick, my Pastor and he supports my desire and the schedule is acceptable to him. I have also met with Bishop Gorman to explain my involvement to

My involvement thus far has been counseling in spirituality. The personal growth that has taken place in me has made me a far better priest and has help me to deal in a most positive way with my own problems. I ask your permission to continue working toward certification. COPY

The Board discussed Tom Job. Ray Goedert was present. We feel it is in the Cardinal's hands and Father Ventura's. If he feels St. Bede's is a good place, then they should move on that. However, Bob Fitzpatrick, pastor of the parish, has already indicated to us that he has concern about Tom Job being assigned there. We think that Tom Ventura should have this information before hs calls Bob Fitzpatrick.

Before he left for his sabbatical, Father Tom Ventura told me about his meeting with you on August 22. I am pleased that you are doing well.

He indicated that you would like to meet with me toward the end of October. I'll be happy to do so, but it will have to be in November since I will be in Rome all of October for the Synod of Bishops. Please arrange for an appointment through Ken Velo.

We probably need to talk about this over the telephone before taking any action, but here is my preliminary reaction to your two questions.

a) I do believe that there should be --- both for his sake and ours. What would that actually involve? In any case, I would hope that it could be done in a quiet, constructive way so as not to unsettle Tom (especially if everything is going well).

b) As to whether Tom Franzman should be told, I'd wait until the _______ If things are indeed going well, it may not be necessary to say anything. If there are any doubts, however, that would be a different matter.

As I said, these are my initial thoughts. I'd be happy to speak with you about it further.

Many thanks.

RE: Rev. Thomas Job '70

At the meeting with Jim Roache and Bob Kealy, this man's name came to our attention.

I believe that I have informed you of this case in the past. Bob and Jim felt that this should be brought to your attention again because of the fact that Tom Job owns a cottage with Tom Franzman. To the best of my knowledge, Tom Franzman is not aware of this problem.

Two concerns arise:

1. Should Tom Franzman be told? I have raised this issue with Job and he very strongly opposes it. I think if you decide it is necessary, we will do it but I would like to inform Job of that before hand so that he can have a part in it.

2. As I indicated in my report, I feel it is time

I'm not sure how he will react. In the past, he has talked about leaving the priesthood. That, of course, is his choice, but if so, I'd like to see that done well, not poorly. I would like to be able to tell Tom if necessary that I have your agreement that this is a good, indeed a necessary course of action, both for his good and the good of the Archdiocese.

Dear Bill-

Thanks for the ''grace period'' in getting my request sheet in to you. At a time when I must meet many deadlines legally and financially, it was a welcomed respite.

My choice sheet only has three names listed. In all honesty, I could put nothing else down. With my mother's illness and subsequent death, all of the necessary items that go with such an event, the demands made on me because I am the only family member left in handling the estate and the time spent in traveling have made it almost impossible to get around and interview at more parishes. I consider the upcoming appointment as perhaps the most crucial one in my priesthood and I regret that I could not give more time to it.

The situation in which I am now living has not helped. The tensions and pressure of an extremely unhappy house have placed a burden on me personally at this time in my life which has affected all that I'm doing. It has affected me physically as well as emotionally.

My priesthood has suffered this past year and a half and I need a complete change in location and style of ministering - that's why I have put the Cathedral first on my list. But far more than being a change in location and style, it offers me the chance to be with a good group of priests in a happy rectory with a ministering, supportive pastor - who has indicated now as well as in the past that he would like me to come to the Cathedral.

I would ask that the unique circumstances surrounding my life at present be taken into consideration in making this appointment. I thank you personally, Bill, for all the time you've given to me. Your listening and caring have helped make things a bit easier.

My prayers go with you - all of you.

Respectfully yours.

Wednesday, March 14th

John,

First, I would like to thank you and Mike for all your efforts in helping me - they're very much appreciated.

My main reason for writing this letter though, is to give you my reactions to being in Bartlett at St. Peter Damian.

Jerry Klug has done a tremendous job of establishing an excellent Christian community - and even though this is so often an overused cliche, it is true of this parish. He is a tremendous man to live with and I have found a greatdeal of support from him in my daily ministry.

I had placed Bartlett on my preferance sheet as a place where I felt I could really grow in my priesthood and where I could offer my talents to a parish that could really benefit from my being assigned there.

My short stay has already confirmed this for me. I am writing to ask you to give particular thought to making this my regular assignment. I fully tealize that at present this is only temporary. By working with Jerry I feel Icould offer tremendous help tothe parish. I cannot emphasize enough the importance to me of working in a rectory situation where there is shared workand responsibilities - as well as an atmosphere friendship where through mutual concern each of the men grows in his priesthood. I have foundsuch a rectory here.

I hope that this letter does not come too late to enter into your considerations. If not, I would appreciate greatly your taking this into account. I feel very strongly that this would be one of the best places for me tolive.

By the way, my one concern about being close to my family at this time because of my Father'shealth has also worked out fine. It has proved no hindrance to my work in the parish and I also have been able to give them the support needed at this critical time.

Yours in Christ,
