Extraordinary Appointments:

June 14, 1965

My dear Father Rohrich:

I hereby appoint you assistant to the pastor of Saint Eulalia Church, Maywood, Illinois.

You will kindly report for duty on Wednesday,
June 30, to Monsignor Muzik, the pastor.

Wishing you every blessing in this, your first appointment, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Dear Father Rohrich:

Due to the death of the Right Reverend Monsignor Martin E. Muzik, Pastor of St. Eulalia Church, 1845 South Ninth Avenue, Maywood, Illinois, that parish has become vacant.

In accordance with Canons 472 and 473, we are pleased to appoint you Administrator or Vicar Econome of St. Eulalia Church, 1845 South Ninth Avenue, Maywood, Illinois. As Vicar Econome, you will have all the obligations of the Pastoral Office, particularly that of celebrating the Missa pro populo (Canon 473, 1), just as if you were the pastor of that parish.

This appointment is effective immediately.

Your remuneration will be that set down for the pastor of the parish, all things to the contrary notwithstanding.

We wish to take this occasion to commend you for your zealous priestly labors in the Archdiocese, and we are confident that you will continue to do fine work in the parish to which we are assigning you.

Wishing you every blessing in your new pastoral charge, we remain

Very truly yours in Christ,

Dear Father Rohrich:

It is my pleasure to inform you that I have appointed the Very Reverend Monsignor William J. Quinn, formerly Vicarius Cooperator of St. Gall Parish, Chicago, as the Pastor of St. Eulalia Parish, Maywood.

As soon as Monsignor Quinn takes possession of his new pastoral office, your duties as the Vicar Econome, or Administrator, will come to an end. Effective as of that date, I am happy to re-appoint you as Vicarius Cooperator, in conformity with Canon 476, 3, of St. Eulalia Parish.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you most sincerely for your efficient handling of the affairs of St. Eulalia Parish.

With every sincere good wish, I am, dear Father Rohrich,

Very truly yours in Christ,

Dear Father Rohrich:

In accordance with the plan worked out by Father Pavis with your Pastor, Father Schmeier, I am happy to appoint you as part-time Associate Director for the Catholic Youth Organization Projects, effective immediately.

I know that you will work out your schedule so that your priestly assignment at St. Matthias parish will not be seriously hampered by the time you will give to the C.Y.O. projects. It is envisioned that you will be able to assist Father Pavis one day a week.

Thanking you for your priestly assistance in this important work and with all best wishes for success, I am, dear Father Rohrich,

Very truly yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Your Eminence:

I wish to submit my resignation as associate director of the C.Y.O. Much thought and consideration was given to this decision. Last April (1972) I first mentioned to Father Pavis that I wanted to resign but he asked me to stay on for a while. Then again in February I discussed this with Father Pavis and he again asked me to think it over for a while. Finally after much thought and prayer (especially on retreat last week) I definitely made up mind to resign from the C.Y.O.

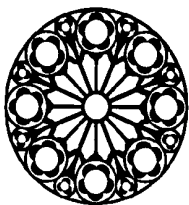

There are a number of reasons. The primary reason though is that I definitely like parish work and feel this is where I am most effective. I find it difficult (if not impossible for me) to perform duties both in parish and C.Y.O. Without a doubt my work in the parish has been affected and I feel my prime interest is the parish.

Therefore, I submit my resignation and hope that you accept it as soon as possible. Your consideration of my request will be appreciated.

Respectfully yours in Christ,

(Rev. John Rohrich)

Your Eminence:

As a replacement for Rev. Michael Hartnett, who is leaving our faculty at the end of the term, I would like to suggest the name of Rev. John F. Rohrich, presently an associate pastor at St. Matthias.

I have spoken with him and he is interested in the possibility of joining our faculty. I know that he is very able, having earned an enviable reputation in the two parishes where he has served. He is a happy, well adjusted priest who would project a good image to our students. He was ordained in 1965 and served his first appointment at St. Eulalia, Maywood.

I would be very happy if Your Eminence would find it possible to assign Father Rohrich to Quigley North.

I apologize for just getting back to you--I am out of state for a conference and was having problems with my e-mail yesterday.

I did speak with [REDACTED] last week and explained that we had spoken. He has asked me to have no direct contact with you and prefers that I speak with him on your behalf. He is your legal counsel and is trying to do what is best for you, even though I know that you are extremely frustrated at this point.

I suggest that you speak with [REDACTED] and ask him your questions and concerns regarding the Board meeting. Any information regarding the Board meeting and your case I will forward to [REDACTED] on your behalf.

RE: Rohrich, John J. (Resigned)

PFRA received notification from Jan Leonatti [JL] regarding  allegation of sexual misconduct against John J. Rohrich [JR]. After checking the spelling of the accused as well as the assignments noted by  in her allegation with Jac Treanor in Archives, it was determined that  allegation is against Fr. Rohrich, which  incorrectly spelled John J. Rohrick.

