The Center for Spiritual Development Celebrates Twenty-five Years

In September, 1979 the Center for Spiritual Development of the Laity opened at Blessed Sacrament High School, Yonkers, adjoining the Monastery of the Sacramentine Nuns. Over 100,000 students and other participants have come to courses, programs, workshops, pilgrimages, convocations, retreats and days of prayer since then. Ninety parishes involved 40,000 people in RENEW.

Cardinal Cooke envisioned the Center as a response of the Archdiocese of New York to the call of Vatican II in its documents to the laity to a deeper spiritual life and to participate in the mission of the Church.

The Cardinal invited Fr. Benedict J. Groeschel, OFM Cap, to search for a priest to establish and direct the Center to facilitate this development. Fr. Bruce Nieli, a Paulist Father, became the founding director.

Anniversaries gift us with special moments that “force” us to be still in our “now” moment, to reflect on the past with gratitude and understanding, so we can learn from it in the present and bring the insights from it into the future as it begins to unfold.

On November 22, at Resurrection Church, we shall celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Center. In keeping with the spirit and mission of the Center, the celebration will be one of prayer, reflection, catching up with people with whom you have shared the experience of the learning, praying and laughing together. We are blessed to have Fr. Benedict’s active participation in what he set in motion and supported so generously through his involvement in courses, programs and pilgrimages all this time.

We look forward to this day and hope to see many familiar faces. If you are in touch with others who have come to the Center, encourage them to come as well. Since we are still having financial difficulties, if for some reason you cannot come, please, as Father Benedict’s letter suggests, take a ticket and participate in that way.

It has been a special privilege for me to serve you through the mission of the Center. There are many who comment at the conclusion of a program or class that being there for that particular occasion was “so helpful,” “a blessing,” “just what I needed at this time.” We know the Spirit is at work. Please help us to continue.

Center for Spiritual Development Archdiocese of New York

THE MISSION OF THE CENTER FOR SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT:

To provide opportunities for the on-going spiritual formation of adult Christians invited to live more fully their Baptismal call through:

- an understanding of the spiritual life and the means to live it,
- a knowledge of the basic doctrines of the Faith in which one's spirituality is rooted,
- an understanding and appreciation of Scripture which nourishes adult faith,
 - an awareness of the responsibility of discipleship for every individual, both in the Church and in society, and
- a deepening attentiveness to the presence and action of God through discernment in all of life.

The Center is one response of the Church of New York to the spiritual hungers so deeply felt in our time. The spirituality we proclaim is that of the Gospels, lived in the Church for 2,000 years and still developing, as they continue into the Third Millennium.

The School of Spirituality, established by Fr. Benedict J. Groeschel, C.F.R., in 1974 to train spiritual directors, was expanded to include the Spiritual Development Program for the spiritual formation of adults in 1979. It became part of the Center for Spiritual Development in 1983, and provides programs and courses for those desiring spiritual growth.

SCHOOL OF SPIRITUALITY PROGRAMS:

Scripture, Spiritual Direction, Companions in Faith, Adult Confirmation Preparation and a variety of courses in Spirituality and Ministry.

CENTER FOR SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT SPIRITUAL OPPORTUNITIES:

Come Home Ministry, Retreats, Opportunities for Reflection and Prayer, Opportunities for Singles, Prayer Groups, Programs for Spiritual and Psychological Growth, Pilgrimages, Outreach to Parishes and Communities, and a Spiritual Direction Referral Service.

WHAT ARE THE MYSTICS TRYING TO TELL US? PART I

Mysticism has always been very hard to define but today, the mystical potential of all Christians is increasingly emphasized in speaking about prayer and the spiritual journey. Mystics experience a deep communion of love and of knowledge with God, with other people, and with all reality. During our time together, we will endeavor to explore the characteristics of the mystic, looking at the lives of some of the classic mystics, and at some who are considered mystics in our own historical moment.

PRAYER AND LIFE WORKSHOP: LEARN TO PRAY, LEARN TO LIVE

“How can I learn to pray?” “Teach me to pray.” These were the questions frequently asked of John Cardinal O’Connor wherever he went throughout the Archdiocese and people had the opportunity to exchange a few words with him.

