

Changes in personnel set at Bishop Guertin

Brother John Louis Collignon, SC, provincial, has announced the following personnel changes for the 1981-82 academic year among the Brothers of the Sacred Heart at Bishop Guertin High School.

Brother Philip Leroux, the school's business manager, is being transferred to the Provincial House in Pascoag, R.I., as assistant to the province administrator.

He will be succeeded by Brother Robert Ducharme, who has been business manager at Mount St. Charles Academy, Woonsocket, R.I.

Also leaving BG is Brother Albert Morel, who has served as campus minister, guidance counselor and head of the religious studies department. He will become head of the guidance department at St. Dominic Regional High School in Lewiston, Maine.

Succeeding him in his duties as campus minister and guidance counselor will be Brother Paul Demers, who is preparing for his ordination to the priesthood in June.

Brother Armand Guillet, assistant to the business manager at BG, is being transferred to St. John's Hall in Woonsocket. Assuming his duties will be Brother Gilbert Chamberlain, who most recently has served in the order's Provincial House.

Other departures from Bishop Guertin include Brother Lawrence Yergeau, head of the science department, to Rome for a nine-month spiritual session at the order's Generalate, and Brother George-Aime, attendance officer, to St. James Hall, Manville, R.I.

All changes take effect Aug. 2.