Further, JL reported that according to Archdiocesan archives, JR was assigned to St. Eulalia from 6/30/65 through 2/18/69 and was also assigned to St. Mathias. In her allegation,  reported that JR was assigned to St. Eulalia and St. Mathias parishes and that he [JR] “left suddenly while at St. Mathias” and “heard he married a divorcee with children.” According to archives, JL stated that JR is a resigned Archdiocesan priest.

Dear [REDACTED]:

We represent the Catholic Bishop of Chicago, a corporation sole ("the Catholic Bishop"). I am writing to confirm that the Catholic Bishop agrees to toll any applicable statutes of limitations on the claims of [REDACTED] against the Catholic Bishop arising out of allegations against Rev. [REDACTED], Rev. John Rohrich, Rev. [REDACTED], and Rev. [REDACTED] as of July 15, 2003. Apart from this specific tolling, the Catholic Bishop reserves all of its defenses, including that of the statute of limitations, against any claims [REDACTED] may have against the Catholic Bishop. You agree, for your part, that [REDACTED] will not commence litigation against the Catholic Bishop while this agreement remains in effect.

In addition, this tolling agreement shall last indefinitely unless it is terminated in writing by either of the parties. In order to terminate this tolling agreement, a party shall notify the other party in writing of its intent to terminate the agreement by sending written notice thereof to the other party by certified mail, return receipt requested. The termination of this tolling agreement shall take effect fourteen (14) days from the date the written notice is deposited with the United States Postal Service by the notifying party.

If you agree with the terms expressed in this letter, please sign it at the place indicated and return it to me.

Very truly yours,

Re: ALLEGATION OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT BY JOHN "JACK" ROHRICH [RESIGNED]

Date: September 3, 2003

Date of Interview: September 2, 2003

Time of Interview: 3:30pm

Present at Interview

Mr. John "Jack" Rohrich, accused
Mr. Patrick Reardon, attorney for accused
Ms. Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator [PRA]
Rev. James Kaczorowski, Vicar for Priests

Phone Interview

PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski contacted Mr. John "Jack" Rohrich and Mr. Patrick Reardon at Mr. Reardon's office at the scheduled meeting time. The meeting was conducted entirely via speakerphone.

After introductions were made, PRA described the responsibilities of the Office of Professional Responsibility as well as those of PRA. As PRA prepared to read the allegation of sexual misconduct made by [REDACTED] Mr. Rohrich agreed to interrupt PRA if he was unclear with any information that was being read to him. Mr. Reardon also requested that PRA fax a copy of [REDACTED] allegation against Mr. Rohrich to his Mr. Reardon's] office.

Once PRA finished reading the allegation in its entirety, Mr. Reardon asked how old [REDACTED] was when the alleged abuse began. PRA did not have the information, but informed Mr. Reardon that an attempt would be made to determine her exact age at the time of the alleged abuse. Mr. Reardon also stated his opinion that due to the fact that Mr. Rohrich is no longer a priest, this matter should not be under review by the Review Board. He continued that he does not feel that Mr. Rohrich needs to make a response to the allegation also due to the fact that Mr. Rohrich is no longer a priest. At Mr. Reardon's prompting, Mr. Rohrich agreed with the statement.

Fr. Kaczorowski then expressed his concern with a man who is accused and chooses not to say anything in response. He stated that if Mr. Rohrich does not respond to the allegation it is possible that the Review Board may feel that he [Mr. Rohrich] did engage in the sexual abuse of a minor. Mr. Rohrich replied that he "looks at this differently." He stated that [REDACTED] has brought allegations against him and others and that he is protecting himself.

Mr. Reardon expressed his opinion that he does "not have faith" that [REDACTED] attorney will file a lawsuit regarding this matter. However, Mr. Reardon will not advise his client to "give any free information [regarding responding to the allegation made by [REDACTED]]." Mr. Reardon then stated that Mr. Rohrich "is not admitting any guilt" to which Mr. Rohrich agreed.

PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski thanked Mr. Reardon and Mr. Rohrich for their time.

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

On September 2, 2003, you courteously advised John Rohrich and me of an accusation spoken against him by a person named [REDACTED]. This occurred during a conference call arranged with the help of Father James Kaczorowski.

Since that time you have requested Mr. Rohrich's signature on your notes of that telephone conference. I acknowledge your request. As discussed during the telephone conference, Mr. Rohrich is not a practicing priest. He therefore feels that he is not a proper subject of jurisdiction or review by the office of Professional Responsibility of the Archdiocese. Accordingly he declines to sign documents or otherwise participate in the review process.