One response is a PRAYER AND LIFE WORKSHOP, a program to help an individual to learn, in depth, the art of prayer. In this practical workshop, we learn to pray by experiencing prayer.

The workshop will teach participants to enter into a personal relationship with the Lord through a variety of methods, beginning with simple forms of prayer and reaching the heights of contemplative meditation.

Prayer is also a gift from God. The workshop offers a methodical approach and a progressive learning process. Prayer will transform us into friends and disciples of the Lord.

Through a framework of meditation on the Gospel, intensive prayer, community reflection and silencing exercises, the participants will overcome their innermost fears, feelings of anguish, sadness and anxiety.

As a result of a profound and moving experience in faith and surrender to God’s will, the participant will find an inner peace never before imagined. They will be able to find emotional stability and happiness in their lives through learning in each session, God speaks with us and we talk with God.

Father Ignacio Larrañaga, O.F.M, Cap. of Santiago, Chile, is the Founder of Prayer and Life Workshops, which are in 32 countries throughout the world. This workshop will be among the first in English in the New York area. Trained guides will direct the program.

YOUR SOUL AT WORK

Fortune magazine recently reported “a growing quest for spiritual renewal in the workplace.” Working people long for a greater sense of fulfillment and spiritual growth in what they do. YOUR SOUL AT WORK by Nicholas Weiler and Stephen Schoonover, M.D. addresses that longing. The authors’ research team interviewed over 5,000 people to identify what behaviors distinguish those who succeed in their work from those who don’t. Materials the authors have developed are used by large and small organizations worldwide (GE, IBM, AT&T, Xerox, Apple, etc.)

The authors have learned that “taking “your soul to work” requires four things—finding work you love, succeeding in it, navigating successfully through very predictable, research-proven life stage transitions, and tying your work to a high life purpose that meets your personal and spiritual values. This workshop presents specific tools and techniques to accomplish all four.

This is an interactive course and will require home preparation. The book and its accompanying workbook will be provided to registrants in advance to prepare for the first session.

Pathways Through Scripture

THE NEW YORK CATHOLIC BIBLE SCHOOL PROGRAM
Archdiocese of New York

Co-Sponsors

Center for Spiritual Development
Catechetical Office

This four-year structured scripture program provides intensive training and study of the entire Bible which enables participants to "discover the power of the biblical message, [and] also come to love God's word and uncover whole new dimensions of the Church's rich heritage of liturgy, doctrine and spiritual reading of the Scriptures." It also prepares people to teach and to lead Bible Study groups and to communicate the message more effectively.

The program requires at least a two-year commitment and uses a variety of methods. These include:

- Weekly reading and writing assignments,
- Communal prayer service at the start of each class,
- Group discussion of the weekly assignment,
- Input from a professionally trained teacher, and tests to evaluate and consolidate learning.

The first trimester began in the Spring Semester of 1999, and the first graduation for the Basic Certificate took place in June, 2001, and the first for the Advanced Four-Year Certificate, June, 2003.

The following proposed new sites for the first year, the Study of the Old Testament, are being added in September, 2003.

Course of Study

THE FIRST YEAR

THE DYNAMICS OF THE SPIRITUAL JOURNEY

The course will provide an overview of the spiritual journey with a focus on the dynamics of prayer, discernment and conversion. The stages of the journey as well as the Ignatian, Carmelite and Augustinian traditions will also be explored.

HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY

An overview of the various developments: martyrdom, monasticism, lay movements, reformation, and others, will be given. The course will also consider contemporary spirituality and its dynamics in the Church today.

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

The course will focus on understanding the psychological development of the human person through the life span as well as the disorders that can be encountered in spiritual direction. Application will be made to the spiritual direction process

THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS OF SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Since Christian spirituality is rooted in the faith of the Church, the course will include those aspects of the faith that underpin the ministry of spiritual direction.

