Dear Tony,

It seems I am a free agent once again; not a pleasant experience.

For the moment I will say that the chaplains at Jacobi and I could not see eye to eye and we simply parted company.

As a result, I was told by Fr.
Barrett that my services would no longer be desired by New York.

He did not confer with me before coming to that decision.

I wrote him a short note advising him of my availability to discuss the matter and further suggested he speak with Fr. Reardon, pastor of S.F.X. who might enlighten him on the general picture.