In so declining, Mr. Rohrich and I indicate no disrespect for your procedures. Indeed, we thank you for your courtesy in advising us so appropriately of the relevant information.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO
OFFICE OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note in response to your letter of July 21, 2003, regarding the matter of John F. Rohrich, a priest ordained for the Archdiocese of Chicago who resigned from active ministry many years ago, and the allegation made by [REDACTED] following the Initial Review conducted by the Professional Responsibility Review Board on October 18, 2003.

In light of the Board's consideration of the information presented in this matter, I accept the Board's determination that the information they received at least seems to be true that John F. Rohrich engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor.

With this letter is a decree which appoints you as the investigator into an allegation of sexual misconduct with a minor that was made against John F. Rohrich. The terms of this investigation are spelled out in the decree.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO
OFFICE OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Having received the recommendation of the Archdiocesan Professional Fitness Review Board that there is "reasonable cause to suspect" that John F. Rohrich engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor, I have concluded that this constitutes information which "at least seems to be true" (c. 1717).

Therefore, in accordance with the aforementioned canon, I decree that an inquiry be done into the facts and circumstances of this accusation, as well as its imputability to John Rohrich.

Since my other duties prevent me from conducting this investigation personally, I hereby appoint Ms. Leah McCluskey to act as the investigator in this matter. In carrying out these duties, Ms. McCluskey will have all of the authority of an auditor, in accordance with cc. 1428 and 1717. She is to collect any additional proofs she deems necessary in accordance with the norm of law as they relate to the present allegation. She is delegated to take testimony from the accused and from any witnesses (cc. 1530 – 1538 and 1547 – 1573), to obtain any necessary documents (cc. 1540 – 1546), to enlist the services of any experts deemed necessary (cc. 1574 – 1581), and to have access to places or things which she deems necessary for her investigation.

In conducting her investigation, Ms. McCluskey is to take care that such an investigation does nothing to harm John Rohrich's name or to violate his right to protect his privacy.

After she has concluded her investigation, Ms. McCluskey is to make a written and oral report to the Professional Responsibility Review Board, no later than one hundred eighty days from the date of this appointment. This report is to address the facts, circumstances, and imputability concerning the alleged offense.

Do we have an assignment list for John Rohrich? If so, could you please obtain a list of all men who served with him at assignments? --I know it is a lot of work, but I need to find people who are alive who may know something about him when he was a priest.

Thanks.

Dear [REDACTED]

I so appreciated your openness and honesty in our phone conversation today. You made your frustrations and disappointments with the Archdiocese and with this process extremely clear. I hope that the enclosed information will be helpful to you in terms of answering some of your questions and concerns.

I have enclosed a copy of §1100 Sexual Abuse of Minors: Policies for Education, Prevention, Assistance to Victims and Procedures for Determination of Fitness for Ministry, which is the same document that you located on the internet on the Archdiocese of Chicago website. The other enclosed documentation I provide to individuals at meetings where he/she has chosen to formalize his/her allegation. Copies of the pamphlet from the Department of Children and Family Services and the "Important Notice" referring to DCFS and the State's Attorney are provided to the individual formalizing his/her allegation. I use the "Statement of Allegation" form to record basic information during the meeting so that I can incorporate it into my report.

As we discussed, I will look over your file and make your noted changes to the report in your file for your review. Once I have made your indicated changes, I will forward you a copy of the original report regarding John Rohrich as well as draft a copy of the report with your incorporated changes. I hope to have this information to you by the end of next week.

Dear [REDACTED]

As we agreed when we spoke last Friday, I did review the original report written based upon our meeting last year detailing your allegation against John Rohrich. I did incorporate changes to a newly revised report [see date on enclosed reports] based upon your comments that were on yellow post-it notes in your Assistance Ministry file. The changes to the original report that you made addressed the meeting time and the choice given to reschedule, and experiences you had with Cardinal Bernardin. From what I read, you did not make any changes specific to the actual allegation that you made against John Rohrich.

I have enclosed copies of two reports and one copy of the post-it notes that were attached to two different pages on the original report in your Assistance Ministry file. One report [dated November 2002] is a copy of the original report that I wrote based upon our October 2002 meeting. The second report enclosed is the revised report written based upon your post-it notes.

Please take your time to review the revised report, as I will make any additions/corrections based upon your review. I ask that you please then return the revised report in the enclosed envelope so that I may type a final copy for your signature.

[REDACTED] please feel free to contact me at [312] 751-5205 with any additional questions or concerns.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces several documents reflecting Victim KN's correspondence with Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, in December 2003, concerning her allegation of abuse by Fr. John Rohrich. In her correspondence, Victim KN inquires about specific policies of the Review Board and the status of their consideration of her allegations against Rohrich. Victim KN also provided additional information concerning her alleged abuse.

Dear [REDACTED]

Hello--I hope that you had an enjoyable Thanksgiving as well. Thank you for the good wishes.

