CHURCH SERVICES
ON CHRISTMAS EVE

Christmas Eve services were held in several Dunkirk churches, with the singing of carols and Christmas hymns in addition to the services of the day. Hundreds of people finished their last-minute preparations for the holiday, the trimming of Christmas trees, wrapping of gifts and plans for Christmas dinner, to attend church.

Services were held at St. John's Episcopal, Grace Lutheran, the First Methodist and Adams Memorial churches. All the churches were decorated with greens, poinsettias and holly wreaths for the day.

All the Catholic churches had solemn mass at midnight, and were crowded for the services. During the morning, masses were held at the usual Sunday hours.
