Dear [REDACTED]

I am sending this letter to you in a plain envelope without return address. Father McCormick suggested that you prefer it so.

I have received your letters of November 27, 1991 and December 31, 1991. I am aware that you sent letters to the Cardinal and to Father McCormick.

The Archdiocese takes your allegations seriously. Indeed, the allegations are serious.

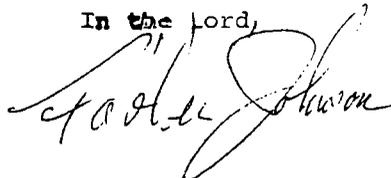

My regret is that these allegations make me the 'cause' of present or past problems. That disturbs me - because I would never want to be the cause of any problems for you. My recollection of you has been one of respect and admiration.

If you are in "pain", then, I am also "hurting" especially when your letter makes references to any dangers to your immortal soul or your present happiness.

When I return from an extended program outside the Archdiocese, I will contact you. Hopefully, we will be able to meet and discuss the problems which you allege as deriving from our days at Sacred Heart in Weymouth.

Until I return to the Boston area, you may contact me through Father McCormick (2121 Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton, MA 02135).

For you and for me, may God's love bring healing!

In the Lord,

JOHNSON-2 160