As for the policy, as it states "...the board shall exercise reasonable discretion in permitting such appearances..." the reasonable discretion is what I talked about when we spoke last week. The Board's discretion is that the accuser and/or the accused has the right to address the Board in order to present any additional information regarding the allegation itself. If that is not clear, please let me know and we can hopefully discuss your concerns in more detail over the phone.

As for the draft report that I sent to you, if you feel that there is additional information that you wish to be added to ensure of its accuracy, please add the information and return the corrections/additions to me. I will then incorporate the changes you indicate, write a final report, and send it to you for your signature. Upon completion of the final report [with signatures], I will send a copy to you and to [REDACTED]--who by the way I spoke with on Wednesday and informed him of our phone conversation.

Thanks [REDACTED]--have a good day.

Please be advised that the Professional Responsibility Review Board met on October 18, 2003 and conducted an Initial Review regarding [REDACTED] allegation of sexual misconduct against you pursuant to Article §1104.8 of the Review Process for Continuation of Ministry.

The Cardinal has accepted the Board's initial determination that the information presented at least seems to be true. This means that the Board has advised the Cardinal that the allegation is serious and not spurious, and consequently it must be investigated. The results of the investigation will be presented to the Board for a second session, which is called a Review for Cause. At the second session, the Board will decide if there is a reasonable cause to suspect that an offence has been committed, and so advise the Cardinal.

The investigation is currently being conducted. Due to the fact that this situation developed over 30 years ago, it has taken somewhat longer to contact those who may have knowledge of the circumstances.

This means that the Board has advised the Cardinal that the allegation is serious and not spurious, and consequently it must be investigated. The results of the investigation will be presented to the Board for a second session, which is called a Review for Cause. At the second session, the Board will decide if there is a reasonable cause to suspect that an offence has been committed, and so advise the Cardinal.

The investigation is currently being conducted. Due to the fact that this situation developed over 30 years ago, it has taken somewhat longer to contact those who may have knowledge of the circumstances.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at any time. I may be reached at [312] 751-5205 or via e-mail [lmccluskey@archchicago.org]. Also, please know that Rev. James T. Kaczorowski continues to be available to you. He may be reached at the Vicars for Priests office at [312] 642-1837.

Re: Rohrich, John [Resigned]

Date: December 5, 2003

PRA reached Rev.  [Retired] via phone today regarding the investigation concerning  allegation of sexual misconduct against John Rohrich.

Upon explaining the reason for the phone call, Fr.  informed PRA that he was assigned to St. Eulalia's with the former Fr. Rohrich for a short period of time in 1968. Fr.  informed PRA that he did not really know John Rohrich at all. He continued by stating that John Rohrich "barely gave me the time of day" when the two were at St. Eulalia's. Fr.  added that he did not see much of John Rohrich for various reasons. As per Fr.  Msgr. Martin E. Muzik was the pastor of St. Eulalia's at the time and died suddenly. John Rohrich was then assigned as the "administrator" of the parish, which surprised Fr.  due to the fact that John Rohrich had recently been ordained. John Rohrich's assignment as administrator was short, as Msgr. William J. Quinn was named pastor.

Fr.  was a member of the Personnel Board, which he feels may have caused poor feelings towards him by John Rohrich. As a result of his work with the Personnel Board, Fr.  was often away from St. Eulalia's during the day. Fr.  added that he did not live in St. Eulalia's rectory [where John Rohrich resided] and that he lived in a separate house away from the rectory near the Eisenhower Expressway.

PRA thanked Fr.  for his time. He may be reached at , St. Peter Damian parish.

Re: Rohrich, John [Resigned]/[REDACTED]

Date: December 10, 2003

PRA spoke with Rev. [REDACTED] regarding [REDACTED] allegation of sexual misconduct against John Rohrich. Fr. [REDACTED] is the current pastor of St. Robert Bellarmine and was assigned to St. Eulalia parish in 1965 with the former Fr. Rohrich.

Fr. [REDACTED] initial question of PRA was, "I'm not accused of anything, am I?" PRA assured Fr. [REDACTED] that the reason for the phone call was in regards to the investigation of [REDACTED] allegation of sexual misconduct against John Rohrich.

Fr. [REDACTED] confirmed that he was assigned with John Rohrich at St. Eulalia's in 1965. As per Fr. [REDACTED] St. Eulalia's was his first assignment and that John Rohrich had "come to St. Eulalia's to replace me." As a result, Fr. [REDACTED] "wasn't there [St. Eulalia's] too long with him [John Rohrich]." PRA asked Fr. [REDACTED] if he recalled any behaviors of John Rohrich's that were odd, or if John Rohrich had any young boys or girls over in the rectory. Fr. [REDACTED] stated that he did not ever see John Rohrich with any minors in the rectory. He continued, "Let me put it this way. I didn't notice anything out of the ordinary [regarding John Rohrich's behavior while at St. Eulalia's]."

