

Jesuits from other provinces who served in the Maryland Province at one time. The Province is currently aware that these Jesuits have been publicly named by other provinces or by (arch)dioceses for an allegation of abuse against a minor (anyone under the age of 18) that took place outside the Maryland Province. These allegations were not reported to or investigated by the Maryland Province.

Name	Years and Locations Serving in the Maryland Province	Further Information
Bartles, Charles	1973 – 1977: Ignatius House Retreat Center (Atlanta, GA)  GA was not part of the Maryland Province until 2013	See USA Central and Southern Province website.
Guzmán, Jaime	2004 – 2005: Jesuit Community of St. Isaac Jogues (Wernersville, PA) 2005 – 2006: St. Raphael the Archangel Parish (Raleigh, NC) 2006 – 2008: Jesuit Community of St. Isaac Jogues (Wernersville, PA)	See Chile Province website.
Landwermeyer, Francis M.	Cardinal Newman High School (Columbia, SC) St. Thomas the Apostle (Charleston Heights, SC)  SC was not part of the Maryland Province until 2013	See USA Central and Southern Province website.
Malatesta, Vincent R.	1990 – 2001: Ignatius House Retreat Center (Atlanta, GA)  GA was not part of the Maryland Province until 2013	See USA Central and Southern Province website.
Park, Austin N.	St. Mary's Church (Greenville, SC) Our Lady of the Rosary (Greenville, SC)  SC was not part of the Maryland Province until 2013	See USA Central and Southern Province website.
In addition, the Maryland Province has been informed that the following men from the USA West Province studied at some point in the Maryland Province: Joseph A. Balfe, Paul F. Corkery, Mark Falvey, Augustine J. Ferretti, Louis Taelman.		See USA West Province website.
(rev. 12 December 2018)

[end of report]

17 December 2018