Sacred Scripture and Mary, the Mother of Jesus were among her interests. Her Master’s thesis was The Word of God in Human Living: the Proper Approach to Sacred Scripture. Pontmain, Prophecy and Protest: A Cultural-Historical Study of Nineteenth- Century Apparition is the title of the book published at the time she was awarded the Ph.D.. She had a love for Our Lady Undoer of Knots and shared the prayer with many groups.

We are grateful for the gifts Sr. Cheryl shared with others in the life of her family, the Marianites of Holy Cross and the Church. As she enters eternal life, we rejoice with her and ask that she continue to pray for us that we may appreciate ever more deeply the infinite love that our God has for each of us. The Marianites of Holy Cross are grateful to the staffs of Our Lady of Wisdom Health Care and St. Margaret’s at Mercy for the professional and compassionate care that was given to her in her final year of life.

To celebrate her life, a private graveside service will be held at the Marianite Mausoleum in New Orleans, LA. There will be a Memorial Mass at a later date.