PRA thanked Fr. [REDACTED] for the information provided and for his time.

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your letter. I assure you that the Review Board will be presented a copy of your letter along with all other documentation when this matter is presented to them for their recommendations to Cardinal George.

Enclosed you will find a final copy of the report with your corrected dates and additional comment. Please sign and date the report and return it to me in the provided envelope. I will then read the final report to the accused for his response. A copy of the final report with all three signatures will be mailed to you and to your attorney, [REDACTED]

In regards to when this matter is presented to the Board, this will be on the January 10, 2004 agenda. Between now and then I plan to read the revised allegation with your signature to John Rohrich and receive his response.

I will be sending to you copies of the other three written reports as you requested. Upon your receipt of them, please take your time in reading them over and return to me with any additions/corrections. I will then return them to you in the same manner as the first.

Thank you so much for your time--I agree that 13 years is a long time for this process, but I assure you that I am working as well as I can to continue to move this matter forward. As always, please call me at [312] 751-5205 or e-mail me at lmcluskey@archchicago.org with any questions or concerns.

Re: RESPONSE TO ALLEGATION OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AGAINST JOHN "JACK" ROHRICH [RESIGNED] MADE BY

Date: December 30, 2003

Date of Meeting: December 30, 2003

Time of Meeting: 11:00am

Present at Meeting

Mr. John "Jack" Rohrich
Mr. Patrick Reardon, attorney for Mr. Rohrich
Ms. Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator [PRA]
Rev. James T. Kaczorowski, Vicar for Priests

Phone Meeting

Fr. Kaczorowski and PRA contacted Mr. Reardon via phone from the Office of Professional Responsibility at 11:00am for the scheduled interview. Mr. Reardon then contacted Mr. Rohrich and linked him to the conference call. The meeting was conducted entirely via speakerphone. Prior to reading the allegation, Mr. Reardon accepted PRA's offer to fax the report detailing the revised allegation of sexual misconduct against the former Rev. John Rohrich made by .

After introductions were made, PRA explained that  has made some changes/additions to her original allegation of sexual misconduct against the former Fr. Rohrich.

PRA read to Mr. Rohrich the entire revised allegation made against him by  without any interruptions. Mr. Reardon informed PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski that "Jack [Mr. Rohrich] has already made a response, that he is not going to make a response." Mr. Reardon continued by stating that Mr. Rohrich is "not going to provide an attorney with any discovery materials [by responding to the allegation]." Further, Mr. Reardon stated that he recommends that Mr. Rohrich not respond to the allegation due to the fact that they are not seeking any review of this matter by the Review Board.

Fr. Kaczorowski then responded to Mr. Reardon's statements by recommending some sort of response from Mr. Rohrich. Fr. Kaczorowski spoke about the possible recommendations of the Review Board pertaining to this matter and the difficulty they may experience by not having any response at all from the accused. Mr. Reardon then responded that if Mr. Rohrich decided to "change his mind" in regards to providing a response to the allegation "we'd certainly let you know." Fr. Kaczorowski then spoke of attorneys representing other alleged victims who have released names of those accused to the media. Mr. Rohrich admitted that he was concerned that his name may be released and that the media may convey that he sexually abused a minor.

Mr. Reardon appreciated all that was said by Fr. Kaczorowski. However, Mr. Reardon expressed his opinion that [REDACTED] allegation has several "weaknesses," including the lack of an indication of when [time frame and ages] the alleged abuse took place. Mr. Reardon then spoke of the difficulty of "trying to prove a negative when all of the information is not there." Therefore, Mr. Reardon does not feel comfortable advising Mr. Rohrich to respond to [REDACTED] allegation. Fr. Kaczorowski responded by recommending, "If it [alleged abuse] didn't happen, say it didn't happen."

PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski thanked Mr. Reardon and Mr. Rohrich for their time.

Approximately 15 minutes after the phone call ended, Mr. Reardon and Fr. Kaczorowski spoke via phone again. Mr. Reardon informed Fr. Kaczorowski that after discussing the matter with Mr. Rohrich, Mr. Reardon would provide PRA with a response to the allegation and fax it to the Office of Professional Responsibility.

Dear: Ms. McCluskey,

In a conference call this morning you advised my client, John Rohrich, of amendments to an accusation made against him by [REDACTED]. I have previously advised you on behalf of Mr. Rohrich that he would make no response to the accusation, since he is not in ministry and seeks no review by the Professional Responsibility Board.

Once again, Mr. Rohrich does not wish to respond to the details of [REDACTED] amended statements. However, he does state unconditionally that he has never engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor at any time, whether while in active ministry or at any other time.

In declining to respond to specific allegations by [REDACTED] Mr. Rohrich and I indicate no disrespect for your procedures. Indeed, we thank you for your courtesy in advising us so appropriately of the relevant information.

