Father Gregory G. White, 32, lived in Dover, local graduate

May 23, 2002

Rev. Father Gregory G. White, 32, of Dover, died on Friday, May 10, 2002, at home.

He was born in Denville and lived in Dover.

Rev. White was a Roman Catholic priest for six years. He served as a parish priest at Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha Church in Sparta and at Saint Anthony's Church in Hawthorne. At the time of his death, he was teaching European History in Emerson High School in Emerson.

Rev. White was a 1983 graduate of Sacred Heart grammar school in Dover and later graduated from Morris Catholic High School in 1987. He went on to earn a bachelor's degree in history from Seton Hall University in 1991 and then graduated from Christ the King Seminary in Buffalo, N.Y. in 1996. He was ordained a priest at Saint John's Cathedral in Paterson on Nov. 30, 1996.

Rev. White was a Fourth Degree member of the Knights of Columbus Council 514 in Dover and was a Knight of the Order of the House of Savoy.

Rev. White is survived by his father, Howard, and his mother, Roseanne, both of Dover; a brother, Jeffrey G. of Dover; two aunts, Margaret Kovalik of Jersey City and Jane Walker of Delaware; two uncles, William and Richard, both of Delaware; and three cousins, Joseph Levak of Syracuse, N.Y.; Glenn Levak of Ohio and Alex Tunnard of Fair Lawn.

Arrangements were by Quigley Funeral Home, 68 N. Bergen St., Dover.
