

Archdiocese of Santa Fe

List of Priests, Deacons, Religious, and Seminarians Accused of Sexual Abuse of Children in Other U.S. Dioceses Who Have Also Ministered/Worked in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe

The goal of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe is to assist the healing of abuse victims and to ensure transparency, while simultaneously seeking to maintain an accurate list of credibly accused and respect the legal rights of individuals.

The following priests, deacons, religious, or seminarians:

- 1) have at some time ministered/worked in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe;
- 2) have NOT had any accusations of abuse filed against them within the archdiocese;
- 3) ARE listed as credibly accused on lists of other U. S. dioceses.

It is not possible for the archdiocese to be completely versed in the confidential processes of all other dioceses in their determinations of the credibly accused. No allegations concerning the persons listed below have been reported to the archdiocese. If you are aware of such allegations, please contact our Victim Assistance Coordinator Annette Klimka at 505.831.8144 or aklimka@archdiosf.org. Other names will be added to this list as the Archdiocese becomes aware of them.

If you are aware of names of priests/deacons/seminarians who fit the criteria above, please let us know.