Dear [REDACTED]

I am so sorry to have missed your phone call the other day. It was very good to hear from you--and I have begun a search for the book that you suggested to me.

I just hung up the phone with Fr. Kaczorowski [John Rohrich's Vicar], requesting that we schedule a meeting with Rohrich and his attorney so that I may read the revised and signed allegation. I explained to Fr. Kaczorowski that I would like for the meeting to take place next week, as I intend to have this matter on the January 10, 2004 Review Board agenda.

Thank you so much for sending the pictures. I will certainly place them in your file and the Review Board will be given copies of the pictures and your letter along with the other relevant documentation for the next board meeting.

I of course will keep you informed as the process continues. I thank you for your patience and your openness with me and with this office. Once I present the information to Rohrich, I will contact you to let you know of his response. Meanwhile, enclosed you will find a copy of your allegation report from the October 10, 2003 meeting.

Take care and have a Happy New Year!

Peace,

Happy New Year! Good to hear from you. We do have a Board meeting on the 10th [this Saturday] and you are on it. I will be able to inform you of the Board's recommendations only after I have received a final decision [in writing] from the Cardinal. Dependent upon the Cardinal's schedule, I usually have a final decision within 5-10 days. You will certainly receive a formal letter from me with the Cardinal's decision, however I can e-mail you once I hear from him as well.

As for the other reports, I am working on having them sent out to you.

Thank you again for the recommendation of the book. I still have not yet located it.

Take care,

Leah

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract supplements emails from Victim KN to Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, spanning a period from December 2003 through January 2004. In her emails, Victim KN seeks additional information regarding the Review Board process of consideration of her allegation against Fr. John Rohrich.

From: Leah McCluskey
To: [REDACTED]
Date: 1/6/04 8:00AM
Subject: Re: cardinal's decision

[REDACTED]

The Cardinal makes his final decision based upon the Review Board's recommendations concerning all allegations of sexual misconduct presented to them. Essentially, the Cardinal makes the final decision if there is "reasonable cause to suspect" or if there is "no reasonable cause to suspect [based upon the material presented to the Board]" that the misconduct occurred. In the policies, reference pgs. 25-30. In short, the Board makes recommendations and the Cardinal is the only one who is able to make decisions.

Hope that helps.

Talk to you soon,

Dear Mr. Rohrich,

Please be advised that the Professional Responsibility Review Board met on January 10, 2004 and were to conduct a Review for Cause regarding [REDACTED] allegation of sexual misconduct against you pursuant to Article §1104.9 of the Review Process for Continuation of Ministry.

The Cardinal has accepted the Board's determination that the Review for Cause be postponed and that I request to speak with [REDACTED] in attempts to obtain additional information regarding the specifics of her allegation against you. I have asked that her attorney [REDACTED] contact me so that we may discuss the Cardinal's determinations.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at any time. I may be reached at [312] 751-5205 or via e-mail [lmccluskey@archchicago.org]. Also, please know that the Rev. James T. Kaczorowski continues to be available to you. He may be reached at [312] 642-1837.

Sincerely,

Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing this letter in regards to your client, [REDACTED] and her allegation of sexual misconduct against John Rohrich.

As we have previously discussed, the Review Board had requested that I meet with and/or ask [REDACTED] additional clarification questions regarding the specifics of the allegation. I apologize for having to ask additional questions of [REDACTED] and thank you in advance for allowing for such a request.

The purpose of the request for information is based upon the Review Board's desire to have as much information as possible regarding this matter prior to making a recommendation to the Cardinal. The following request for information is based upon the Review Board's review of [REDACTED] signed allegation that she dated December 15, 2003.

1. The Board asked if [REDACTED]
2. The Board asked if [REDACTED] could describe the interactions with Fr. Rohrich that escalated [REDACTED] and approximately how old she was at the time. Also, if [REDACTED] can recall how Fr. Rohrich [REDACTED]
3. The Board asked if [REDACTED] could further describe Fr. Rohrich's [REDACTED] such as if he used force or exhibited violence.
4. The Board asked if [REDACTED]

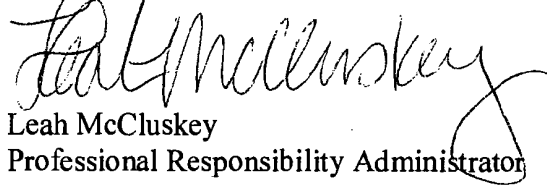

In reviewing the report, I also have the following questions:

1. [REDACTED] How did she actually meet him? Did she go to St. Eulalia's or did another individual introduce her to Fr. Rohrich? [REDACTED]
2. When [REDACTED] stated that Fr. Rohrich kissed and fondled her, where was she when the abuse took place and did he fondle her under and/or over her clothing?

█ it is not my intent to make this process to be any more difficult for █ than it already has. I also do not mean to be intrusive with my questions. I only hope to gather any additional information to present to the Review Board so they may make a recommendation to the Cardinal.

