Catholic Parishes Will Open Annual Services Tues- day.

The five Catholic parishes of Dunkirk will hold retreats for young people next week, at the same time that similar exercises are being held in all the churches of the Buffalo diocese.

The retreat at St. Mary's church will be conducted by the Rev. Canise Gardiner, C. P., and will open Tuesday at 7 p. m. At the other churches, the services will be at 7:30 p. m. At St. Hyacinth's church, the Rt. Rev. Mnsgnr. Michael Helminiak and the Rev. Bernard Sierakowski will be in charge. The Rev. Julius Noe will conduct the retreat exercises at Sacred Heart church. At Holy Trinity church the Rev. John Shea and the Rev. Basil Ormsby will be in charge. The Rev. John Klimek and the Rev. Charles Drews will conduct services at St. Hedwig's church.

The retreats are being held for high school students and for boys and girls who are working.
