Mother Going To Both Academy Graduations

Annapolis, June 4 (P)—Weather permitting, Mrs. Raymond W. Vogel, Jr., will see two of her sons graduate Wednesday in separate ceremonies at the Military and Naval Academies.

"Everybody kept saying, 'No, no, no, it can't be done,'" Mrs. Vogel, of Arlington, Va., says. "But I don't believe anything is impossible."

So after five months of determined effort, she has arranged for Timothy J. Vogel to receive his diploma in an early morning ceremony at West Point, N.Y.

This will give her time to fly to Annapolis for the 11 A.M. exercises where her youngest son, Frederick J. Vogel, will be graduated.

Admiral Going Along

Also making the trip will be Rear Adm. and Mrs. Frederick James Brush, also of Arlington, who have sons graduating from both service academies. Admiral Brush is Assistant Chief of Naval Operations for Logistics.

He is assigned to the Pentagon, where Mrs. Vogel works in the Office of Naval Intelligence.

At least one other couple, Mr. and Mrs. H. Reed Laughlin, of Port Huron, Mich., solved the same problem by having each parent attend one ceremony. Cadet Frederick L. Laughlin will be commissioned an Army lieutenant. Midshipman Gary R. Laughlin will become a Navy ensign.

Began In January

Mrs. Vogel, whose husband was a Naval Commander killed in action in the Korean War, began in January to try to find a way to attend graduation at both schools, which have ceremonies the same morning each year.

Unable to persuade either to change the time, she came up with the idea of a special ceremony at one school. As a result, Cadet Vogel and Cadet William J. Brush will be awarded diplomas early Wednesday morning, at West Point.

Now Mrs. Vogel is hoping for good flying weather.

"It would be just heartbreaking not to see both of them graduate," she says.

School Bazaar Set

Garrett Heights School, No. 212, Ailsa avenue and Morello road, will hold a bazaar at noon tomorrow. Rides, games, toys, movies and supper will be featured, rain or shine.