Please feel free to call me at [312] 751-5205 with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Victim Statement Abstract

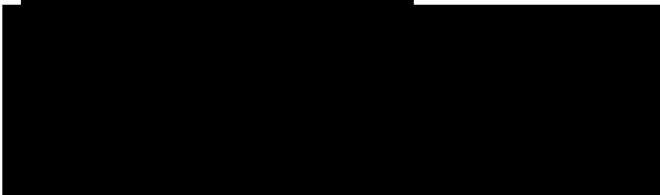

This abstract supplements a letter from Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office for Professional Responsibility, to Victim KN's attorney, dated March 15, 2004, requesting additional information about Victim KN's allegation against Fr. John Rohrich. In her letter, McCluskey requests additional information regarding Victim KN's interactions with Rohrich, how they met, and where the alleged abuse took place.

Victim Statement Abstract

This abstract replaces a letter from Victim KN to Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator for the Archdiocese of Chicago's Office of Professional Responsibility, dated March 21, 2004. In her letter, Victim KN replied to the Review Board's request for additional information concerning her allegations of abuse by Fr. John Rohrich. Among the information provided was clarification that the alleged abuse occurred in the St. Eulalia.

DRAFT

To: PFR-114

From: Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator

Re: JOHN F. ROHRICH'S [RESIGNED] RESPONSE TO ALLEGATION OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT MADE BY [REDACTED]

Date: May 11, 2004

Date of Meeting: April 29, 2004

Time of Meeting: 2:45pm

Present at Meeting

Mr. John "Jack" Rohrich
Mr. Patrick Reardon, attorney for Mr. Rohrich
Ms. Leah McCluskey, Professional Responsibility Administrator
Rev. James T. Kaczorowski, Vicar for Priests

Conference Call

PRA and Mr. Patrick Reardon joined Rev. James T. Kaczorowski in the Vicar for Priests office. Mr. John Rohrich was then contacted via phone so that the additional information provided by [REDACTED] regarding her allegation of sexual misconduct against the former Rev. John Rohrich could be read to the accused.

PRA informed those present that the information to be read to Mr. Rohrich was obtained after the independent Review Board requested additional information from [REDACTED]. PRA then proceeded to read the additional information to Mr. Rohrich in its entirety.

After the additional information was read, Mr. Reardon spoke for Mr. Rohrich by stating that "our response [to [REDACTED] allegation] is the same [please refer to Mr. Rohrich's original response]...we are not going to provide discovery [material] for a potential lawsuit by [REDACTED] [attorney for [REDACTED]]."

In response to Fr. Kaczorowski's question regarding providing a response from Mr. Rohrich that he either agrees to the allegation or denies it, Mr. Reardon stated, "We're not going to respond...[we're] not affirming and [we're] not denying." Mr. Reardon expressed his feeling that [REDACTED] will file a lawsuit on behalf of [REDACTED] and if that does happen, he explained, "We'll [Mr. Reardon and Mr. Rohrich] fight it." Mr. Rohrich then stated that he would "go along with what Pat is saying."

Fr. Kaczorowski again advised Mr. Rohrich to provide "some kind of response...either you did do it or your didn't do it." Mr. Reardon again referred to his original response and reiterated that he would not provide discovery material for [REDACTED]

PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski thanked Mr. Rohrich and Mr. Reardon for their time. Both PRA and Fr. Kaczorowski invited Mr. Rohrich to contact them with any additional questions or concerns regarding this matter. It was agreed that PRA would forward Mr. Rohrich a draft of this report for his review.

Mr. John Rohrich reviewed this report and his signature is a statement of agreement of the accuracy of what he said is in fact reported here. PRA spoke with Mr. John Rohrich via phone from the Vicar for Priests' office for approximately 30 minutes.

Dear Ms. McCluskey,

I am writing to you in order to formalize my handwritten note of June 21, 2004 in response to your letter of that same date, regarding the matter of John Rohrich, a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago who resigned from active ministry in 1975, and the allegations of sexual misconduct that were made against him by [REDACTED]. I understand that a Review for Cause was conducted by the Review Board on June 19, 2004.

