Rev. Donald McCarthy
Named School Director

The Rev. Donald McCarthy will become Director of the Sacred Heart high school, Salina, May 30. The position is currently held by the Rev. Donald Weber who has been director since the interparochial high school was opened August 14, 1969.

Father McCarthy has a Master of Arts degree in secondary school administration earned at Catholic University of America. He has done graduate work in counseling and guidance at Kansas State University and since 1966 has been teaching at Sacred Heart.

FATHER WEBER will continue with administration of the high school until the end of the current year. He is a member of the diocesan school board and is secretary of the Priests’ Senate. He is also administrator of the Our Lady of Guadalupe parish, Salina.

He is active in Salina community affairs, serving 6 years as secretary of the governing board of the Central Kansas Mental Health Center. He has been a member of the Salina Human Relations council and the Salina Citizens Advisory commission. He helped form the Salina Enablers, a representative group created to ease community tensions.

Islander Named Director Of High School In Kansas

The Rev. Donald P. McCarthy, a native of Salina, has been named director of Sacred Heart High School in Salina, Kan.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McCarthy, 801 12th St., Galva, Kansas, Rev. McCarthy is a 1951 graduate of Kansas High School.

He was ordained to the priesthood in 1969 after completing studies at Assumption Seminary in San Antonio. In his new post, he will direct the activities of the 305 pupil school where he has been teacher and counselor for the past seven years.

For the past five years, he has been in addition to teacher, counselor, pastor of two parishes in the Salina diocese and assistant chancellor at Marymount College, Kansas.

Rev. McCarthy has a BA degree from St. Benedict’s College in Atchison, Kan., and a MA degree from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.