OTHER REQUIRED EXPERIENCES

A Guided Prayer Weekend:

Divine Compassion Center, White Plains, NY

January, Year I

Communication Skills Workshop:

An introduction to the skills helpful in facilitating the process of spiritual direction.

Spring, Year I

THE SECOND YEAR

MERTON – NOUWEN SYMPOSIUM

HENRI NOUWEN AND THOMAS MERTON: WESTERN EXPLORERS OF THE CHRISTIAN EAST

Henri Nouwen and Thomas Merton, outstanding spiritual writers of the 20th Century have bequeathed a rich legacy to the 21st Century. This legacy is ever expanding as specific aspects of their writings receive attention in books, articles and lectures. Jim Forest, who was of close friend of both Henri Nouwen and Thomas Merton, will focus on the ways in which both writers were influenced by the spirituality of Eastern Christianity and became bridges, linking east and west.

Journalism and peace are the major ingredients of Jim Forest's life. He was a reporter in New York City and edited several magazines and journals. Becoming interested in peace, he joined the Catholic Worker Movement and became managing editor of the Catholic Worker. He knew Dorothy Day during the last 20 years of her life.

Touched by his influence on the lives of so many, Thomas Merton became Jim Forest's mentor with whom he corresponded regularly during the last seven years of his life. Merton, recognized for his stance on peace during the Vietnam War, corresponded with peace activists and Jim Forest saw him as playing a crucial pastoral role in the peace movement during the Vietnam War.

Jim Forest is the author of many books, published in nine languages, on such topics as praying with icons, confession and forgiveness, the Beatitudes, Russian religious life as well as biographies of Thomas Merton and Dorothy Day. He received the Peacemaker Award from Notre Dame's Institute for International Peace, was General Secretary of the International Fellowship of Reconciliation for 12 years, and is currently Secretary of the Orthodox Peace Fellowship.

WISDOM LITERATURE

THE TRADITION OF WISDOM IN THE BIBLE PART I

November 1

10:00 A.M. - 3:00 P.M.

Part 1: The Nature of Ancient Eastern Wisdom and the Bible

Part 2: The Book of Proverbs and Positive Wisdom

Part 3: Positive Wisdom in Psalms, Song of Songs and Prophets

Wisdom is one of the most important areas of biblical writing that communicates revelation in the context of the larger human questions and ways of thinking that move beyond the specific doctrines of Jewish Faith to engage the broadest issues of the ancient world with the insights of Israelite Faith. We will examine the Bible's positive attitude to learning from and questioning the world around us.

Rev. Lawrence Boadt, C.S.P.

CONTINUING EDUCATION FOR SPIRITUAL DIRECTORS

OFFERING VISIONS AND VOICES

November 1

9:00 A.M. - 3:30 P.M.

Within the Ignatian Spiritual Tradition, active imagination is one of the key internal resources for facilitating Divine-human intimacy and relationship. In the course of this workshop, the presenter will offer a typology of the primary patterns and rich descriptions of the variety of visionary and auditory experiences that she discovered through interviews with directees committed to the spiritual path whose religious experiences tended to be mediated through the internal and external senses. There will be opportunities for spiritual directors to respond to the material and to reflect on their experience with their directees.

PSYCHOLOGY AND SPIRITUALITY

PSYCHOLOGY AND SPIRITUALITY: WHERE PSYCHOLOGY FAILS

December 6

10:00 A.M. - 2:00 P.M.

In naming our wounds, the deepest questions and the deepest answers are not found in psychology, but in a spirituality that is aided by psychology but transcended.

James Sullivan

PRAYER AND PEERSONALITY TYPE

REDISCOVERING PERSONALITY TYPES AND GROWING SPIRITUALLY

January 17

9:30 A.M. - 3:00 P.M.

Participants will come with a recent Myers/Briggs profile or retake it before the workshop day. The presenter will furnish the inventory. After re-discovering one's type, the focus of the day will be fixed on prayer forms and spiritual themes suggested by one's MBTI preference.

MY ROLE IN THE INCARNATION

THE INCARNATION: EARTH SHATTERING NEWS!