I accept the Review Board's determination that there is reasonable cause to suspect that John Rohrich engaged in acts of sexual misconduct with a minor. Given the fact that he has resigned from active ministry, I also agree with the Review Board's recommendation that nothing further be done regarding John Rohrich and that [REDACTED] be accorded appropriate pastoral care.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

DECLARATION

IN THE NAME OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY. AMEN

- (1) Whereas John F. Rohrich, born on April 5, 1939, was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago on April 29, 1965 at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, Mundelein, Illinois, and
- (2) Whereas he left the active ministry in 1975, and contrary to Canon 274, §2, he has shown no inclination whatsoever to return to the active ministry, and
- (3) Whereas he has attempted marriage, thus incurring the latae sententiae suspension from all acts of the power of orders, as well as the power of governance, in accord with Canons 1333, §1 and 1394, §1 of the Code of Canon Law, and
- (4) Whereas, in virtue of Canon 1044, §1, 3°, he is irregular for the exercise of orders already received,

I, Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I., by the grace of God and the favor of the Apostolic See, Archbishop of Chicago, do hereby affirm that John F. Rohrich ipso facto has incurred the penalty of suspension and is irregular for the exercise of orders, and I therefore declare:

- a) that John F. Rohrich has no authorization whatsoever to act as an agent of this Archdiocese;
- b) that he is no longer affiliated as a priest in any way with the Archdiocese of Chicago;
- c) that he should not represent himself as a Roman Catholic priest with canonical faculties, nor should he present himself as a 'Catholic priest in good standing';
- d) that the Archdiocese does not consider itself in any way responsible for the activities of John F. Rohrich, and
- e) that this Archdiocese should not be held liable for any scandal or harm to souls that he might cause.

Mother's Day

To Francis Cardinal George,

I am writing this letter to you to perhaps reach some sort of peace in my heart. I only pray that you will read this before passing it off.

My husband is John Rokicki, a former Catholic Priest from April 1965 to June 1975.

On August 29, 2003, my husband received a phone call from Rev. James T. Kaczowski, Vicar of Priests, notifying him of an allegation of sexual misconduct of a minor, by a [REDACTED]. He was advised to contact Attorney Patrick Riardon, which he did. On Sept 2, at Mr. Riardon's office, these allegations were read to him over the phone by Leah McCuskey, (Professional Review Board). He was never given a copy of these allegations. On the advice of Mr. Riardon he made no response to these charges, other than to deny that he ever engaged in sexual misconduct with a minor - ever.

On Dec. 30, 2003, again over the phone Leah McCuskey read amendments to the allegations made against him by [REDACTED]. Again, Mr. Riardon advised him to not respond other than to state unconditionally that he ever engaged in sexual abuse of a minor ever. A letter to this effect was sent to the Diocese.

The next correspondence came on Feb 9, 2004, from Fr. McCluskey (a copy of this letter is enclosed). The Professional Review Board met on Jan 10, 2004 to conduct a Review of the Cause regarding Allegation of sexual misconduct against you. "The Cardinal" has accepted the Board's determination that the Review of the Cause be postponed, and that Fr. McCluskey obtain additional information from [redacted] regarding the specifics of her allegations against you. That was the last time we heard from the Archdiocese.

On Feb 12, 2006, [redacted] released to the news media, her settlement with the Archdiocese of Chicago of $125,000 for the abuse of children. She suggested (from John Parrish, [redacted], who had resigned the priesthood and had married and another priest, who was deceased. She also had made allegations against another priest, [redacted]. Those charges were dismissed as not believable and his name was not made public. Three of those men were at different times, assigned to St. Eulalia in Maywood, Ill. One was assigned to St. James, also in Maywood. Does this seem right?

We are also aware that in 1991

He was sent to St. Matthias in Chicago, Ill. in Feb. 1969.

Sometime during that year,

[REDACTED] showed up unannounced at his Rectory. He told her he was busy and walked her to her car.

During the time at St. Matthias he worked at the CJO and began teaching at Dougley.

In Oct of 1973 he was assigned as a resident to St. Francis in Wilmette, Ill. while he continued teaching. During this year, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] again showed up unannounced at his Rectory. Again he told her he was busy and could not see her. After he resigned the priesthood in 1975, she again attempted to contact him thru his older brother.

Now we came to Rev. Daniel McCormack, who has been charged with aggravated Criminal
Sexual abuse of five young boys.
Allegations going back to when he was a seminarian 1992, again in 1999, again in 2003.

[REDACTED] stated to the media that she released the settlement of $125,000, that she received from the Archdiocese of Chicago, and the names of the Priests, because she was not happy with the way you and the Archdiocese handled the case regarding Rev. McCormack.

My husband made a mistake. He never had another charge against him, and his name was publicly slandered. We have a good family, children and grandchildren - all of us have suffered more than you could ever imagine.

Through all of this, my husband has never wavered in his faith in God and the Catholic Church.
What all Priests have gone through over the past few years is just heart breaking for them and the Church.

After being a Priest for ten years, he resigned and made another life for himself. He has had an untarnished reputation in his work in hospitals, and in the town where we live.

[REDACTED] received her $125,000 for a claim that was never proven. And we have no recourse but to try to live with this. A Priest's word against an alleged victim is worthless.

Where is the Justice and Faith in this for our family?

[REDACTED]

The Cardinal and Father Canary have talked about this letter.

Fr. Canary's comment: Settlements are made with conditions on both parties. The Archdiocese can hold up its end, but has no control over the actions taken by the other party.
