Father Kevin L. Kayda

Fr. Robert M. Gillelan, Jr., Diocesan Administrator said, "The loss of any life is a tragedy, but the death of a beloved young priest is an especially difficult loss to bear. St. John of the Cross helps us to navigate this difficult passage when he says, 'And I saw a river over which every soul must pass to reach the kingdom of heaven and the name of that river was suffering ... and then I saw a boat which carried souls across the river and the name of that boat was love.' May we feel the consolation of God's love for Fr. Kayda and his family. May God's love for us be the boat that carries us across the river of suffering to his heavenly kingdom."

Father Kayda was ordained a Priest of the Diocese of Harrisburg on June 1, 2013 at St. Patrick Cathedral, Harrisburg by Bishop William Waltersheid, Auxiliary Bishop of Pittsburgh and a former priest of the Diocese of Harrisburg. He began his priestly ministry on June 17 with an assignment as Parochial Vicar at St. John the Baptist Parish, New Freedom, Pa.