February 14

10:00 A.M. - 3:00 P.M.

What do Christians have to say about the Incarnation?

How does the reality of the Incarnation affect your relationships with others, with the world?

How are you aware that the Incarnation continues in you?

In what new ways are you invited to be an Incarnational presence?

Sr. Kathleen Kanet, R.S.H.M.

A NEEDED AMERICAN SAINT

ARCHBISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN: A PROPHET FOR OUR TIMES

March 6

10:00 A.M. - 2:30 P.M.

One of the favorite quotes of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen that Cardinal O'Connor often mentioned is "We don't need a voice that's right when everybody else is right; but we need a voice that's right when everybody else is wrong." That is the voice of the prophet.

Bishop Sheen was a prophet in the Church in the Twentieth Century. His prophetic voice has much to say to us in the Twenty-first Century in the present situation in the Church and in the world.

Fr. Andrew Apostoli, C.F.R.

PRAYER

THEORY AND PRACTICE OF MYSTICAL SPIRITUALITY-- FOR THE ORDINARY PERSON

March 13

10:00 A.M. - 3:00 P.M.

Christianity abounds in theological and philosophical definitions of spirituality. To understand and practice spiritual methods appears complex.

Prayer of the heart has been explored by the mystics. The spirituality of the mystics can be examined and understood from a psychological perspective. A psychological analysis of their spirituality can make understanding easier and clearer and daily practices possible and enjoyable.

Rev. Loyola Amalraj

WISDOM LITERATURE

THE SCEPTICAL WISDOM OF THE BIBLE PART II

May 8

10:00 A.M. - 3:00 P.M.

Part 1: Ancient Near Eastern Theodicy and the Problem of God

Part 2: The Book of Job

Part 3: The Book of Qoehleth

Despite the positive conviction of Israel's Faith that God created the world good and that all things are subject to God's providence and plan, experience questions whether God always gives us good—how do we explain evil or injustice or unfair treatment? The Biblical books of Job and Qoheleth face these questions directly. See how they develop their reflections!

Rev. Lawrence Boadt, C.S.P.

PSYCHOLOGY AND SPIRITUALITY

FORGIVENESS: THE WAY TO PEACE

June 5

10:00 A.M. - 2:00 P.M.

The program will consider the core meaning of forgiveness (for self and others) and a process for extending forgiveness to those who have offended us.

Rev. John J. Cecero, S.J.

SERVICES

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION REFERRAL SERVICE

Many priests, religious and laity seek spiritual directors who are prepared for this ministry. The Center for Spiritual Development has gathered a resource pool of qualified spiritual directors. If you would like to take advantage of this service, please contact the Center.

MINISTERING TO MINISTERS

Those who minister to others, must also be nourished. The Center offers days or evenings of prayer for religious, team facilitation, goal setting, days or evenings of prayer for pastoral teams or people in similar ministries, days of prayer for individuals at the Center and spiritual direction.

THE CENTER BOOKSTORE

A variety of books on spirituality and scripture are available. Books are sold at Center programs and courses. The store is open to the public and books not in stock can be ordered and mailed. Gift certificates are available.

PROGRAMS OF RENEWAL FOR PARISHES / GROUPS, DAYS OR EVENINGS OF PRAYER AND STUDY are available for parishes and other groups. Some topics: various ways to pray, finding God in daily life, scripture, spirituality, midlife issues, caring for care-givers and others.

SPIRITUALITY RESOURCES

PERSONNEL: The Center staff has invited men, women, religious, laity and clergy who have training and experience in spirituality to be listed as resource people for the Center. Several have done so, and we invite others to call the Center for an application form.

These resource people are available for days or evenings of prayer, individual spiritual direction, supervision for spiritual directors, facilitating Scripture study groups, faith sharing groups and prayer groups. Some are also available for the direction of people through the experience of The Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius in daily life (The Nineteenth Annotation Retreat). Others have expertise in bereavement counseling, parish missions and At-Home Retreats.

TIDINGS

The Center announces the various programs and activities held during the year and is issued periodically.
