Re: Archdiocese of Chicago: Production of Documents: McCormack "CB8" documents

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Last week we provided to you (through Jessica Arbour) a complete set of the produced documents related to Rev. Daniel J. McCormack, comprising about 2,000 pages. The produced documents did not include McCormack's "seminary" files; as you know, we have routinely withheld seminary files with respect to all priests on the basis that they are educational records protected by statute. The seminary files for any priest may include materials from St. Mary of the Lake Seminary ("CB2"-labeled documents), Niles College/St. Joseph Seminary (CB8) and Quigley Preparatory Seminary (CB10).

In reviewing the McCormack files, we realized that we have "declassified" some documents in the McCormack CB8 file relating to McCormack's employment as an adult at St. Joseph seminary, since these are not educational records. These documents are enclosed with this letter; they comprise about 80 pages. They should be considered to be produced, as a supplement to the previous McCormack production, pursuant to the terms of the Mediation Agreement.

We apologize for this late notice. If you need any further explanation of the documents or our standards for production, please do not hesitate to call me.

Very truly yours,

Jay R. Franke
